GREELEY AS BOOT AND BARTER.

It begins to be very evident to those who will not allow themselves to be blinded by appearances, that the Democratic leaders in Nevada are preparing to carry out a programme which is to be universally sustained in the doubtful States, namely: that of sacrificing the head of the so-called Liberal ticket in order to secure a majority of deserting Republicans and possumated Democrats in the Legislature. This policy, and the exertions made in behalf of their Congressional nominees, indicate plainly enough that the purpose of the schemers who are mustering their motley clans under the false colors of Liberalism, and whose wretched motto is, "anything to beat Grant," is to make the Farmer of Chappaqua a stool-pigeon where he can best be used in that role; a figure-head, where there are people who can be deceived by such a barefaced imposition as his candidacy is; and as a flabby joint of trading capital where he can be bartered off for votes for Legislative and Congressional candidates. The suggestive apathy toward Greeley on the part of certain well known Democratic flegmen; the forced but very steady strain to make Kendall appear as a wonderfully faithful and useful Congressman (and they affect to believe him the embodiment of representative perfection); and the well understood secret desire of the Democrats to disappoint their Liberal allies of a share of the anticipated spoils; the purpose, indeed, of the Democracy to make, so far as possible, a clean and clear victory for themselves—a victory whose glories and emoluments they may not have to share with their superserviceable catspaws—the Liberals—these, we say, are ample signs and reasons for being on our guard against a flank movement in the rear of Greeley, and into that part of our lines where lies the chance of selecting a Republican incumbent of the important place now held by Senator Nye.

Let us not forget the importance of this. Should the Republican party, by dissensions or apathy; bitter rivalries or faithlessness; lack of courage to vote for the whole ticket, or from any other cause, throw away enough of the coming victory to let the Democrats carry the Legislature of this State, we shall add one more to the now remote possibilities that the Congress of the United States may soon become so revolutionized in character as to be under the rule of a majority, many of whose members sympathized with, while others of their members took part in, the suspended but not fully extinguished rebellion inaugurated by the slave-masters of the South.

Don't forget this. Don't trade, at all, with any Democrat, any Liberal, any Dolly Varden or any emissary of the Bourbon Democracy. If we hold together and move shoulder to shoulder they cannot beat one side of us in any fight that we may make this year; and they know it!
