

JOHNSON KNOCKS OUT KETCHEL IN TWELVE ROUNDS

force and it caught the negro good and solid on the jaw, raising a big lump that was immediately perceptible to the spectators. It was by far the cleanest and best blow of the fight. The crowd yelled gleefully.

Round 8—Johnson's smile had vanished as he came up and he immediately closed in, landing twice with left on the face. The fighters roughed it shoulder to shoulder and Ketchel worked in a hard right uppercut on the jaw. The referee then separated the men, Johnson landing left and right on the face as they broke. Ketchel missed a terrific right swing and almost went through the ropes from the force of his effort. Johnson forced his opponent back gradually and landed a left to the jaw. Ketchel again missed a terrific right swing and again nearly went through the ropes. Ketchel ran to his corner smiling, amid the cheers of the audience.

Round 9—They closed in, each landing short-arm light blows on the face. Referee Walsh was twice forced to break the men from clinches. The champion then sent in four stinging straight lefts to the face but Ketchel did not break ground. He rushed in hammering at the champion's stomach, but his blows were smothered. Ketchel got in a left over the ribs, and Johnson countered with a short left hook to the jaw. Johnson again hooked his left to the jaw and a clinch followed. Johnson broke it up with a nasty straight left to the face and the round ended with Johnson enjoying the honors.

Round 10—Both men rushed to a clinch and Johnson sent in two light lefts to the stomach and then shifted to the jaw, where he connected twice and started Ketchel spitting blood. Johnson wrestled Ketchel to the floor, then lifted him up and placed him in the center of the ring. In a mid-ring rally, Johnson sent three straight lefts to Stan-ley's nose and mouth, starting the blood afresh. Johnson again wrestled and Ketchel nearly went off his balance. Johnson, getting Ketchel against the ropes, sent an awful right wallop to the stomach, and Ketchel winced. Johnson patted Ketchel on the shoulder with his open hand as the bell changed.

Round 11—After some desultory sparring Ketchel whipped his left to the kidneys and missed two hard swings for the jaw. It was noticed that Johnson's right uppercut which he used with such good effect in his other fights failed to find Ketchel. Ketchel sent the great crowd into convulsions by landing a terrific right almost on the jaw and the big black immediately clinched and seemed content to rest. Ketchel forced the fighting, seeking to follow the advantage, but could not further penetrate the negro's clever defense. Ketchel was enthusiastically cheered as he went to his corner.

Round 12—Ketchel, suddenly rushing in, sent his right for the jaw. It struck the champion on the arm and the big negro fell flat on his back, and seemed to have injured himself. Ketchel rushed at him but the tricky champion was waiting. He swung a hard right to the jaw and quick as a flash shot a left to the body. As Ketchel fell backwards Johnson sent in another right to face and the white man went to the mat as if shot, where he lay prone with the blood streaming from his mouth. He made a weak effort to rise but fell back again and was counted out.

"SLIM" MORGAN LEAVES FOR SOUTH AMERICA

(By Associated Press.)

"Slim" Morgan, the discoverer of Round Mountain, who was christened Luther, but outgrew it, will leave the hydraulic camp for South American ports in a few days. He expects to be gone a year or more and during that time it is safe to say that South America will be prospected as it never was before.

STAR GAME TO BE PLAYED THIS AFTERNOON

LAS VEGAS AND TONOPAH BALL TEAMS TO CROSS BATS ON LOCAL DIAMOND

Last evening the Las Vegas ball team, accompanied by several rooters, arrived from their southern home. The bunch were met at the depot by the members of the Tonopah team and the Eagles' drum corps. A line was formed and headed by the corps, the entire aggregation marched up town.

The visitors are in fine form and will do everything in their power to wrest the championship laurels away from the Tonopah nine today. They are still somewhat sore after meeting defeat last Sunday and declare that today's game will have a different ending. Hunt, the big six-foot pitcher, is in the best of shape and is prepared to give the local fans a real surprise.

The game should be the best ever witnessed on the local diamond for it is acknowledged that the Las Vegas team certainly understands all the fine points of the sport. The southern contingent brought along a sack containing innumerable saw bucks, which they are willing to wager as to the outcome of the contest. The game will start promptly at 2 o'clock and will be umpired by James J. Kelly.

The line up of the teams will be as follows:

CARSON PAPER CASTS INSINUATIONS ON POKER PLAYERS FROM TONOPAH

Never before have we questioned the veracity of the Carson Appeal, but the following article leads us to believe that the editor of the paper in question has his location monuments twisted. We think that our readers will bear us out for it is an assured fact that no Tonopah poker player would bet $216 on three kings. Here is the story as taken from the Carson paper:

"One of the strongest poker games that has been played in this city in years is in progress in a local card room and has been in progress for the past 24 hours.

"Some remarkable hands have been held. The average run of the hands in a game like this are not much cause of comment, it is the playing of the participants that excites the interest.

"This morning three hands appeared in the same deal, hands that anyone would like to get any time, and it looked for a moment as if the $2000 odd table stakes would all go into the pot before the hands were showed down.

"Two gentlemen from Lyon county are in the game, one from Tonopah and one from Carson City. The Carson City man had dealt and the Tonopah man opened before the draw with $4. Dayton One saw and raised $10. Dayton Two saw and raised $10 and Tonopah called.

"Carson City, dealing, asked for the number of cards wanted. Tonopah took one, Dayton One took one, and Dayton Two took two.

"Tonopah bet, rather in an off-hand way, $18. Dayton One saw the bet and raised it $60. Two saw the bet and the raise and raised it

TWO PLAYS SCHEDULED FOR THIS EVENING

"ZAZA" AND "THE GOD OF THE WINE CUPS" AT NEVADA THEATRE

"Du Barry," another great play of the excellent repertoire of Miss Lorraine Buchanan's company, was presented last evening at the Nevada theatre to a very appreciative audience.

The drama, taken from a page of French history, deals with Louis XV, scenes from the French court, the revolution, the downfall of the king and the execution of the unfortunate nobles at the hands of relentless mobs.

The story of Jeanne Du Barry, a beautiful young girl living the simple life in the village of Chantilly, enticed to become the mistress of the king, surrounded by voluptuous splendor and elegance, and then falling the victim of the enraged and hooting mob, dragged through the streets to meet death by the guillotine, is an awful scene from the horrible chaos and bloody deeds that followed in the wake of the French commune at the downfall of Louis.

Miss Buchanan in the title role portrayed the part with a realism worthy of a star, while the support given her by the entire company was the best ever witnessed in Tonopah.

Tonight's bill will conclude the engagement of Miss Buchanan's company and another strong drama, Belasco's great play, "Zaza," one of Mrs. Leslie Carter's greatest triumphs, followed by a vaudeville play entitled "The God of the Wine Cups," written by Miss Buchanan for the Orpheum stage, will furnish a double bill for the farewell performance.

$170. Before Tonopah could make his bet and as he studied his hand, Dayton One with an exclamation of heat thrust about $200 into the center and on counting Dayton Two called what proved to be a $216 bet.

"Tonopah began to protest, but before he could do so, Dayton Two, confident of his hand, showed down a seven full on fours. Dayton One calmly laid down four eights and raked in the pot. Tonopah sighed and thanked his lucky stars that he did not get a chance to bet. He only had three kings. Carson City did not come in before the draw with two tens.

"The pot was worth the trifle of $678."

MILL CASES ARE PUT OVER TO TUESDAY

PRELIMINARY HEARING IS DELAYED BY THE ABSENCE OF COUNSEL

The preliminary examinations of the alleged Goldfield Combination mill high graders, Lamb and Dresser, set for yesterday morning in Justice Barnes' court, were continued until 10 o'clock next Tuesday morning. The continuance came at the request of counsel for the defendants, and met with no resistance. The fact that it was imperative that Judge R. L. Hubbard be absent from the city for some days was the basis of the plea for a postponement, and so the matter stands.

No new developments have arisen in the high grading situation up to date.

It is believed that the preliminary examinations will be under full swing when court is opened Tuesday.
