

COL. DUFFY WILL FACE CHARGES, BUT WILL NOT RESIGN

Sixty-Ninth Regiment's Veteran Commander Accused of Drunkenness.

INVITES COURT MARTIAL

Alleged to Have Refused Offer of Chance to Quit National Guard.

Col. Edward Duffy, of the Sixty-ninth Regiment, is expected by his friends to face serious charges, one alleging drunkenness in the army, preferred at the order of Major-General Charles F. Roe, commanding the National Guard, rather than accept the alternative offered—to immediately resign his commission. Col. Duffy has been a member of the Sixty-ninth forty-two years. "I will never let it be said that Ed Duffy quit the old regiment under fire," said the gray-haired Colonel, who discussed the matter with friends today. "Let the charges come and I will beat them hands down."

Col. Duffy is Secretary of the Tenement-House Department and a power in Democratic politics. The regiment is in a turmoil over the charges and there is a report that Gov. Hughes will take a hand in the trouble and order many changes.

Reported by Rifle Inspector. The charges, now in the hands of Gen. Roe's staff officer, assert that Col. Duffy appeared intoxicated at the new armory, Lexington avenue and Twenty-sixth street, one night last week, while rifle inspection was in progress. The inspecting party consisted of Col. McAlpin and Abel and Capt. Cornelius Vanderbilt, for the National Guard, and Capt. Walton, U. S. A., retired for the War Department.

On the next night, the second and last of rifle inspection, it is charged, Col. Duffy did not appear at the armory, but the programme was carried out without him.

One of these officers reported Col. Duffy's alleged condition to Gen. Roe, Row Over H. H. Rogers.

The Sixty-ninth has been alive with excitement for the last six months over the campaign waged for the lieutenant-colonelcy, which is still open. The candidates were Henry H. Rogers Jr., son of the Standard Oil millionaire, Louis D. Conley, son-in-law of George Ehret, the brewer, Major Philip Reville and Rhineland Waldo.

Col. Duffy was strong for Conley, who has been a lieutenant in the Sixty-ninth for five years. He received one vote short of the necessary number to elect, and Rogers was one behind him. The other candidates withdrew.

Enlisted men in the regiment made it plain to their company officers that they wished the integrity of the regiment as an Irish military organization continued, and the officers who voted for outsiders for second in command have received censure.

19 DOG-FIGHT MEN MAKE GUILTY PLEA

Have Been in Tombs 5 Days
So Sentence Is Suspended—
19 Yet to Be Tried.

As detectives started to tell of the arrest of thirty-eight men, charged with attending a dog fight, in Special Sessions, nineteen of them, who had been locked up in the Tombs, unable to get bail, suddenly pleaded guilty. Justice Deuel, after the other nineteen cases had been adjourned, suspended sentence on those pleading guilty, saying the five days they had spent in prison was punishment enough.

The thirty-eight were arrested last Friday night in the rear of a saloon in West Ninety-sixth street, where the police say, a dog fight was going on. Two dogs were taken and afterward put to death by the Anti-Cruelty Society. In the West Side Court all pleaded not guilty and were held for trial.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE BILL HELD BACK

Mrs. Clarence Mackay's Visit Had No Effect on Assembly Judiciary Committee.

ALBANY, March 10.—An attempt to secure a favorable report of the Coombs woman suffrage amendment resolution by the Assembly Judiciary Committee failed today. At the meeting of the committee Assemblyman Walters, of Syracuse, moved that the bill be reported, and the motion was seconded by Mr. Wemert, of Buffalo. Their efforts, however, were unavailing, the committee refusing to report the measure.

The motion to report the bill followed the visit to Albany yesterday of Mrs. Clarence Mackay, who interviewed Gov. Hughes, Speaker Wadsworth and the members of the Judiciary Committee in the interest of the bill. Chairman Phillips said the members of the committee were pledged to secrecy as to vote in committee.

Assemblyman Tombs said he would move in the near future to discharge the committee from further consideration of the measure and thus put the House on record.

Tracts For Sick Women

We know of no other medicine which has been so successful in relieving the suffering of women, or secured so many genuine testimonials, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

In almost every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Almost every woman you meet has either been benefited by it, or knows some one who has.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing over one million one hundred thousand letters from women seeking health, in which many openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved many women from surgical operations.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is made exclusively from roots and herbs, and is perfectly harmless.

The reason why it is so successful is because it contains ingredients which act directly upon the female organism, restoring it to healthy and normal activity.

Thousands of unsolicited and genuine testimonials such as the following prove the efficiency of this simple remedy.

Minneapolis, Minn.:—"I was a great sufferer from female troubles which caused a weakness and broken down condition of the system. I read so much of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other suffering women, I felt sure it would help me, and I must say it did help me wonderfully. Within three months I was a perfectly well woman."

"I want this letter made public to show the benefits to be derived from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. John G. Moldan, 2115 Second St. North, Minneapolis, Minn.

Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.
