For Governor, GEORGE K. NASH, of Franklin. For Lieutenant Governor, CARL L. NIPPERT, of Hazlett.

DISTRICT, State Senator, DAVID H. MOORE, of Athens. Common Pleas Judge, J. M. WOOD, of Athens.

Cleveland and Bryan are both "has-beens," but Bryan thinks it pretty hard that he is also a "never-wuzzer."

Whatever may be said of Maclay or anybody else the fact remains that Admiral Schley was the real hero of Santiago.

Merely because Senator Hanna spent an hour in the President's stables the other day is no evidence that he is being groomed for 1904.

Andrew Carnegie has offered Fort-mouth $50,000 for a free library building, contingent upon the city providing a site and pledging itself to maintain the library at a cost of not less than $5,000 a year.

The Louisville Courier-Journal says that the protective tariff has been used as an instrument with which to jolly the farmer.

According to the news reports the Ellis Glen case at Parkersburg is drawing to a close, and the people are thankful for it.

Hon. I. W. Ellenwood, Grand Chancellor of Ohio Knights of Pythias tells the Leader that the semi-annual reports of 1901 of the 729 Lodges, thus far received, show a gain in membership of eighteen hundred as compared with the last report.

The Order is in a flourishing condition, the membership in Ohio now numbering in the neighborhood of sixty-five thousand.

BAD ACCIDENT

Happened to Fred Wendelken at Put-in-Bay Sunday.

Mr. Fred Wendelken left Friday for Cleveland in good health. Yesterday his parents received a message saying that he was injured in a swing at Put-in-Bay.

The following State Executive Committee was selected:

M. A. Daugherty, Lancaster, Chairman. W. L. Finley, Kenton. C. D. Crites, Lima. C. W. Stage, Cleveland.

Ethel Bell Burr. The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. George Burr died at the home of its parents Sunday.

J. Curtis Edmonds.

Mr. J. Curtis Edmonds died at his home, 109 Maple street, Monday afternoon at 3:30 p. m. after a sickness of nearly two years with consumption.

He was born at Bloomfield, O., in 1869, and was in his thirty-second year. He leaves besides his wife and two children to mourn his loss a father, brother and sister.

"Jointist" Disappears.

By Associated Press. Eldorado, Kan., July 22.—Seven women, headed by Mrs. H. T. Grover, president of the local W. C. T. U., entered a "joint" run by Busch in a tent in the center of the town.

Kiowa-Comanche Openings.

By Associated Press. Fort Sill, O. T., July 22.—Great disorder and distress will follow the Kiowa-Comanche opening August 6. Fully 150,000 people are registered for a chance to secure one of the 13,000 claims to be awarded by lottery when the registration booths close July 28.

"HEIRESS"

Proves to be an Indiana Book Agent.

By Associated Press. Goshen, Ind., July 22.—Irene Canning, supposed heiress to $300,000, is no longer a mystery. She was identified today as Kate Kanning, a young book agent of East Barre, Vermont.

RADICAL

Changes May be Made in Army in Philippines.

By Associated Press. Manila, July 22.—The conference between Adjutant General Corbin and General Chaffee will probably result in radical economical and administrative reforms in army occupation.

ANOTHER

Victim is Claimed by the Ohio River.

Another life is claimed by the muddy waters of the Ohio river. Thomas Roberts, accompanied by Mrs. McGovern and children started out with two johnboats to get some coal from a barge that had been sunk just below the mouth of Big Run.

He cut McGovern's boat loose and then started for the Ohio shore, thinking he could make it before the boat went down. When within about 75 yards of the Argand landing his boat sank.

He was an employe of the Marietta Stone Co. at Mile Run and a single man about 25 years of age. The deceased leaves besides his parents, six brothers and two sisters, who reside at Gravel Bank.

Mrs. Kruger Buried.

By Associated Press. Pretoria, July 21.—Mrs. Kruger, wife of former President Kruger, was buried here this afternoon.

KRUGER DEPRESSED.

By Associated Press. Amsterdam, July 22.—Former President Kruger is very much depressed over the death of his wife, but his health is unaffected.

GARMENT

Makers Demand Less Hours and More Pay.

By Associated Press. New York, July 22.—It was announced at the Garment Makers' strikers' headquarters today that 67,000 men and women are now on a strike in New York, Brooklyn, Brownsville and Newark.

MAGLAY'S

Naval History Discussed by Sampson.

By Associated Press. Boston, July 22.—Referring to MacLay's naval history, Rear Admiral Sampson in an interview today, said: "In one way, possibly, am I responsible for statements made in the history. I was commander in chief of the squadron and responsible so far as reading proofs goes."

Keep Cool!

Nothing so tranquilizing, and comfort inspiring, during the heated term as a SHADY NOOK, and a nice HAMMOCK, the shady nooks are everywhere but the nice HAMMOCKS are to be found at the

Colonial Book Store

The coolest thing about them being the PRICE, which is down to zero. But a shady nook, also requires a book. With the hammock, will be found a large and varied assortment of SUMMER READING, that which has in it suggestions of the SEA SHORE, the MOUNTAINS, and the WOODS, New, and Popular books, old and Treasured Favorites, in Paper and Cloth. Special offerings, under price books, in copy rights, and regular stock.
