W. F. McKenzie Dead.

W. F. McKenzie, a former well-known Comstocker, died at Bridgeport, Cal., on Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The cause of death was pneumonia. The body was taken from Bridgeport to Virginia. The funeral took place Tuesday from the Masonic Temple in that city, and the remains were interred in the Masonic burying ground in Gold Hill. The deceased was well known in this vicinity, being an uncle of our townsman, A. T. McKenzie. For many years he had been in the employ of Pierce & Travis of Lundy. May his soul rest in peace.

The Fight Off.

Al Livingston, the Root-Gardner prize fight promoter, came up from the west this morning with the official information that the Root-Gardner fight booked for Reno during carnival week had been declared off. Apathy on the part of Reno people is given as the reason.—Gazette.

John Lynch, an agent of the United States Treasury Department, is making a tour of Nevada for the purpose of taking a census of Chinese engaged in commercial pursuits, in compliance with instructions from Washington.

The mail service on the Central Pacific is getting worse than ever. The postal clerks on the east-bound flyer have carried the Carson, Reno and Virginia City mail past Elko two or three times the past week.—Independent.

John Chiatovich, the veteran mining man of Silver Peak, was in Tonopah this week. He says the mines are all producing good pay rock and lively times are looked for this summer.
