Personal Mention

T. L. James of Virginia City was an overnight visitor in Carson.
Alex Boyle returned to his home in Reno last evening via the Virginia and Truckee.
Mrs. Henrietta Riker arrived this morning from Reno to pay her weekly visit to her musical classes.
Leonard B. Foyler, Democratic candidate for attorney general, was an arrival this morning to attend to some matters in the local courts.
Milton Keyser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Keyser, who has been stationed at the aeronautic school at Arcadia, near Los Angeles, is expected home Sunday on a short furlough.
Will Van Heuitt, paymaster for the V. and T., left for Reno last night and today made the railroad employes over there happy by dealing out to them their regular monthly pay checks.

LEGAL HOLIDAY

Tomorrow being Columbus and Liberty Bond day, and proclaimed as a legal holiday by President Wilson and Governor Boyle, there will be no issue of the Appeal. This is in order that all attaches of the office may fully observe the duties of the day.

Arrived Home

Mrs. E. S. La Tourette and three little sons arrived in Reno last night from Denver, where they have been visiting relatives for the past few weeks. They spent the night with Mrs. Diskin and arrived in Carson on the afternoon motor. The LaTourettes will occupy the Cash Smith house corner of Fall and Second streets.

JOINT PASSENGER FACILITIES AT RENO

The Railroad commission has recently given its approval to plans of the Southern Pacific and Western Pacific companies to consolidate passenger facilities in Reno.
The idea is to use the Southern Pacific depot for both companies, with extra ticket and baggage men, and the new arrangement will undoubtedly prove of benefit and convenience to the traveling public and a considerable saving to the Railroad administration. Both Western Pacific and Southern Pacific trains will enter and leave the Southern Pacific depot.

Camouflage

Camouflage is a means of deceit. Though the new German Chancellor's speech indicates that a revolution has occurred, yet the German Emperor's authority seems to be maintained. Peace overtures, no matter what terms are suggested, the Kaiser remaining on the throne, are generally taken as camouflage.
If the American People can be led to believe that the Fourth Liberty Loan is unnecessary, the Loan may fail, our troops be discouraged, our allies despair, and the Huns thus obtain time to devise new schemes of wholesale murder and rapine—new agencies to throw the world back into savagery.
Buy Bonds. Let nothing which the enemy suggests prevent our supporting our government with all our strength—all our means.
Buy Bonds. None of us want a temporary peace which the Junkers can break whenever they please.
Buy Bonds. If real peace be at hand, then this investment, already the best in the world, will at once yield a rich return; for our bonds will reach the highest premium ever known.
Above All, we must support our leaders.
Wilson, George and Clemenceau will deal with the Armistice proposal. Our work is to support them. Just now we can best support them by buying bonds.
ED. J. WALSH.

SENATOR HENDERSON SEES MINERALS BILL SIGNED

After introducing and piloting the bill through the Committee on Mines and Mining, of which he is chairman, and later carrying the measure to successful passage on the floor of the senate, Senator Charles B. Henderson was still on the job at Washington the other day to witness the signature of the minerals bill by President Wilson. This law, giving the backing of the United States to the development of mining in the west, is one of the most substantial achievements for the benefit of Nevada and the west accomplished by any western senator. The work of watching this measure through to final enactment and his activities and vote for the Woman's Suffrage amendment were some of the duties which have kept Senator Henderson away from the Nevada campaign to the neglect of his personal interests at home. His return to Nevada is now looked for within a short time.

Columbus Day

Tomorrow, October 12th, will be the 426th anniversary of Columbus landing on an island near the shores of what is now known as America.
Columbus' journey across uncharted seas in a small sailing vessel was not made in a spirit of adventure. He was animated by a purely practical purpose. Genoa had long controlled the road to the rich markets of the far east by way of the caravan route along the Black sea and the Caspian. Her great rival, Venice monopolized traffic by way of Arabia, Egypt and the Red sea. But in the Fifteenth century the trade of Genoa was menaced by the uprising of Musselmen and Tartar along its route, while the Venetian pathway was unbroken. Her prosperity menaced. Genoa turned to look for some route less open to the attack of hostile barbarians. Columbus offered to seek such a route by way of the Atlantic.
The opposition to his project and its final carrying out are details familiar to every school child.
The landing of Columbus on the western continent marked an era in the history of human liberty. For to the land he discovered came the Pilgrim fathers in 1620, seeking for liberty of thought and freedom of worship. One by one our colonies were founded upon the principles of freedom, and when a German king, sitting on the English throne, sought to abridge them our forefathers threw off his yoke by force of arms.
That revolution stimulated and encouraged the French revolution, and our example more than any other fact led to the establishment of the republic of France, which today for its heroism and devotion merits and enjoys the admiration of all christendom.
The example of the United States turned all of the great continent of South America into republican territory—the fight of the American colonists for freedom in 1776 preserved to the very Englishmen they fought the liberties which their sires had won at Rummymede.
Today we, with our allies in Europe, are defending the liberty of the world from the attack of German autocracy.
As our president has said: "An anniversary celebration must have for us in this fateful year a peculiar and thrilling significance. We should make it a day of ardent rededication to the ideals upon which our present heroic tasks are inspired."

PARADE IN RENO IS CALLED OFF

Governor Boyle was notified by telephone this morning that because of the prevalence of Spanish influenza and two deaths consequent thereto, there will be no parade or public demonstration in Reno tomorrow as contemplated.

The message that the governor received said that — Wilson, a son-in-law of Ted Steinmetz, and a woman whose name was not given, had died of the influenza and that there were several other cases that were extremely critical.

As a result of the epidemic the Washoe county board of health met last evening and ordered the closing of play houses, public meeting places, churches and schools and has put a quarantine on the university.

It was also stated that a death had occurred at Winnemucca.

Dr. S. L. Lee, chairman of the state board of health, has called a meeting of the membership of his board, and it will be held some-time today, probably, to take action to limit the spread of the disease.

The Liberty Loan trophy train, which was advertised to arrive at Reno tomorrow morning, will probably be on time, and the exhibition of captured souvenirs permitted, but with as little ostentation as possible.

Locally the day, which has been designated by President Wilson as Discovery day and Liberty Bond day, will be observed in a quiet manner. Business generally will be suspended.

Drastic Clause of Initiative Law

Most people are of the opinion that if the state is voted "dry" at the November election it means only the closing of the saloons and that they can take their little old jug to the grocery and have it filled at their pleasure. For the benefit of those who are laboring under this delusion their attention is called to section 7 of the initiative petition to be voted on, which reads as follows:

Sec. 7. It shall be unlawful for any person to keep or have FOR PERSONAL USE or otherwise, or to use, or permit another to have, keep or use, intoxicating liquors at any restaurant, store, office building, club, place where soft drinks are sold (except a drug store may have and sell alcohol and wine as provided by sections four and twenty-four), fruit stand, newsstand, room or place where bowling alleys, billiard or pool tables are maintained, livery stables, public buildings, park, road, street or alley. It shall be unlawful for any person to give or furnish to another intoxicating liquors. Anyone violating this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned in the county jail not less than two nor more than twelve months; provided that no common carrier, for hire, nor any other person, for hire or without hire, shall bring or carry into this state, or carry from one place to another within the state, intoxicating liquors for another, even when intended for personal use; except a common carrier may, for hire, carry pure grain alcohol and wine, and such preparations as may be sold by druggists for the special purposes and in the manner as set forth in sections four and twenty-four; and provided further, however, that in case of search and seizure, the finding of any liquors shall be prima facie evidence that the same are being kept and stored for unlawful purposes.

MRS. BENNETT HAD SUFFERED 18 YEARS

Was in Bed Weeks at a Time Unable to Move—Now Does Own Housework.

"For the past eighteen years my wife was a sufferer from rheumatism in one of its worst forms," said William Bennett, who is employed by one of the large saw mills at Redmond, Wash, recently.

"Whenever these attacks came on," he continued, "she would get so weak and crippled up, that she would have to take to her bed, where she would lie for two or three weeks at a time, suffering untold agonies and unable to move. Her left foot was drawn up and twisted so with pain that she seemed to be permanently crippled, and one finger on her left hand was drawn all out of shape so it was useless to her. Her stomach, too, was all out of order, she had no appetite, and although she was just as careful as she could be about her dieting, her food would sour on her stomach and cause her great distress afterwards. Her nervous system seemed to be shattered, and her rest was so broken at night that she could hardly sleep. Her arms and throat appeared to be withered, the skin soft and flabby and she was just about as miserable as anybody ever gets to be. For years she had been too weak and ailing to do any of her housework, and what time she wasn't in bed she was barely able to get around.

"I consulted specialists about her case but they could give me no hope and I took her to one of the most celebrated health resorts in the country, hoping she would be benefited through drinking the water, but it seemed to do her no good. Then she tried all kinds of medicines, but not till she started taking Tanlac did she find any relief whatever. After taking a few bottles of this wonderful medicine we are prepared to say that Tanlac is the only thing we have any faith in. Her last attack of rheumatism was all of two months ago, and she hasn't had a twinge since. Her twisted foot is getting back into its normal position, and that bent finger is getting straight and supple like the others. Her stomach is in such splendid condition that she can eat anything she wants without suffering any bad effects afterwards. Her arms and neck are filling out, and are plump and firm, and she sleeps like a child every night. She is now able to do all her housework, and she is in better condition than she has been in many years.

Tanlac is sold in Carson City by Charles L. Kitzmeyer.
