VOL. VII NO 173

MARIETTA, OHIO, TUESDAY, JULY 23, 1901.

TEN CENTS A WEEK

TWO PERSONS

By the Name of Glenn, Says Doctor Howard.

Claims to Have Treated Both of Them and That One is a Man and the Other is a Woman.

Parkersburg, W. Va., July 22.—The members of the jury were in good shape this morning after their Sunday rest. They attended services Sunday morning at the Presbyterian church and in the evening at the M. E. church south.

Col. Caldwell, of the defense, was slightly under the weather today and his client is suffering with a severe sore throat.

Court was convened at 9:15 and the third week of the trial was soon under way.

Dr. W. A. Howard, of Vincent, O., formerly of this city, was the first witness called for the defense. Witness said he was practicing here in the spring of 1897, and in May of that year treated a man by the name of Glenn, in fact two persons by that name a man and a woman. Treated the man for an ailment peculiar to the male sex. The prisoner at the bar is a woman, the witness having satisfied himself on that point. Examined her for scars and found one limb had been fractured, which left a scar, and also found a scar on her hand. The fracture of the limb probably occurred several years ago. The prisoner had never borne any children. The scar in the palm of the prisoners hand had the appearance of a burn instead of being cut. Hair will not grow on a scar on the head, as the hair follicles are killed.

On cross examination the witness said he did not know but that a scar on the head could be removed. Witness said he was paid $10 to come here and testify in the case, and he has been promised $15 in addition. This does not include per diem and mileage. The prisoner told him that the scar on her hand was caused by a burn. Could not swear positively that the scar was caused by a burn, but that was his opinion. Witness said he could not say why Dr. Frame, J. F. Laird, Miss Agnes Riley and other witnesses who had examined the prisoner's hand for a scar could not find one. There may be a scar on the back of her head, but he did not see it. There is a scar on Miss Glenn's forehead, near the edge of the hair. Couldn't say whether the prisoner had false teeth. Witness, before he left here, had money belonging to the Knights of the Golden Eagle, but he paid it back before he left here and has a receipt for it. Paid it to a member of the organization. He was not threatened with arrest the day he paid it, and denied that he left here to avoid arrest on the charge of committing a criminal act in connection with his profession.

Re-direct. Witness said he left here with his mother and located at Vincent. A scar could not obliterate itself. Could not afford to come here and make an examination and testify for less than $25.

Re-cross. Witness denied that Dr. Frame told him that his reputation was such that he had better not go on the witness stand.

MONDAY AFTERNOON.

E. L. Fairbanks was the first witness called after the dinner recess. Witness resided in Williamstown and this city. Bert Glenn came from Illinois with witness in December, 1896, and was a picture agent. He belonged to a detective agency in the west. Bert Glenn was a man. Witness told how he knew Glenn was a man. They visited public houses here and in Williamstown. Witness said he is a married man and he was averse to telling these things that would disgrace him before his family. Saw Bert Glenn last in fall of 1897, when he bade him good-bye and said he was going to Illinois. Bert Glenn had a scar on his leg from a bullet wound; wound was in the calf of the leg. Witness had examined the left limb of the prisoner and the scar on Bert Glenn was different from that on the prisoner's leg. Glenn had a trotting horse which he said he sold here.

On cross-examination the witness said he was shown the prisoners limb in a room adjoining the court room. Had been married for fourteen years. The witness was pretty badly mixed in some of his answers. He said he is employed at Bentley & Gerwig's to look after the repairs on their houses in various parts of the city. Witness said he was originally from Jerseyville, Ill., about 42 miles from Aton. This is Madison county. Madison and Montgomery counties adjoin. He said he had not studied geography and could not tell the county seat of any of the adjoining counties to those of his own. Never saw the prisoner at the bar until he had seen her today. Did not know at whose boarding house he boarded at Williamstown, but boarded at the St. Cloud at Marietta.

Did not know whose name he registered under at the St. Cloud, as he had an assumed name which he occasionally used. Believed he first met Glenn at Jerseyville, Ill., in 1895 and afterwards in St. Louis. Witness said he saw an Illinois man in the court room and was asked to point him out. He designated a young lawyer named Magee, of this city, as the one he referred to, and said he was satisfied Magee was from Illinois, and afterwards said he looked like a man from Illinois, and then denied that he had said that he had seen some one from Illinois in the court room, but the record was sprung on him. Then he qualified his statement by saying that he might have been mistaken.

FARMERS FIGHT

A Duel in West Virginia With Shot Guns.

Special to the Leader.
Glenwood, O., July 22.—Word has just been received here to the effect that on yesterday C. J. Dillon and William Morgan, two young neighbor farmers, living near the mouth of Three Mile, fought a duel with shot guns.

As a signal to fire, a third party dropped his hat, and the guns were discharged instantaneously.

It is said that the trouble between the two men arose over their love for the same girl, the daughter of a neighbor farmer.

By Associated Press.
Cincinnati, O., July 22.—All previous heat records here were eclipsed today when the official thermometer here reached a maximum of 105 degrees. A local thundershower this evening cooled off the atmosphere to some extent. The highest previous record was July 10, 1881, when the mercury reached 104 degrees. Twenty-five prostrations and one death are reported today.

Reports from the surrounding country show that similar conditions prevailed. Heat records were broken at Paducah, Frankfort and Maysville, Ky. At Paducah the thermometer registered 111. Frankfort 105, Maysville 105.

hottest day on record in Indianapolis. The official maximum record is 105. There were two deaths and three prostrations. At the camp of the Indiana national guard all drills were dispensed with. ## IN CITY PARK

At Elkins Hangs the Body of a Lynched Negro.

By Associated Press.
Elkins, W. Va., July 22.—Tonight the dead body of Wm. Brooks, colored, swings from the limb of a tree in the city park here and Chief of Police Lilly lies dying in a Cumberland, Md., hospital from the effects of a bullet wound inflicted by the colored man.

This afternoon word was brought to the police station that Wm. Brooks, a well known colored man, was creating trouble in the lower end of town. Chief of Police Lilly said he would go and bring the man in.

When Lilly came up to the house, which had a good sized crowd surrounding it, and ordered the man to come out, Brooks came to the window of the front room with a gun and refused to surrender. Lilly then ran in to the house. The crowd made no effort to help and the officer faced the desperate negro alone.

Sounds of a fierce struggle could be heard and the crowd ran to the house to help. When the room was entered both men were found on the floor in mortal combat. The negro was shouting that he never would be taken alive, while the officer held him tightly. Suddenly the negro worked his right arm free from the officer and catching up the revolver that had fallen to the floor in the struggle, fired point blank at Lilly. Lilly fell to the floor, shot through the bowels.

When the officer loosed his hold the negro broke from the room and ran away, followed by a big crowd. For several squares he kept ahead of the crowd. Finally, after a chase of half a mile, Brooks was captured.

He fought desperately, but could not get away. Other officers came to the rescue and Brooks was handed over to the sheriff to be taken to the county jail. Just as the sheriff reached the jail a mob of 400 men surrounded him and demanded the prisoner. The sheriff and guards refused and made a desperate resistance, but to no avail. Brooks was seized and rushed through the streets, half walking, half falling, along towards the city park.

The negro could not speak and seemed almost insensible to what was going on.

A rope was drawn up and in a few minutes the body of Wm. Brooks swung from the tree, lifeless. The mob then dispersed. Officer Lilly's wound is fatal. The body of Brooks, late tonight, still hung in the park.

THE EXPECTED

Did Not Happen Either at Wellsville or McKeesport.

Bulletins Issued by Strike Officials Warn Men not to Drink But to Wait Patiently.

By Associated Press.
Pittsburg, July 22.—The expected did not happen today. Neither of the looked for programs for Wellsville nor McKeesport were carried out.

At Wellsville the importation of men failed to materialize and at McKeesport the attempt to resume at the Dwees Wood Tube plant was not made. At both points which are considered strike centers the situation is in statu quo, neither having made any decided move. From another important point, Duncansville, conflicting reports were received. The company's chances are probably better for the winning in the end.

This afternoon the Amalgamated Association issued its first strike bulletin from its general office. The bulletin gives the outline of conditions prevailing and reproduces the abstract of Shaffer's recent addresses at Wellsville and McKeesport.

In the most prominent part of the bulletin is printed the warning words, "Do not drink, especially if the trust tries to break the strike by importing non-union men. Don't believe anyone who says the mills will be closed forever or taken out of the community if you don't go to work. Enjoy your summer shutdown; it means more work next winter. That is time for the mill to work anyhow."

There has been no change in arbitration or mediation movements so far as officials of the Association are aware. Hope is still general among these officials, however, that a way will be found to bring about a settlement.

Friends of President Shaffer express the belief that if proper steps were taken, manufacturers would find the Association in a conciliatory mood, ready to meet any reasonable proposition consistent with honor.

Morgan Forms Pool

Buy up Steel Stocks.

By Associated Press.

New York, July 22.—The World says, "J. Pierpont Morgan has formed a $200,000,000 pool to support the steel stocks during the long fight which he expects to have with the Amalgamated Association. The operations in this pool explain the comparative steadiness of United States steel shares in the stock market during the great declines which have taken place in the last fortnight. The pool has taken every share of the stock offered below the market price. This means that the pool has bought this week in the open market nearly 200,000 shares of the stock.

"With $40,000,000 cash—20 per cent. of the pool's resources—it expects to be able to sustain the market, no matter what bad news or industrial depression may come during the summer.

"James R. Keene, the shrewdest manipulator in the speculative world, is understood to be the manager of the pool. Keene is operating through Bell & Company, A. A. Housman & Company, Talbot J. Taylor & Company, Street & Norton, Wasserman Bros., and a half a dozen other houses who are known for their shrewdness in executing orders. While the composition of Morgan's pool can not be ascertained definitely, it is stated to include J. P. Morgan & Co., Kuhn, Loeb & Co., the Bank of Commerce, the Morton Trust Company, Thomas F. Ryan, A. B. Widener, Moore & Schley, the Chase National Bank, Bell & Company, and A. Housman & Company.

DEFINITE POLICY ADOPTED.

It is said that Morgan sent out invitations to the interests which have taken part in the pool, when, after a consultation with President Schwab, a definite policy toward the strikers was decided upon. Morgan has still a large quantity of steel securities, which have not been marketed. Nearly $100,000,000 of the stock is still supposed to be in the hands of the underwriting syndicate. The total issues $550,000,000 of common stock and $550,000,000 of preferred. Of this there has been issued of the common stock $506,473,400 and of the preferred $508,486,300.

The Commadore Cup

Won by Yacht Constitution.

By Associated Press.

New York, July 22.—The cruise of the New York Yacht Club opened brilliantly tonight with the race for three valuable cups.

After the rendezvous at Glen Cove the squadron got away and steered for the starting line off Matinecock buoy. The whole fleet was eligible to compete and was divided into three classes, schooners, single masted vessels and yawls in cruising trim and cup defenders.

Constitution and Columbia were in racing trim. Naturally the principal interest was in Constitution and Columbia. The starting was in a nice sailing breeze, which, however, at no time exceeded seven knots of strength. Constitution beat her rival, Columbia. She was smartly handled and sailed with rare skill and judgment over the 21 mile course of three legs. Constitution started absolutely last of all and overhauled the hindmost of her competitors very readily. Several mi-utes before the outward mark was reached she held the proud position in the van, beating the Columbia four minutes and seven seconds. Luffing beautifully around the mark, she buckled down to a pretty thresh to windward and in this short leg she gained 56 seconds in her rival. In the last leg she gained six seconds and romped past the stake boat the winner of the Commadore Cup.

Kansas Saloon Closed.

By Associated Press.
Fort Scott, Kas., July 22.—This district ordered all saloons closed and the order has been obeyed. The local ministers and church members visited the saloons and bought whisky and beer. A suit was brought against each keeper and the owners of the buildings for violating the Herrell law, passed by the last legislature.
