It is just as easy to drift into danger as to drive into it. The progress is slower but the end is equally sure. It is the gradual progress of drifting which blinds to the danger. Men and women drift into ill-health in such a way. There is a little feeling of oppression after eating. After a time it passes away. Some day it returns and brings another symptom—headache, perhaps. Something is done to relieve the headache, but nothing to relieve the cause. So one more victim goes drifting on to the rocks of disease. Young women who are teaching or studying are very apt to become victims of disease of the stomach. They eat indelicately, in some cases, and in general the brain is too occupied to allow the stomach the blood necessary to carry on its functions. Hence in time the organs of digestion and nutrition are totally deranged, and the young graduate goes home a chronic invalid. The timely use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will avert such a condition; the faithful use of it in chronic cases will effect a complete cure. "I was troubled with very frequent headaches, often accompanied by severe vomiting," writes Miss Mary Belle Sumner, of San Diego, Duval Co., Texas. "Stools were irregular and my stomach and liver seemed continually out of order. Often I could eat almost nothing, and sometimes absolutely nothing, for twenty-four hours at a time. I was entirely unfit for work, and my whole system seemed so run down that I feared a severe sick spell and was very much discouraged. I was advised to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and before finishing the third bottle I was able to undertake the duties of public school life, and contracted to do so." Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cleanse the complexion and sweeten the breath.

CHANGE IN WATCHES.

The Bull's Eye of a Century Ago and the Modern Machine-Made Timepiece.

The almost total disappearance of the old-fashioned "bull's-eye" silver watches is a source of wonderment to even some watch dealers. It is practically impossible to pick up one now among them. A Chicago Tribune reporter made the rounds of the watch, pawn and junk shops in quest of one of these old timepieces, and did not find it. One dealer said he knew where a single specimen was, but later admitted that the owner either had sold or lost it. A veteran watchmaker, who can make a watch by hand, in referring to the disappearance of the "bull's-eyes," said: "It is only natural, I suppose, that they should disappear. None of them were first-class timepieces. I mean that the best of them would vary as much as a minute a week. The cheaper machine-made watches keep better time and cost less. The first of these old 'bull's-eyes' carried the regulation Virgide movement. One hundred years ago the Virgide watches were carried by all business men. Later the English watchmakers made 'bull's-eyes' with improvements on the Virgide movement. I haven't seen a Virgide for two or three years. As a matter of fact, those old-fashioned key-winding silver watches are worth only what the silver in the cases amounts to. The metal represents about a dollar in value. The works are worthless. Only one or two small wheels are taken out by the dealers. Sometimes they are useful in repairing family heirlooms. What are they worth? Why, nothing at all as timepieces. The best way to get one is to keep on inquiring among the grandfathers and great-uncles until you run across one, and then beg it or buy it. It is practically worthless, except as a relic."

IN FAR-OFF LABRADOR.

Fur Hunters in That Country Who Have Just Heard of the Death of Queen Victoria.

Reports are reaching civilization of the operations of the past winter in the interior and upon the coast of Labrador. The season was, generally speaking, a mild one, and the fatalities among the Indians fewer than usual, a good supply of furs was secured, but none of such peculiar value as some of those taken during the preceding winter, says the New York Sun.

The highest price paid for a single skin of last winter's catch was $300, which was for a black silver fox, the king of all the fur-bearing animals of Labrador. Exactly double that amount was paid for a skin of the same variety, a very noble specimen, about a year ago. Prices in general are scarcely so good at present as they were this time last year.

Marten skins, which have brought as much as $25 a skin, sold this spring for from $15 to $18. Traders are especially proud of the otters and minks which they obtain from Labrador, which have fur of a peculiar fineness and luster.

The hunters from the interior of Labrador had not heard of the death of Queen Victoria until they emerged from the woods a few days ago. No mail matter can reach them during the winter. Even the residents along the coast had only six mails from autumn till spring, and these had to be conveyed over the snow by dogs, on sleighs, for want of proper roads and other means of conveyance.

THE UP-TO-DATE BILL SIKES SHOCKS HIS VICTIMS INTO SUBMISSION BY AN ELECTRIC CURRENT.

The old-fashioned jimmy may do for the burglar who operates in remote country districts. The up-to-date Bill Sikes has moved with the times, and in order to relieve his neighbors of their goods uses his brains as well as brute strength. What may be called the electric confidence trick, as recently practiced in the streets of Madrid, shows that its inventor is a man of genius as well as crime.

This thief, who has just been arrested, was distinguished above others of his profession by the perfection of his garments and appearance. In a pocket of his elegantly fitting coat was concealed the secret of his success. It was a powerful little electric battery, joined by wires to a metallic plate, which he held in the palm of his right hand. Approaching his intended victim with outstretched hand he would greet him with the fervor of an old friend. Woe betide the unlucky man if he accepted the proffered handshake. A sharp electric shock rendered him powerless, and with a few deft movements he was stripped of watch, purse and jewelry.

Travel to the West.

More and more each year Americans are finding out the attractions of our own country, and as they grow to realize the charm of life among the Colorado mountains or in the Yellowstone park the tendency is toward greater travel west instead of east for health and recreation. The railroads, too, are alive to the new conditions and have made lower tourist rates this year than ever before. And then the train time has been vastly improved, so that now it takes only one night on the road between the Atlantic coast and Denver, that is, by using the Burlington's fast train from Chicago.

Taking Advantage.

The czar of Russia has named his infant daughter Anastasia. That's a mean way of getting even with her, says the Denver Post, for not being a boy.

"You Sell Goods Too Cheap," was the remark made by a sensible young business man, in conversation with one of our representatives, the other day. Many people know but now and then there "bobs up" a skeptical mind who declines to be convinced, and he goes elsewhere.

For instance, the other day a certain party went about one hundred miles and bought a piano, paying for it $50 more than we even asked for the SAME PIANO. Funny, isn't it?
