THE SHADOW OF A REPUBLIC.—According to a classification recently made, the members of President McMahon's Cabinet are Bonapartists; while four are opponents or Legitimists, and not one is set down as a Republican. The Cabinet made up of able men, some of whom are refused to serve in any capacity under Napoleon. He there does not appear to be a man recently in view of the powers of Government, from Madison down, who is a Republican, or who has any interest in perpetuating that form of Government. Did the French Republic disappear with Thiers?—[S. F. Bulletin.]

People sometimes fancy that we cannot become wise without becoming old; but in truth, as years accumulate, it is hard to keep as we were, as we become, in the different stages of his life, indeed, a different being; but he cannot say that he "will surely be better as he grows onward, and in certain matters he is as likely to be right in his judgment as in his sixtieth year.

Whenever selfish love is the main-spring of man's actions, whatever happiness is placed, not on what we can gain for ourselves, but on what we can impart to others; wherever we place our highest satisfaction in gratifying our fathers and mothers, our brothers and sisters, our wives and children, our neighbors and friends, we are sure to attain all the happiness the world can bestow.

A LOVING heart and a pleasant countenance are commodities which a man should never fail to take home with him. They will best season his food and soften his pillow. It were a great thing for a man that his wife and children could truly say of him, "He never brought a frown or unhappiness across the threshold."

Five of the sweetest words in the English language begin with H, which is only a breath: "Heart, Hope, Home, Happiness and Heaven." Heart is a hope-place, and home is a heart-place, and that man surely mistaketh who would exchange happiness of home for anything less than heaven.

No man can ever borrow himself out of debt. If you wish for relief you must work for it. You must make more and spend less than you did when you were running in debt.
