Navigating in the Dark.

Bad policy. Lots of people do it, but there's little if any excuse. People who trade here are not in the dark. We don't have trade tricks and secrets. We are always glad to tell people all about our goods. Where we buy them, how they are made, why they cost much or little, etc. The more light the better.

"And the nights shall be filled with music. And the cares that infest the day shall fold up their tents like the Arabs, and as silently steal away." Songfellow knew the soothing power of music; he knew its grand influence for good. A home without a piano or music of some sort, doesn't seem quite a home; something seems to be wanting. It's easy enough to have music in the house nowadays. Pocket your doubts, and come to us. We'll soon show you the way.

222 FRONT STREET.

—Miss Aurella Hoover leaves this morning for Salem, W. Va.
—The County Commissioners were in session Monday to act upon a franchise which is asked for an electric line to Newport and St. Marys.
—The Sunday excursion of the O. & L. K. took 108 people from the city Sunday and gathered up a considerable number along the line. Quite a number stopped at the Star fishing camp. The greater part of the remainder went to Columbus. The success of these excursions is likely to induce the O. & L. K. to run an excursion to Cleveland.

The Harris Nickel-Plate Shows.

The Harris Nickel Plate Shows visited our city yesterday and notwithstanding the intense heat of the day, was largely attended, both in the afternoon and evening. It is pronounced an excellent show for the low price charged for admission, and despite the uncomfortableness of the temperature for both the performers and the audience, it gave general satisfaction.
