TROOPS RETIRE

After an Hour's Engagement With Cuban Insurgents.

They Are Also Defeated by Gen. Macco in a Battle at Majaguabo.

Political Prisoners Jailed in Santiago de Cuba—Facile Residents Near Guantanamo Murdered by Guerrillas—Recruits for the Insurgent Army.

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, Feb. 4, via Tampa, Fla., Feb. 4.—On January 31, Spanish Commander Gonzales Moro with 700 men met rebel Col. Tamayo and 500 insurgents in La Pedrera. After fighting an hour the troops retired to the city, unable to defeat the rebels in spite of the advantages of artillery. The rebels had splendid positions. The Spanish Commander Moro was wounded in one leg. One officer and five soldiers were killed and 28 soldiers were wounded.

On the same day Spanish Col. Figueroa and 800 men attacked a rebel party at the crossing of Rio Burey, Baracoa. The Spanish had one killed and nine wounded. Rebel loss unknown.

February 1, Spanish Col. Tejada, with 1,200 men in Majaguabo, San Luis Zone, fought with the forces of Gen. Jose Macco, under Brig. Gen. Cedreco. Col. Pancho Sanchez made so strong an attack upon the Spaniards that the latter had to recross the river Canto, dispersed and defeated, leaving on the field two officers and 18 soldiers killed and several mules laden with supplies. Four rebels were killed and 15 wounded.

The steamer San Juan brought Thursday morning from Baracoa 15 political prisoners, who have been put in jail.

The bodies of several persons were found a few days ago badly decomposed in the sugar fields of the sugar estate Confluente, one mile from Guantanamo. The administration of the plantation notified the authorities, but they did not pay any more attention than to give the order to bury the bodies.

The neighbors of the sugar estate have found out that the unfortunate men were pacific residents of Guantanamo who were taken away from their houses at midnight and shot by the guerrillas.

For the last few days the number of men leaving this city to join the rebels has increased considerably.

Smallpox is causing many deaths in the military hospital of this city.

A SORE EYE.

Maher is suffering from a Temporary Affliction, and the Fight Will Be Postponed.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 14.—At 8 o'clock Thursday night the prospects of the Fitzsimmons-Maher contest being pulled off on schedule time Friday were exceedingly dubious. This condition of affairs is not due to the efforts of the federal state and Mexican authorities to prevent the two men from coming together or to any inability on the part of Dan Stuart to guarantee a safe battleground, but solely to the effect that Maher is suffering from a temporary affliction of the eyes that would make it impossible for him to put up a decent showing in the ring.

About a week ago, while taking a morning spin at Las Cruces in a brisk wind, several particles of sand were blown into his left eye, and later in the day, while kicking a football in his improvised tent, a quantity of dust was knocked from the roof into the same member. The next day inflammation set in and the services of a local doctor were called into requisition. The trouble, however, was obstinate and refused to yield to treatment.

FAVORABLE REPORT.

On the Ship Canal Bill Ordered by the House Committee.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—The house committee on railroads and canals Thursday ordered a favorable report on the bill of Mr. Chickering (N. Y.), directing the secretary of war to cause to be made accurate surveys, examinations and final estimates of cost of construction of a ship canal by the most practicable route wholly within the territory of the United States from the great lakes to navigable waters of the Hudson river, of sufficient capacity to transport the tonnage of the lakes to the sea.

An appropriation sufficient to enable the survey to be made is authorized.

England and the Transvaal.

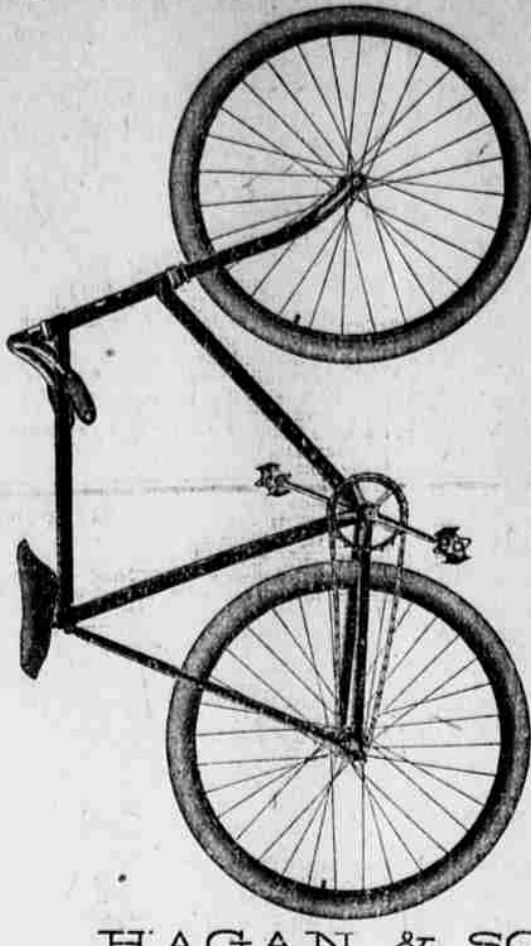

LONDON, Feb. 14.—The correspondent of the Times at Pretoria telegraphs that he has authority for stating that although the government is incensed because of Mr. Chamberlain's dispatch to Gov. Robinson, the publication of Jonkhoeer van Boeschoten's message to Sir Jacobus de Wet does not imply a wish to break off negotiations between the Transvaal and Great Britain. The correspondent adds that President Kruger continues to be sincerely anxious to visit England to discuss the question at issue.

The Cuban Resolutions.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—The resolutions on the subject of Cuba were taken up in the senate Thursday under an agreement made a few days previously, but Mr. Call, of Florida, who had them in charge, consented to let them go over for the day.

American Loan and Investment Co.
CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—Upon a petition filed by the state auditor and by agreement, Judge Gibbons entered Thursday an order dissolving the American Loan and Investment Co. The concern was insolvent, its liabilities exceeding its assets by nearly $6,000.

Senator Quay Congratulated.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Senator Quay, whose candidacy for the presidency was announced Thursday morning by the United Press dispatches, received a great many telegrams and letters from friends in various parts of the country.

Merchant vs. Druggist,

If a "merchant" offers you a "dollar" bottle of "medicine" for "33 cents" you can make up your mind right then and there that he's got either a "dark stained glass intellect"—don't know what he's doing—or's got what you call a "commodious, hard-wood conscience" and is selling you "stuff." He would prefer to tell a "lie on one month's credit" than the "truth for cash." Whenever you expect to get "something for nothing" you get "nothing for something." Moral—Buy your "drugs and medicines" from a "Druggist" because "he knows what he's selling" and the safest place to buy them is from "us."
