

URBANA UNION

WEDNESDAY EVENING
Oct. 30, 1867.

Price—$2.00 a year, paid in advance.
Address, J. W. Allen, Urbana, Ohio.

The Union of Hearts—the Union of Hands
The Union of Statesmen and Congress
The Union of Obedience—the Union of Lands
And the Union of Our Union Forever!

The State of the Union with Union of the States.

It is pleasant to see the majority with which the democratic press of Ohio and other States speak in terms of the highest praise of our glorious candidate for Governor in the late election. Judge Thurman struck down Radicalism and confounded its leaders with mighty force and reason and vigor of intellect, and proved himself the worthy champion of the gallant Democracy and its many other eminent chiefs in the late campaign. He has made a permanent judgment in the hearts of a majority of the white people of the State. We hope he shall yet receive the honors of the Governorial chair, by the exclusion of the illegal, unconstitutional Negro votes cast in the strong Radical counties, and thus vindicate his own rights, as well as the majority and sovereignty of the people. At all events, he has a bright future.—Kentville Signal

REPUBLICANISM DEPOSED.

Mr. ALLABOUGH says that the passage between him and Harry Ford did not take place; and that he knew nothing of the bill and its presentment. We therefore give Mr. Allabough all benefit of the disavowal. The bill was in fact presented, but not for any such reason as his vote—say the younger partners of the house, and we give them the benefit also of their disavowal, for the UNION does wrong to no man. The UNION is moreover very glad to learn that these junior partners would not by any means carry their politics into their dealings.

So much is due in this special case, and at the same time the UNION will take occasion to say, that this vindictive proscription does find place with people who call themselves Loyal. There are many such who will say to others, don't deal with that man, he is a Copperhead; and there are others who say that they will not subscribe for the UNION because it is a Copperhead sheet. Yet they dishonestly read it, at their neighbor's expense. They will please understand that the URBANA UNION has never been set, them for subscription, and it does not bore people for advertisements. It may be understood that it is guided by a sense of duty, and if any man in this community shall see fit to harass a man for his vote, and attempt to strike at his means of living by casting him off from employment on account of his vote, he will be duly notified in our columns. "Stopping the paper" will not coerce us. We have one such order now being carried into effect at the end of seven weeks, which will be duly observed.—When the time comes, Mr. Stopper will be vexed at himself—while the U. U. will be vexed never a bit.

THE REASON WHY.

WHEN Mr. Radical found that the bad principles of his party had caused defeat to his party in the late election, he consoled himself at first with saying that his party had been over confident and had not come to the polls. The full returns now show that the vote given on the Second Tuesday of October, was the largest ever given in Ohio—and that Mr. Radical's party never polled so many votes before. Why, then, are they bested? It is because the people did turn out; they have become weary of desolation and profligacy and extravagance and false oaths. The villainies which Mr. Radical practiced during the war, under the name of Loyalty, are coming back upon him and they will come in yet stronger force.

"ACTING PRESIDENT."

The Enquirer is disturbed because the Gazette calls Johnson the Acting President instead of the President. We do so because that is his correct title and this is not. The same distinction is observed in all ranks, civil and military. It means that he is discharging the duties of a position above his rank because of the absence of the proper officer. To call Johnson the President is to say that he was elected to that office. To call him the Acting President is to say that he was not elected to that office by the people, but is acting in that capacity, on account of the death of the President, until an election can be held.—Gen. Gaz.

The Gazette is quite mistaken. An officer is said to be acting, when he temporarily fills a place during the absence of an officer, or during a vacancy, until the place be filled. In regard to the President, the question is settled by the Constitution which says that in case of the removal of the President from office, or of his death or resignation, or inability to discharge the powers and duties of said office, the same shall devolve on the Vice President. So that Mr. Johnson was in fact elected to fill the office of President, in case the President should die.

When the office devolved on Vice President Tyler, Senator Poindexter addressed him a letter, advising him to take the title of President, which he did. Persons opposed to Mr. Tyler spoke of him for a time as the Acting President, but this was abandoned. And at a later time when the office devolved on Mr. Fillmore, no other title was ever given him than that of President. On the score of law and usage the Gazette is wrong; on the score of showing dislike of the President, it is right.

JUDGE THURMAN.

The eyes of the whole nation were turned towards Ohio during the late campaign, and commanding ability and comprehensive statesmanship displayed by Judge Thurman in his published speeches have placed him in the front rank among the first of American orators and statesmen. Add to these qualities the acknowledged purity of his private life, and his unimpeachable integrity, and we have just the man to sustain the dignity of American statesmanship in the United States Senate, and reflect the highest honor upon those who may place him in the high position.—Springfield Transcript.

THE MAJORITY OF KEIFFER OVER NILES IN THIS SENATORIAL DISTRICT WAS 1893.

The majority of Smith for Secretary of State last year was 2828; Democratic gain 1235. Owing to the personal abuse of Mr. Niles by "certain lude Radicals of the baser sort" he ran somewhat ahead of his ticket but the gain on the State ticket was nearly 1200. We carried Madison this year and we shall carry Champaign next.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

THURSDAY.

There have been, in all, eighteen deaths from cholera on the receiving ship Potomac, lying at the Navy yard, in Philadelphia. Four persons died yesterday morning. The disease, it is believed, has received an effectual check. In digging a well in Washington Township, Montgomery County, Ohio, the other day, Mr. James Neban found well-preserved timber at the depth of thirty-eight feet. The soil was hard blue clay, and the wood cedar and white walnut.

The municipal and judicial election in Baltimore passed off very quietly yesterday. The entire Democratic ticket for Mayor, both branches of the City Council and Judges was elected. The vote for Mayor stood: Robert Banks, Democrat, 18,369; Andrew W. Dennis, Republican, 4,831; Banks' majority, 14,538.

The explosion of the gasoline at the central shaft of the Hoosier Tunnel, on Florida Mountain, near Mount Adams, Massachusetts, on Saturday afternoon, was a frightful casualty. A gang of thirteen workmen had just descended the shaft, after a blast, to collect and load up the debris, when the explosion in the large building which is built over and envelops the mouth of the shaft, took place, and in a few minutes the entire structure was enveloped in flames, and soon fell in. All communication with the men below was at once cut off, and they had to be left to their fate. It is supposed that most of them were instantly killed by the tons of rock, drift, timber, &c., which fell down the shaft, and that those who escaped instant death must have perished from suffocation or were drowned in the accumulation of water. The shaft is five hundred and eighty feet deep. Every effort was made to secure them, and as soon as the fire was extinguished, a man was lowered down, but could find no trace of his unhappy comrades.

FRIDAY.

A TOURNAMENT took place on the 17th in Columbus, Missouri in which three of the champions were called respectively Last Knight, the Other Knight, and Tomorrow Knight.

THE Cleveland Leader advises Ben Wade not to seek a nomination to succeed General Garfield in the House. It says: "If he attempts to contest a nomination with Garfield, he will miss his mark. The people of the Nineteenth District appreciate the military service, the distinguished ability, the commanding influence and the legislative experience of James A. Garfield too highly to exchange him for B. F. Wade."
