From Surprise Valley, California comes the following story of an old fellow who got very jealous because his wife went to a ball with a good looking fellow, and stayed out until broad daylight. The old chap went to the Justice of the Peace and told his story winding up with, "I want you to help me, for that ar' thing has been going on long enough." "Well," said the Justice, "you can write down to Yreka, and see if some one of the lawyers can't get you a divorce." "Divorce!" roared the angry man, "who wants a divorce?" The Justice began to get wrathful. "If you don't want a divorce what brought you here?" "Why, I want an injunction to stop further proceedings."

AFTER the Prosecuting Attorney had heaped vituperation on the poor prisoner without counsel, the Judge asked him if he had anything to say for himself. "Your Honor," replied the prisoner, "I ask for a postponement for eighteen days, in order that I may find a blackguard to answer that one there."
