

LOOT BROADWAY BUILDING UNDER POLICE GUARD

Special Watch Had Been Placed After Thieves Made
Three Failures.

Although the police of the Mulberry street station had a special watch on the place, looting robbers got into the two-story building at No. 54 Broadway last night and looted the establishment of Louis Rite, a jobber in leather novelties, on the tenth floor. The men who did the job evidently had an expert knowledge of such goods, for they went through the stock on the shelves and finally undid a lot of consignments that had been packed for shipment. The men were seen by the police, who were on the tenth floor, but they were not seen by the police on the ground floor. The police on the ground floor were on the tenth floor, but they were not seen by the police on the ground floor. One Thousand Dozen Waists at Prices Almost Unbelievably Low, But Here Are the Pictures And Descriptions of a Few:

We hold up eight Waists in the papers—four styles at 99c, one style at $1.29 and three styles at $1.79. The representation is paltry when you remember that there are one thousand dozen Waists involved in the sale. Just a hint of what you may expect. There are fifty styles at $2.97 alone. Plenty at higher prices—and the more you pay for a Waist here the more you save. Needing Waists, we hardly think you'll neglect these:

The Underprice Basement

Has been greatly enlarged.
More room for merchandise;
more room for buyers. Bigger

Dress Goods

MAIN FLOOR

Imported Henrietta Cloth

—Its warp is silk; its wool is fine wool. Silk for strength; wool for softness. The two fibres are ideally wedded in Henrietta—giving it luster, lightness and wonderful draping qualities. The colorings run to silver, smoke, tan, peacock, royal and navy; 43 inches wide. Price $1.39 a yard. Try to match it. Yes, try to match it.

Fancy Linens Reduced.

MAIN FLOOR

Sediments of the stock—unsold balances that persisted in lingering will hurry out now under the spur of the price prod. We can't be worried and burdened with small remainders. Their room is more welcome than their company.

Irish Linen Hand-Embroidered Doilies, reduced from 30c to 19c.
Teneriffe Hand-Drawn Tray Cloths, size 18x27 inches, reduced from $2.00 to $1.24.
Teneriffe Hand-Drawn Centre-pieces, 30x30 inches, reduced from $3.20 to $1.98.
Teneriffe Tea Cloths, size 36x36 inches, reduced from $0.44 to $0.49.
Teneriffe Scarfs, size 18x72 inches, reduced from $0.48 to $0.36.

All-Wool Black Panama

Cloth—Chiffon weight, 50 inches wide, 79c

Panama Cloth was an experiment several seasons ago. Its place in the fabric circle is now fixed and firm.

Imported Black Broadcloth—Broadcloth came, never to go. Its position in the textile world is as secure as the traction machine in the realm of domestic utilities. Broadcloth stays popular—is fortified by its own grace and goodness.

What do you think of a Broadcloth with a rich satin luster and chiffon finish, sponged, shrunk and spotproof, 50 inches wide, at $2.00 a yard? A grand stuff for the money, $2.00. A grander stuff at $1.44, which is our price for it.

Grocery Specials

You'll notice the remodelled Order Room in the Grocery Department—perhaps you'll admire it. Its appointments are practical. Everything is for the buyer's comfort and convenience. The displays in the bijou glass-front cases are not meant to tempt you—but to help you.
