HOT BAIT FOR A SHARK.—Looking over the bulwarks of the schooner, I saw one of those wretched monsters winding lazily backward and forward like a long meteor, sometimes rising till his nose disturbed the surface, and a gushing sound like a deep breath rose through the breakers; at others, resting motionless on the waters, as if listning to our voices and thirsting for our blood. As we were watching the motion of this monster, Bruce (a little, lively negro and my cook), suggested the possibility of destroying it. This was briefly to heat a fire-brick in the stove, wrap it up hastily in some old greasy cloths, as a sort of disguise, and then to heave it overboard. This was the work of but a few minutes, and the effect was triumphant. The monster followed after the hissing prey. We saw it dart at the brick like a flash of lightning, and gorge it instanter. The shark rose to the surface almost immediately, and his uneasy motion soon betrayed the success of the maneuver. His agonies became terrible; the waters appeared as if disturbed by a violent squall, and the spray was driven over the taffrail where we stood, while the gleaming body of the fish repeatedly burst through the dark waves, as if writhing with and in terrible convulsions. Sometimes we thought we heard a shrill, bellowing cry, as if indicative of anguish and rage, rising through the gurgling waters. His fury, however, was soon exhausted; in a short time the sounds broke away into distance, and the agitation of the sea subsided. The shark had given himself up to the tides, as unable to struggle against the approach of death-and they were carrying his body unre, sistingly to the beach.—[Glasgo w Observer.

Chicago Journal: It was the first church fair of the season, and an unsuspecting Chicago youth dropped in to see what was going on, he was immediately surrounded and accosted by a chorus of dulcet and persuasive female voices, with words about as follows: "Buy one of my nice pen-wipers—only $1!" "Look at these elegant hair-receivers — only $1.75 apiece!" "Come, now, invest in a zephyr tidy—only $3 for two!" "Let me sell you a cardboard match-box, beautiful and cheap, for 75 cents! "Here, buy your lady-love a book-mark for 60 cents!" "Everybody needs a pin-cushion when they are sold two for a quarter!" "Oh, do buy one of my little worsted dogs, or elephants—the pair for only $1.50?" But the young man, not being a millionaire, gathered himself up and departed thence without making a purchase. And then those women, getting together in solemn conclave, decided in hushed voices that the youth had given unmistakable signs of being a confirmed atheist and was certainly on the highway to ruin.

The Cincinnati Saturday Night relates the following: "A young woman recently answered an advertisement for a dining-room girl, and the lady of the house seemed pleased with her; but before engaging her there were some questions to ask. "Suppose," said the lady—"now only suppose, understand—that you were carrying a piece of steak from the kitchen and by accident should let it slip from the plate to the floor, what would you do in such a case?" The girl looked the lady square in the eye before asking, "Is it a private family, or are there boarders?" "Boarders," answered the lady, "Pick it up and put it back on the plate," firmly replied the girl. She was engaged.

Donn Piatt finds only one fault in S. S. Cox. He is too affectionate. When a man greets you as his long-lost brother; when he throws his arm over you and embraces you, you are apt to say to yourself, "Tulla, what does this mean? I am not a beautiful woman. What is Sammy after?" And this unjust suspicion is strengthened on observing that nearly every man Sam meets is hailed as a long-lost brother and embraced as a beautiful woman. Now, a man can't have a thousand long-lost brothers, and so the cruel belief goes out that Sammy is a seducing little villain, seeking to trifle with tender affections for selfish ends.

NEW MILL.—The new five-stamp mill recently erected by the Crismon Mammoth Company in Tintic, is completed, and will be started up on Monday morning next, running on gold ore. Mr. M. Edwards, one of the lucky owners and proprietors, will go down to see the little beauty make her first run. It was incorrectly stated in the Tribune of Tuesday morning that Mr. Charles Crismon is superintending the mine. Mr. McIntyre is head light in the Crismon Mammoth.—[Salt Lake Tribune, 18.

Punch: Presbyterian minister (portentiously): "James, this is a very dreadful thing! You have heard there is one pound missing from the box?" James (the Beadle, who is strongly suspected): "Deed, sir, so they were tellin' me." Minister (solemny): "James, you and I alone had access to that box." James: "It's just as you say, sir; it must lie between us twa! An' the best way'll be, you to pay the tae half, and I'll pay thither, an' say na mair about it!"

A Boston dry-goods firm was cleverly swindled out of $900 by a fashionably dressed woman, who offered a good $1,000 for a $100 shawl, and when the clerk sent to the bank and found it genuine, said she was insulted and left the store, but finally came back, took the shawl, and got the change on a bad bill.

The Burlington Hawkeye is responsible for the following: "The other day some of the boys induced a young man from Flint Creek to take hold of the handles of a galvanic battery. As it puckered him up he roared, 'Jiminy Criminy, let up!' Who ever heard of a thing that could make you taste green persimmons with your hands before."

Norwich Bulletin: A fashion paper says that damasses will be popular with the ladies this Winter and society men have taken a fresh hold of life.

PROTECT YOUR BUILDINGS

Which may be done with one-fourth the usual expense, by using our

PATENT SLATE PAINT,

MIXED READY FOR USE.

Fire-proof, Water-proof, Durable, Economical and Ornamental.

A roof may be covered with a very cheap shingle, and by application of this slate be made to last from 20 to 25 years. Old roofs can be patched and coated, looking much better, and lasting longer than the new shingles without the slate, for

One-third the Cost of Reshingling.

The expense of slating new shingles is only about the cost of simply laying them. The paint is FIRE-PROOF against sparks or flying embers, as may easily be tested by any one.

IT STOPS EVERY LEAK,

And for tin or iron has no equal, as it expands by heat, contracts by cold, and NEVER CRACKS nor scales. Roofs covered with Tar Sheating Felt can be made water-tight at a small expense, and preserved for many years.

This Slate Paint is EXTREMELY CHEAP.

Two gallons will cover a hundred square feet of shingle roof, while on tin, iron, felt, matched boards, or any smooth surface, from two quarts to one gallon are required to 100 square feet of surface, and although the Paint has a heavy body it is easily applied with a brush.

No Tar is use in this Composition,

Therefore it neither cracks in Winter, nor runs in Summer.

On decayed shingles it fills up the holes and pores, and gives a new substantial roof that will last for years. CURLED or WARPED shingles it brings to their places, and keeps them there. It fills up all holes in Felt roofs, stops the leaks—and although a slow dryer, rain does not affect it a few hours after applying. As nearly all paints that are black contain TAR, be sure you obtain our GENUINE article, which (for shingle roofs) is

CHOCOLATE COLOR,

When first applied, changing in about a month to a uniform slate color, and is to all intents and purposes SLATE. On

TIN ROOFS

Our red color is usually preferred, as one coat is equal to five of any ordinary paint. For

BRICK WALLS

Our BRIGHT RED is the only reliable Slate Paint ever introduced that will effectually prevent dampness from penetrating and discoloring the plaster.

These paints are also largely used on outhouses and fences, or as a priming coat on fine buildings.

Our only colors are CHOCOLATE, RED, BRIGHT RED, and ORANGE.

PIPIFAX.

THE ROSICRUCIAN WERE A SECT OF Philosophers who flourished in Germany during the seventeenth century, and prosecuted profound researches into Natural Science and Occult Philosophy, and sought to discover the ELIXIR OF LIFE.

Although some superstition may have been developed among them and other Alchemists in search for the Elixir Vitæ, yet there is scientific truth at the bottom of all Alchemy and Astrology. They were impressed with the properties of

HERBAL PREPARATIONS,

And found dynamic and psychologic force in the extract of certain plants.

PIPIFAX

Is due to the researches of a learned scholar of Europe among the archives of the Rosicrucians. It is made of

TWENTY DIFFERENT HERBS,

Gathered at such seasons of the year when their juices are strongest and virtues unimpaired, forming a combination unrivalled in the materia medica.

PIPIFAX

Is an enemy to all corruption—it assists and fortifies Nature. Its manner of operation is to

And through the pores of the skin and all emunctories of the body, the bad humors which molest it, giving relief even in diseases the most refractory and difficult to cure, such as Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Sick Headache, Nervous Weakness and Billiousness. It is pleasant to the taste, mild in its action, marvelous in its effects and unsurpassed as a tonic. Used as a beverage in malarious districts it neutralizes miasma and prevents fever and ague.
