An Ugly Rumor.

A rumor is afloat in Yerington, and comes from a seemingly authentic source, that L. F. Pattison, who eloped with Daisy Wilson last winter and married her in Dayton, has come to grief in the southern country. Mr. Pattison and wife left here last February for Randsburg, Cal., and it seems that a month or two ago a couple of other women landed in that camp and both claimed Pattison for a husband. The report is that they substantiated their claims, had Pattison arrested, proved that he committed bigamy when he married Miss Wilson, and that he is now serving an eight-year sentence in the penitentiary. It is to be hoped for the sake of Miss Wilson and her parents and relatives that there is no truth in the report, although it is more than likely there is. Miss Wilson is an estimable young woman, and if she has been imposed upon by a scoundrel she is to be pitied rather than blamed.—Times.

Struck With an Axe.

There was serious trouble in Lamolle valley Thursday night between one of the Streeter boys and Joe Hayward. From what we have been able to gather, it appears that Hayward was at the ranch of either Randolph or Oscar Streeter when a quarrel arose. Hayward had been cutting wood, but had laid the axe down, when Streeter picked it up and struck him over the head with it. Hayward's right eye was knocked out and laid upon his cheek. His injuries are said to be very serious.—Independent.

Charles Campbell, a Reno sheepman, was stabbed several times during a saloon row at Sierraville, Cal., a few days ago.

Inquiries for good mining claims are coming into the Tonopah Mining Bureau from Eastern capitalists.
