

Notes, News and Personal.

There will be a lecture at Music Hall next Friday evening, June 20th, by Rev. Tulliver of Hamilton, for the benefit of the A. M. E. Church. Subject: "The Value of Time and How to Apply It." Admission 10 cents. There will be a festival at the conclusion of the lecture.

Mr. Albert Matthews distinguished himself in Cincinnati last Thursday, as he will be following from Sunday's Enquirer.

Mr. A. Matthews, of Hillsboro, came up in the Gymnasium last Thursday and put up a mark for the athlete which will probably last them all summer—standing long jump, 11 feet 1 inch.

Some racial matters in the city. Mr. Fred Jones' residence on Wednesday evening of last week, by prying open the window shutters. Mr. Jones happened to be awake and heard him. He allowed the intruder to work for about fifteen minutes, when he said, "O, go away and don't disturb me! I want to sleep. I have been intended to get that shutter fixed for a month." The fellow went.

Another Patent Swindle!

For the last three or four weeks, a large quantity of "Spring Bed Bottoms" has been accumulating at the R. R. Depot at Hillsboro and Lynchburg, addressed to well-to-do farmers, living in the country. This left the impression that the city-tongued agent had been around, making contracts for sub-agents for each township, for the sale of these articles. It required but very little investigation to discover that such was the fact, and that the township agents had each signed a contract, in which the advantages, according to representations made, were all on the side of the farmers.
