

The Colorado horses are so slow that they are only trained for harness work. The other day an undertaker purchased one, but took it back to the dealer in disgust. Said he, "that d—d old pling won't do; he can't raise a grave yard in time for the resurrection."

"Those who are very difficult in choosing wives," says Hawthorne, "seem as if they would take none of nature's ready-made works, but want a woman manufactured particularly to their order."
