

SUFFRAGETTES STORMED THE BRITISH PARLIAMENT

Women and Unemployed Are Nearly Cause of Immense Riot in Old London

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, Oct. 13.—The climax of the suffragette campaign was reached tonight when an enormous mob hemmed in parliament and stopped traffic in all the streets leading to Westminster.

Three officials seized Mrs. Symons and carried her out bodily. As a result of the coup an order was issued that hereafter women shall not be admitted into the building on any pretext whatever in the future.

All the mounted police in London and its suburbs were mobilized at this center and loads of hay stacked in the streets for the horses. The whole police force, together with cavalry, infantry and marines numbering more than 5000, was kept busy restraining and pushing the struggling masses about Trafalgar square.

kept practically the whole police force on duty continuously for forty-eight hours.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Attorney-General Bonaparte has replied to a second letter from Josephus Daniels, chairman of the press bureau of the Democratic national committee at Chicago, in which he complains that in the attorney-general's answer to his first inquiry as to trust prosecutions he had not differentiated between prosecutions under the Sherman anti-trust law and those under the general laws.

Answering specifically, the attorney-general stated there had been sixty-five proceedings in all under Republican and nine under Democratic administrations; forty-six since Roosevelt was made president in 1901, and nineteen in the preceding eleven years.

New York Voters Show Much Apathy

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Extraordinary efforts were being made by all political party leaders today to induce voters to register for the November elections. Up to the present time there has been a marked falling off in registration as compared with other presidential years.

Word was passed along to captains of election districts that they must bring out the voters, and as a result captains were out as early as 6 o'clock interviewing unregistered citizens. Some men, especially those who can not write, the captains reported, said they did not care to stand the stress of the new law, while others had simply grown apathetic.
