granted an interlocutory decree of Hall and against Mandeville de Marigny Whitmore, now playing with Anna Held in "Miss Innocence," without first having obtained a legal separation from his first wife.

The two women were in court. Mrs. Hall No. 1 took the stand, but Miss Whitmore did not testify. She had been named as co-respondent in the suit and was subpoensed as a witness.

"I wish they had called me to the stand," said Miss Whitmore, who is a decided brunette and quite pretty. "I would have fixed him," she added, apparently indignant at what she termed gross deception on the part of Hall. Miss Whitmore in Court.

Miss Whitmore wore a peach-basket het with a large white ostrich plume encircling it. A fur coat covered a gray dress. She was asked to stand when the Rev. Samuel J. Arthur, pastor of the North Baptist Church of Jersey City, was testifying, and he said she was the young woman he had married to Hall on May 21, 1908.

Mrs. Hall No. 1, who is slightly older than Miss Whitmore, is a handsome woman, with dark hair and eyes. She told the Court she was married to Hall on July 9, 1906, and that no divorce had ever been granted to either of them. "Mr. Hall came to me with Miss she declared that she had not lived with Hall for more than a year. The wedding was secret, and was not made public for a year. A few days later Hall was found with a bullet in his side, and said he had accidentally shot himself.

To-day Mrs. Hall said it was because she had refused to live with Hall that the had attempted suicide.

Mrs. Florence Teall Hall is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Teall, of Rochester. Hall's father is William Cornelius Hall, a relative of the Duc de Villabrosa and Louis Von Hoffman, of Parls.

Vaudeville Actor Needed to Name

Only Three to Get Divorce. After charging his wife with being too friendly with ten men while she was travelling on vaudeville circuits, Edward F. Gallegher, an actor and book-ing agent, got a decree of divorce from his wife, Ella, from Justice Marean, in the Supreme Court, in Brooklyn, to-day, Gallugher said that in 1907 he came home unexpectedly and found a man whom he had supposed was a good rriend of his holding Mrs. Gallegher on his lap. This caused him to set a watch and discover ten other good friends who were not particularly loyal.

In 1879, the telephone list of New York was printed on a mately a quarter of a million telephone subscribers in New York City. 400,000 of these directories are being distributed, the old directories being collected when the new ones are left, since if old books remain in circulation the telephone service suffers from wrong number calls arising from incor-

What a ridiculous undertaking?

Still, do you know some persons advertise for positions, workers, homes, investments, bargains, lost articles, etc., in just as hazardous a fashion?

Last year The World printed 1,200,873 separate want-filling advertisements-168,894 more than the Herald or ANY OTHER newspaper on earth.

WHY? Largely because the average circulation of the Morning World, last year, was 352,361 copies per day—a circulation in New York City greater than that of the Herald, Sun, Times, Tribune and Press COMBINED.

Working Wonders World Wants Win!

Since March 1, 1909, The World has gained 5,869, while the Herald has gained but 148 separate advertisements over corresponding records for 1908.
