Hello, Leetonia. Are you still on the map? As the road to your town is in such bad shape we thought it best to enquire. Now, listen, neighbor. What can we do to improve this condition? We need your tradesmen and you surely need our help in your business. It is next to impossible for doctors to make calls here and different branches of business are at a standstill. What's the trouble? All the material necessary is at hand to put the roads in good shape and we at this end have tons and tons of material ready to be transported to the roads. You can go to other localities where all material must be shipped and you will find the roads in far better condition than they are between these two towns. Can you people do anything to help get this road in shape? If so, let's get started on business moving between the two places.
