TOWN AND COUNTRY, R. L. BOARDMAN, LOCAL EDITOR

Next Week's News, Will not go to press on Tuesday evening...

Bring in the returns Tuesday night to the Republican Headquarters...

A new waiting-room is being built at the M. & C. depot.

The young ladies of the College went to the Convalescent Monday.

Mr. Hayes wears a black eye, given to him in a political discussion.

There is no material change in the market, and we omit our tables.

Barth Miller is a friend of the farmers, and they will vote for him.

Barth Miller is a friend of the poor, and they will vote for him.

Barth Miller's popularity will triumph over Ed DeBrien's money.

The Thirtieth Regiment Band did its self proud to-day (Tuesday).

Leading Democrats admit that their meeting was not near as large as the Sherman meeting.

Elder W. D. Moore, of New Vienna, will preach in the City Hall, next Sunday night, at 7 1/2 o'clock.

Lawrence Brown has been appointed assistant lamp-lighter under the new ordinance passed last week.

For want of room, we are compelled to leave over to next week the School Examiners' Questions of last Saturday.

Don't forget the Fair commences next Wednesday, Oct. 14th, and continues three days. Get ready to attend it, and help to make it a success.

Mr. Mary F. Beavers, of Wilkes, Ia., addressed the Temperance meeting Sunday afternoon. The hall was well filled, and she made a fine speech.

Let old Highland show what she can do at the Fair next week, in the way of fine cattle, horses, and other live stock, as well as the products of the farm and garden.

Rebel flags have appeared during the campaign at Democratic meetings in six different places. The Cincinnati Commercial, of Monday, gives dates, places and other particulars.

Mr. Hannah Goings, wife of Chapman Goings, died last Saturday morning, of dropsy, aged 60 years. She was buried Sunday from the Wesleyan church, at 11 o'clock P. M. Rev. Smith officiating.

The election will be over next week and then let everybody go to work to secure the Railroad. It is the last chance, and let us not throw it away, by criminal neglect and indifference.

It is announced that South Carolina has contributed $400,000 to the Democratic campaign for the Fall election in Ohio. She expects to get it all back if Hancock is elected and she is paid for her slaves, freed by the wicked Lincoln war.

The present campaign is like that of 1860 in more ways than one. The name of Vallandigham appears on a poster for a Democratic rally at Fayetteville, on Monday night. He is one of the speakers, and his name in the same sized type as our own Kirby's.

There was a fine Republican meeting at Zion's School House, Newark St., 4 miles southwest of town, last Friday night. David Wilkin presided, and the speakers were Capt. E. Carson and Judge Gardner. A delegation of 35 Republicans went over from Newark to town.

It must be rather humiliating to the old-time Democrats who were used to be addressed by Gen. Hamer, Gen. McDowell, and others of pure personal and official character, to have now to receive instructions from Jim. Steadman, the defuncting Collector of New Orleans.

$397,000. This is the amount that Jim Steadman's accounts lacked of balancing when he was closed out as Collector of New Orleans. He never paid it and is a defaulter to-day. A sin man to create about Republican corruption and abuse Garfield.

Attempt to break jail. Peter Barnea, who is confined in jail for committing the burglaries at Belfast, Sugar Hill, Bedford, and other places, a few weeks since, attempted to break jail Monday night, but was caught at it and prevented by Sheriff Long.

Remember the Fair. In the heat of the political excitement, don't forget our County Fair, which begins on Wednesday of next week, and continues over Friday. It will be a bonanza if the people turn out, and they ought to do so to encourage the gentlemen who have the matter in hand, as well as to benefit the county.

A Broken Arm. The Misses A. L. Ayres, Miss Victoria, Miss Belle Glasscock and Miss Yelton Scarborough, went to Greenfield last Friday in a boat, to attend the wedding of Miss Norton, and as they were returning home Friday night, the boat broke down and tumbled them out, breaking Miss Scarborough's arm and spraining Miss Glasscock's shoulder.

Headly at Music Hall. Judge Hoodley made a speech at Music Hall on Tuesday night of last week, to a fair-sized audience. His speech was a disappointment to the Democrats here, who expected something grand, but instead of a "Crisis" oratorical, argumentative speech, he went through with the old harangue about De Golyer, Credit Mobilier, and other matters. He did not advance a single new idea, and his speech fell flat on the audience. It made Republican voters.

Wm. F. Hestaway, the man at the head of the delegation from Washington to the Democratic Mass Meeting to-day, (Tuesday), carried the stars and stripes. Hathaway was not quite so patriotic during the war, when he ran away to Canada and sought protection under the British flag, to keep from being drafted. This is in keeping, however, with the Democratic party. They are very, they didn't fight to save the Union.

The Democratic procession to-day (Tuesday), looked a good deal like they did during the war, when they were cleaning for peace on any terms. There was an absence, however, of the strings of lighted lanterns that were around their necks. There were no banners carried by the girls with "Save us from nigger husbands," blazoned on them. With these slight differences the string of wagons looked just like it used to.

Gov. Hart, Republican candidate for Congress, will address the Republicans of Highland county, next Saturday night, October 9th, at Music Hall, Hillsboro.

There is no material change in the market, and we omit our tables.

ROLL-CALL OF THE TOWNSHIPS OF HIGHLAND. REPUBLICANS, ALL TO THE FRONT! GALLANTLY YOU ANSWERED LAST FALL, LET US HEAR FROM YOU AGAIN, FOR UNION AND FOR THE RIGHT.

REPUBLICANS OF BRUSHCREEK, First on the list, you have never failed. Last year you increased your majority, and the same effort on election day this year will give you a further increase.

REPUBLICANS OF CLAY, What Republican can forget your gallant work last fall, and your glorious majority? The memories of your brave boys, killed by rebel bullets, will ever keep alive your Republican principles.

REPUBLICANS OF CONCORD, You did good work last year. You made Concord Republican, and your friends look to you to keep it so.

REPUBLICANS OF DOBSON, Remember your vote was never of more importance than now. Although in a minority in your township, a full vote will secure the county and State to the Republicans.

REPUBLICANS OF FAIRFIELD, The glorious majorities you have given in the past are the pride of the Republicans of Old Highland. This year we believe you are more eager than ever for the contest.

REPUBLICANS OF HAMILTON, You are a true and loyal people, and deserving of all honor. Last year you made a gain of 12 votes. This year you can hold your own and do better still.

REPUBLICANS OF JACKSON, Although fighting in a minority, you made a gain last year, which should incite you to renewed effort now.

REPUBLICANS OF LIBERTY, Your glorious majority last year was a starter to the Democrats. Let us show our friends all over the county that we have not only held our own, but made gains since then.

REPUBLICANS OF MARSHALL, Your friends look for a gain in Marshall this year. By your earnest and persistent efforts, you will make Marshall Republican, and it will be a credit to you.

REPUBLICANS OF MADISON, We have confidence that all will be right in your township. The spirit and interest you have already shown prove that you are awake and aroused.

REPUBLICANS OF NEW MARKET, You too are in the minority, but you made a gain last year, by your earnest and faithful work.

REPUBLICANS OF PAINT, We believe you realize the importance of a Republican victory on Tuesday. The Democrats will all be at the polls, but if the Republicans are there also, the county will be safe.

REPUBLICANS OF PENN., Remember the gains you made last year when your vote was all out. With the same effort you can make a further gain this year.

REPUBLICANS OF UNION, The gain you made last year was a just matter for congratulation. It is claimed by Democrats that you cannot do the same thing again.

REPUBLICANS OF WHITEOAK, You too made a gratifying gain last year. There is no doubt that you can do better this year if you can get every Republican voter to the polls.

REPUBLICANS OF WASHINGTON, How gallantly you came to the front last year, with a gain of 20 votes. It proved what you can do when you make a vigorous effort.

REPUBLICANS OF WHITEOAK, You too made a gratifying gain last year. There is no doubt that you can do better this year if you can get every Republican voter to the polls.
