LEGAL DUTIES.

An Eastern paper says, in reference to the Stokes case, that "since our great lawyers have become the allies of the criminal, and have imposed their legal ability to screen him from the consequences of his crime, they are equally responsible with him and rowdism for the present disregard of human life." This view of the case is illogical in the highest degree. A lawyer cannot fairly be charged with a moral offense simply because he presents the case of an accused man in its best possible aspect. Not only is he free from censure for so doing, but a failure to do so would cover him with disgrace among the profession and in the community. He is not, as many seem to think, obliged to do dishonorable acts to save a client from the law's vengeance. He is bound to do for his client legally what the client would do for himself if he had the lawyer's tact and skill. The State has a paid attorney to prosecute those charged with crime, and it would be a mockery of justice to compel a layman to enter upon his own defense, while a skilled lawyer is paid to prosecute him. The law's aim is to protect the innocent as well as to punish the guilty; hence the right and justice of allowing every one accused an opportunity to make the best possible legal defense.

RAILROAD MEETING AT LEHI.

On Tuesday last a meeting was held at Lehi to make arrangements for the continuation of the Utah Southern Railroad. Brigham Young called the meeting to order, and stated that the iron had been secured to complete the road to Provo. We copy from the Salt Lake Herald, as follows:

William Jennings, President of the road, then in a brief speech set forth the advantages which would accrue to Utah county by the building of the road, and referred especially to the benefits arising to the Territory from being able to control the trade at Southwestern Nevada, yet unless this road was built the Territory would lose it. He said there were quite a number of shares of the stock of the Utah Southern Railroad for distribution to those in the county who desired it, and explained the very liberal terms on which it could be obtained, while it could be used for grading, grading, building buildings or other labor on the road. Hon. A. O. Smith, David Evans, L. E. Harrington and Geo. Halliday, prominent gentlemen of Utah county, spoke warmly in favor of the proposition and prospect.

We regret to learn from one of our western exchanges, that our former fellow-citizen, M. C. Crosby, who some three years ago went to the far west in pursuit of fortune, and settled at Camp Halleck, Nevada, in a recent difficulty into which he was unfortunately drawn, killed one of his adversaries, and is at present in close quarters at Elko, Nevada. Poor Charlie! we sympathize with him. He is a man of high mettle, but a more intemperate, unmerciful spirit than his neighbor. He has in his life, and never filled the breast of a human being. In social relations he was as gentle as a child, and we know that nothing short of inevitable circumstances could have driven him to resistance so violent. We can say that his friends here, and their names are legion, will with the progress of his trial with the deepest interest.

We copy the foregoing paragraph from the Memphis (Tenn.) Appeal, of July 15, but we are unable to throw any light upon the subject. Perhaps the Elko Independent has all needed information. If any of our readers know anything of the circumstances, we would of course be glad to hear of it.

EXTENSIVE IMPROVEMENTS.—Messrs. Walker Bros. have completed an extension of 45,000 feet, three stories high, forming the loss of an L to the main building, running north and south. The new addition is devoted to their wholesale business, the first floor being occupied with groceries, a neat sample office dividing the present wholesale from the retail groceries. The second floor is devoted to dry goods, clothes and white goods, with a nice carpet room at the north end, and the third floor is filled with lighter articles of general merchandise. The firm has a very large stock of goods on hand in the various lines of merchandise; their place is lighted up with the city gas, and the building, its immense and varied assortment of merchandise, with the taste manifest in the general arrangement, would make it a credit to any city in the country.—Salt Lake Herald.

PEOPLE'S TICKET IN SALT LAKE.—The Herald files the following at its masthead: GENERAL ELECTION.—PEOPLE'S TICKET. COMMISSIONERS to locate military lands.—John Van Cott, Lewis S. Hills and John Rowberry. Councilors for Salt Lake, Tooele and Summit counties.—Wilford Woodruff, William Jennings, Wm. H. Hooper and John T. Caine. Secretary for Salt Lake county.—Elijah M. Wheeler. Coroner for Salt Lake county.—George J. Taylor. Wm. H. Hooper, one of the nominees for Comptroller, is the ex-Delegate to Congress, and was with Tom Fitch elected United States Senator from the embryo State of Deseret.

The late Gustave Ross, the eminent German chemist and mineralogist, was an old conditor of Humboldt. The deceased was born at Berlin in 1798. He studied chemistry in its application to mineralogy in the laboratory of the celebrated Berzelius at Stockholm. In 1820 he accompanied Humboldt in his exploration of Northern Asia. He wrote several treatises on mineralogy and chemistry, the most notable of which is the "Elements of Crystallography."

A consignment of three hundred and forty-nine barrels of the sweepings of the Mint was shipped to New York on Saturday by the ship "General McClellan," for reduction. These sweepings often contain a large percentage of gold and silver, and are consequently gathered carefully by the porters.

We would rather suffer the unjust censure of one man than incur the unjust displeasure of a whole community.

The Woodville hoisting works were well-nigh covered with attachments on the night of the 21st. On the forenoon of the 22d the Justice of Gold Hill issued 24 attachments. The first suit issued on the 21st was by Captain Sam Curtis for $1,500 for services as foreman.

The construction of the new school building connected with St. Mary's School in Virginia City, is being pushed forward rapidly. It is expected that the building will be ready for occupation at the commencement of the next term.

The Virginia and Gold Hill Water Company are pushing forward the construction of their new aqueduct with all possible dispatch.

Telegraphic Dispatches.

SPECIAL TO THE POCHE DAILY RECORD.

Eastern Dispatches.

BALTIMORE, July 25. The fire was under control at 2 p. m. Loss estimated by several parties at $500,000. The loss falls principally on one cash and blind factory, dress and cloak establishment, fancy goods, sewing-machine store, cigar, paint and tailor shops, and one saloon and restaurant. Many of the houses on Clay street were frame and two-story brick buildings. The residences of A. S. Abel, proprietor of the Sun, Joe S. Hopkins and Prof. N. R. Smith were saved by men with fire extinguishers. St. Stephen's Church escaped. The orphan asylum of St. Alphonsus's School was almost entirely destroyed. The cathedral escaped, but valuable residences near it were destroyed. With the exception of those on Clay street all the dwellings destroyed belonged to wealthy persons.

New York, July 26. A Baltimore special says the fire in several portions of the burned district, swept rapidly through the roofs, and left the lower portion of whole rows scarcely damaged. This is deemed to be caused by the large number of shingle roofs, which are so exceedingly dry as to burn like grass. In this way the fire actually crossed over streets in which engines continued to work, and left a portion of the brigade working in the very center of the burning blocks. The water was so nearly exhausted before the fire was under control, as to make it necessary to dump up water and so supply some fire engines. The casualties were of no importance, except the case of Sister Rainald, a nun in the convent of St. Alphonsus's Church, who died from fright. Two firemen were injured by the explosion of a steamer, but they will probably recover.

Judge McCue said yesterday about the Brooklyn Trust Company, that a statement of its condition is being prepared for publication, and would be ready this morning. He said the statement would show a deficit of not over $225,000, all of which will be made up by the stockholders, if not recovered from the estate of the late President, Mills.

The umpire in the College Regatta, Springfield, says: "Owing to the fact that only six of the eleven judges have seen it to make a report, viz: the judges for Yale, Wesleyan, Harvard, Amherst, Columbia and Dartmouth, I shall refuse to award any other positions than those already awarded—Yale first, Wesleyan second, Harvard third. The honor of fourth place being claimed by the judges for Amherst, Columbia and Dartmouth, respectively, I shall be obliged to leave them to fight it out on that line if it takes all summer."

BALTIMORE, July 26. This morning's Sun estimates the loss by the fire yesterday at $500,000, and states that good judges place the damage as low as between $300,000 and $400,000. The Gazette estimates it at from $500,000 to $800,000, and the American says it will closely approximate to $1,000,000.

A dispatch from Portland, Me., says a fire this forenoon destroyed the car, paint, tin and repair shop, an locomotive, two tenders and other small buildings of the Grand Trunk Railroad. Loss $50,000; insurance $100,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 26. The Liberal Reformers last night nominated Captain J. McDonald for Mayor; Monroe Ashbury, Auditor; Wm. Harney, County Clerk; Alex. Austin and Caleb T. Fay, Tax Collectors; P. Crowley, Chief of Police; T. Owens, Sheriff; T. J. White, James Adams, James Laidly, and others of less prominence, were candidates for Superintendent of Public Schools; James Denman, District Attorney; D. J. Murphy and T. P. Ryan, City Surveyors; City Attorney W. C. Burnett.

A Chinaman, name unknown, committed suicide by taking a large dose of opium. Jealousy of another female heathen is the alleged cause.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 26.—Evening. The funeral of Russell took place to-day from the Howard-street Presbyterian church. The church was filled, many being unable to gain admission. The body was viewed by the congregation. The services were conducted by Revs. Dodge and Williams.

Number of deaths here during the week, 56—3 by accident, 3 suicides, 1 homicide.

At 3 p. m. the thermometer reached 78 degrees in the shade.

A delegation of merchants and bankers waited on Mayor Alvord to-day, urging him to accept the nomination of the Taxpayers. He firmly refused, saying he had had enough of public life.

It is currently reported that Laura D. Fair recently made $30,000 in stock speculations.

At the Mint to-day 70,000 new trade dollars were struck off.

The investigation into the discipline and course of instruction of boys of the high school, and into the special qualifications and disqualifications of Principal

Bradley commenced to-day. Judge Dargatzis and Dr. McLean testified against Bradley, that in their opinion his modes of instruction are wrong, calculated to retard progress and discourage the ambition of his pupils.

PLEASANTON, Cal., July 26. About 2 o'clock this afternoon a fire broke out in the buildings occupied by the Central Pacific Railroad Company, destroying both the freight and passenger depot. The origin of the fire is as yet unknown, but it is supposed to have been caused by some men who had taken refuge from the heat under the freight depot, and in lighting a pipe, caused the fire. The trains were for some hours interrupted, but as soon as the intense heat had partially subsided, the track was gotten in order. The Western Union Telegraph office was in a dangerous condition, but by strenuous efforts was saved. Both companies, wires were for a time prostrated, but communication is re-established, and by tomorrow we will have everything in working order. The loss cannot be estimated at present.

SEATTLE, W. T., July 26. Articles of incorporation of Seattle and Walla Walla Railroad Company have been filed, with a capital of $10,000,000. The object of the company is to construct a railroad from Seattle to Walla Walla. The large donation of land offered by the N. P. R. R. by the citizens of this county as an inducement for that company to locate their terminals at this place, will be given to the Seattle & Walla Walla Company.

A novel building association, having two hundred members, has lately been started at Stamford, Connecticut. Each member pays in $3 per week, and as fast as the houses are built, lots are drawn to determine who shall be possessor. The process is continued till all members of the association are supplied with houses.

WILLIAM CRAY, whose case has been on trial in the District Court, for killing Robert W. Bennett at Mineral City some weeks ago, was acquitted on the charge. The evidence went to establish the fact that Cray acted solely in defense, and was justified in the act under the circumstances. The jury were out but ten minutes. There is a moral to be drawn from this case, which will be well for passionate and unruly natures to remember; which is, never to allow evil passions to gain complete control of our calmer judgment, when a difference arises on matters of small importance. Had the parties to the trouble, originating in family misunderstandings, consulted their better natures and explained matters without giving vent to angry and unseemly words and actions, Bennett would have been alive to-day and Cray would have been relieved from a load which must hereafter be a heavy burden through his whole life.—[White Pine News.]

DAN MORRIS, the enterprising livery man, is about establishing a line of stages to Troy District, which will be in running order about the 1st of August. In a short time there must be considerable travel that way, as the principal mail belonging to the English Company operating there will be started this season and making things lively.—[White Pine News.]

SINCE our last issue renewed activity has been manifest among our merchants and others on Main street, and new houses are springing up, as by magic, on every lot. In the course of two or three weeks what will tower where the fire was, and what new town is being built up. Old residents would scarcely know the place; in fact the fire, through the indomitable energy of our people, seems to have increased our prosperity instead of diminishing it.—[White Pine News.]

A little girl aged five years, daughter of Mr. Averill, had the misfortune to break her right leg between the knee and ankle, at Alexander's mill, above Crystal Peak, Sunday night. She was playing with Mr. Rhoades' little girl, made a mistake, and fell. Dr. Bergman was telegraphed for and went up and set the broken bone, and the little sufferer is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.—[Reno Journal.]

HARRY SMITH, convicted of the crime of grand larceny on Treasure Hill, was sentenced to one year's imprisonment; G. Mitchell and Charles Wray (colored), for housebreaking, one year each, and W. H. A SPECIAL car from the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad came through yesterday, attached to the regular train, in charge of J. R. Dukehart, of that road. It had on board $8,000,000 in greenbacks, in charge of Colonel Frank Jones, of the Redemption Bureau at Washington, who had with him eight clerks from that Department. The car was accompanied by a guard of ten soldiers, and Captain Devan, U. S. A. The greenbacks are to be used in paying off the soldiers in Arizona, Oregon, Washington Territory, etc., and in the redemption of worn-out currency, which will be taken back to Washington.—[Sac. Record, July 22d.]

The Legislative Journals of the last session, printed and bound in book form as per law and custom provided, have been delivered to the Secretary of State by State Printer Putnam.

"SINISTAY," writing from Patagonia, says: "The Indians live on game—ostriches, guanaco, a species of deer, and other animals. They are large, well made, and seem to enjoy life. I ate some ostrich meat a few days ago; it tastes something like our prairie hen, but it is better. The eggs, which are about five times as large as a goose egg, are also good for breakfast."

There is a Mormon church or synagogue at Frankton, in which the disciples of Joe Smith, or Latter Day Saints, occasionally hold religious services. Six families living in Washoe Valley still adhere to the doctrines promulgated by Brigham Young.
