and after the law he said "Da-Da" with his broad smile.

For a star performer Napoleon made an extremely modest entrance. He backed in with the spot-light lighting him where it would do the most good.

William Clifton as Mr. Newlywed, Ruby Ray as Mrs. Newlywed.

That kinetoscope actor, Fletcher Norton, danced with his feet, hands and mouth, and also relieved himself of a song or two, all of which seemed to make Miss Carrie Reynolds very, very glad.

A Bad Complexion.

DEAR MADAM—I am a stenographer and have a very bad complexion. I have tried many creams but nothing seems to help me.

An Alphabet Game.

HAVE any of your children who frequently have to ride to school on the cars, and are often tired of it, ever played the alphabet game?

stronger food. And the juices, especially of the orange and grape fruit, aid in the digestion. But the other food should certainly follow.

Talks on Matrimony

By Dr. Madison C. Peters

No. 2—Marrying a Man to Mend Him.

HOW oftentimes will be greater after marriage than before, and too often find with breaking hearts that it is less. The marriage-spirit seldom brings the better regard.

MY "CYCLE OF READING."

By Count Tolstoy.

Translated by Herman Bernstein.

God.

GOD is the spiritual Beginning, and therefore it cannot be defined. JESUS saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh when ye shall worship in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.

up a society-column notion of life over here," he said. "You're like old Pete Delaney, of Terre Haute—he got a head drink cold tea if there was a label on the bottle that spelled whiskey."

"My dear! Les covenances!" cried madame. "Ethel! I am surprised! Come away at once!" demanded Horace.

"Yes," answered the Earl, after an instant's pause, and Dan went closer to him. "An answer to what?" he demanded, looking the other in the eye.

"Ivanoff!" he called, and the Russian came into the room. At the sight of him Hawcastle fell back against the mantel and the Countess collapsed in a heap on the floor.
