When asked if he didn't still think he'd have a chance to knock out the Dane, Joe answered: "I've had three chances, ain't I? I punched him every time until my arms nearly fell off. I'm not getting any younger and better."

Joe beats White, for all that, he may be induced to meet Nelson for ten rounds. The question would be how Nelson would regard such a match. Bat likes the long distance. Also in their three fights Gans galloped along very well for the first ten rounds and nearly walloped Bat's head off. The bout, greatly to Gans's credit.
