

EDITED BY A COMMITTEE.

Eaton, Thursday, Oct. 27th 1870.

We are indebted to D. B. Morrow, Common Pleas Clerk, for the following list of Jurors:

Table listing names of jurors for Grand Jury and Petit Jury, including Samuel Jeday, G. A. Jefferson, and others.

From the Butler County Democrat. A Yelp from a Mongrel Cur. The Eaton Register has got it bad, and whines both savagely and piteously over the defeat of Schenck in this District.

Well, the Democrats did make a hard night as the result shows, but it was not "on the sly," unless the Register calls the joint discussions between Campbell and Schenck "sly means."

"In Preble they held but two or three public meetings, being satisfied to confine themselves to working up the county by private meetings of two or three."

Now, Mr. Register, if "two or three public meetings" held by the Democrats in Preble County, reduced your majority from "eight hundred"—which you claim you "ought to have had"—to six hundred and forty one, you may thank your lucky stars, if you have any, that the Democrats held no more than "two or three public meetings" in your Mongrel cursed county, or your majority would have been sweetly pickled on the other side.

Those who are sick, or afflicted with any chronic difficulty, should without delay write for Dr. Hamilton's New Treatment, sent free to any address.

benevolent! They held a jolly wake over Schenck's defunct carcass and then turned out to a man to his funeral, and saluted him down with briny tears of joy—while the Mongrels mourned! It was not "our funeral," yet we had charity enough to see that the last rites were fittingly performed.

And to cap the climax, the Butler County Democrats, doubtless under the lead of Col. Campbell aided by the Whisky Ring, on Monday last, flooded the District with a spurious ticket, headed "Republican Ticket," but substituting the name of Lewis D. Campbell for that of General Schenck!

That was remarkably, capital! well done! The party of "great moral ideas," possessing all the intelligence of the country now comes out and declares they were defeated because their party could not read! It was a little shabby to substitute the name of Lewis D. Campbell for Schenck on the ticket of a party that could not distinguish between the two names, and probably did not know which actually was their candidate!

Well now, isn't that queer? Sending a Frenchman to talk French to the Germans of Preble! Fanny Germans they have French too, were they not! The good people of Eaton had better start a lunatic asylum with the editor of the Register if he is really such a fool, or if he makes such charges against a man of whom he knows nothing, out of pure maliciousness, then they had better use him to start a penitentiary, as they could not possibly find better material for that purpose.
