HUSBAND WANTED: MUST BE "SOUND IN MIND AND LIMB"

Chicago Widow Asks City Clerk Scully if He Knows a Nice Man.

Seeking a husband "sound in mind and limb," a Chicago widow has written to City Clerk Scully. Accompanying her letter are these quotations:

"A bill is known by its print and not by its leaves."

"Those who learn nothing, or accumulate nothing are set down as failures because they have neglected little things."

"Have you a real nice man," the widow's letter proceeds, "that wants a real nice wife? I am a widow, forty years old and am in the full vigor of womanhood. I am neat and stylish. The man I seek for a life partner must have money. No objection to age, but must be neat and sound in mind and limb."

City Clerk Scully, who presides over the Marriage Bureau, will not reveal the widow's name. He will send her a list of eligible husbands.

GEN. CORBIN WANTS TO BE AMBASSADOR TO ROME.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Lieut.-Gen. Henry C. Corbin, retired, would fain don the knee britches of the diplomat. Ever since the nomination of Mr. Taft for the Presidency Gen. Corbin has had in mind a mission abroad. Mrs. Corbin and her friends contributed $10,000 to the Republican national campaign fund. Gen. Corbin contributed a lot of trouble by trying to reconcile Mr. Taft and Senator Foraker one day ahead of the Hearst attack on Foraker which so pleased President Roosevelt.

Gen. Corbin wants to go to Rome.

GEMS GONE, BUTLER HELD.

Diamond Rings Valued at $2,600 Stolen From Dr. Starr.

A man giving the name of Howard Brooks, twenty-four years old, of No. 234 East Eighty-fifth street, is held at Police Headquarters as a suspicious person. He was arrested in Central Park last night by Policemen Gegan and Moffat.

Brooks was formerly employed as butler by Dr. M. Allen Starr, of No. 34 West Fifty-fourth street. On the night of Jan. 21 two diamond rings valued at $2,600 were stolen from the Starr home. Brooks had been discharged before the rings were lost.

USED HEAD AS A TARGET.

Benson Fired Five Bullets at Himself, and Two Hit Him.

Gustav Benson, despondent and out of work, made a target of his own head in a room of his little home at No. 811 Quincy street, Brooklyn, to-day. Pointing a .32 calibre pistol at his right temple, he fired five shots.

The first three bullets missed. The next two found lodgement in his cranium. His wife summoned a policeman, who sent Benson to Bushwick Hospital in an ambulance. The doctors say he has a chance.

Take one to two teaspoonfuls after each meal." Any druggist can mix or furnish the ingredients of this prescription.
