

MORNING APPEAL.

THURSDAY, APRIL 1, 1880

THE SAN FRANCISCO ELECTION.

The Citizens' Union in San Francisco have made a pretty mess of the election.

They used tinted tickets that they might spot the voters who voted against them.

A party which resorts to such a contemptible trick does not deserve success.

The Citizens' ticket was elected by a majority of several thousand, yet the prospect now is that the illegal votes will be thrown out and the election given to the Workingmen.

Every man who casts his ballot has a right to cast it in such a way that no other man can tell how he voted.

The action of the manipulators of the Citizens' party was a clean case of deliberate suicide.

The Kearneyites will get the election, and their victory sounds like the decision sometimes given in the prize ring—"won by a foul."

THE PAPER CORNER BROKEN.

The efforts to break up the corner on print paper have at last met with a success that will be a crushing rebuke to the men who engineered the forming of the "corner."

THE RAILROAD AND THE MECHANICS UNION. Yesterday afternoon an engineer on the V. & T. R. R. received orders from a Committee of the Mechanics' Union of Storey county not to bring his engine back to Virginia to-day.

GALL.—The newspapers which are at present discussing Congressman Daggett's gall, will do well to turn to a case which has recently come to light in Russia.

OLIVE HARPER writes to a San Francisco paper from London and describes how she met a beautiful little girl in the street and kissed it.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Last week fifteen Indians were put through the Endowment House at Salt Lake.

James Gordon Bennett's horse Muscadine won the Park hurdle handicap plate in England, Tuesday.

Several hundred acres of young mustard near Blanco has been killed by frost and will have to be replanted.

The latest London fog: First pedestrian—"Is your lantern out?" Second pedestrian—"Don't know. I'll feel."

The English Catholic aristocracy have offered to provide an asylum for the Jesuits in case they should be driven from France.

On application of Governor Tilden's counsel, the trial of Tilden's income suit in the Supreme Court has been postponed until November.

Amelia Linkham, who was acquitted of the murder of a drummer named Hastman, for seduction, was married in Charleston on the 30th, to Charles Little, an officer of the Customs at Sullivan's Island.

The report of the inquest held on the body of the child of Homer Wellington, of Boston, Mass., is to the effect that the infant child was poisoned by arsenic, administered at sundry times by his father.

The Stock Exchange says that among the keen mining operators who can be seen frequenting the California Colony, in the Boreel Building, is Laura D. Fair, who has taken up her abode for good in New York.

The Baltimore Sun has published interviews with Senators Conkling, Don Cameron and Logan, all of whom concurred in the opinion that General Grant would not withdraw from the Presidential contest.

It is claimed that an important development has been made in the Albion mine. Assays have been made which gave a return of $120 per ton.

The possibility of a war with China is freely discussed in Russia. Dispatches say that in order to keep the Chinese from Kuldja, the Russians are endeavoring to induce the King of Burmah to join the proposed Japanese-Siamese alliance against China.

KILLED AT HER WEDDING.—In the midst of the great events of the war, such incidents as the following were comparatively unnoticed, and left to be long afterward related in print.

Miss Annie Pickens, daughter of the Governor of South Carolina, was to be married on April 22, 1863, in Charleston, to Lieutenant Andrew de Rochelle. The wedding party was assembled in the Pickens residence, and the clergyman was asking the bride if she was ready, when a shell from a Union gun in the harbor broke into the room and burst.

DR. D. BANKS MCKENZIE.—The following testimonial to the high character of Dr. McKenzie, we republish from the Reno Gazette, for the benefit of those who have indulged in doubts of his honesty of purpose.

BOSTON, March 12, 1880. R. L. Fulton, Esq.—DEAR SIR: In answer to yours of the 3d inst., I will say that I have known D. Banks McKenzie for some years, and during that time no act of his has ever come to my knowledge not in keeping with his profession.

Mr. Piute went home from the "lodge" the other night and tackled the "fifteen" puzzle. He wrestled with the thirty blocks—at least he thought there were thirty of them, he being in a splendid condition to "see double"—and in about an hour and a half had the thing solved to his own satisfaction.

THE SAN FRANCISCO ELECTION.

CITIZENS MAJORITY ABOUT SIX THOUSAND.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.

The Workingmen have filed a protest against counting the ballots of the Citizens' Union on account of a difference in tint, claiming that their own ballots are printed on legal paper from the Secretary of State, while the ballots of their opponents are not in conformity with the law, differing in color, weight and texture of paper.

It is known that men were stationed at the polling places during the day, to take notes of the color of the ballots and persons voting them, and the Workingmen charge that the Citizens' Union put up the job purposely to enable them to exercise a surveillance over the voters, in violation of the Election law.

The count, now nearly complete, shows the vote as follows: Citizens, 18,754; Workingmen, 12,420. Byrnes, 17,230; Freud, 12,876.

The following was received at this office at midnight: SAN FRANCISCO, midnight. Owing to some mismanagement of certain election officers the count is not yet complete, but the Citizens' majority will be about 6,900.

MR. WHITTIER'S "Maud Muller," according to a correspondent of the Springfield Republican, rests upon the following scanty foundation. The poet and his sister were journeying through York, Me., and stopped to inquire the way of a young girl who was at work in the hayfield.

The Washington correspondent of a Chicago paper, says that a friend of the Hon. Robert Ingersoll asked him who Illinois would be for in the contest for the Presidential nomination.

A new piano is the only substitute for food, drink and sleep at present known to the world. The people next door will always swear that the young lady with a new piano never stops to partake of either.

THE homestead law recently passed in the United States Senate is of importance to many persons in this State. It provides that the land shall be given to the first settler whether he claims as a pre-emptor or a homesteader.
