A Good Government.—President Pierce, Queen Victoria, Emperor of Russia, King of Holland, the President of the Confederate States, King of Denmark, Queen of Spain, King of Portugal, Pope, and the Emperors of China, and of Sweden, Emperor of France, King of Sardinia, King of Saxe, and the Grand Dukes of Baden, Wurtemberg, and Bavaria, in agreement with the principal rulers of the world, at the present time, may be found in Gleason's Pictorial for the present number, which contains the new volume. Besides the above, this beautiful and instructive publication contains fine engravings, such as New York festi-vales in Germany, China, Algiers, and the West Indies. The Art Police, in their new regulation uniform-ized, Sergt. in Turkey; a Turkish Lady at home; a Turkish Soldier; a Turkish Fruit Vendor; and other fine engravings, some of excellent stories, poems, etc., by the best authors, will also be found in the above number; and, to crown all, the paper has come out in an entirely new dress, both within and without. Terms of the Pictorial—one subscriber, one year, $3; two years, $6. Single copies, at six cents each, may be obtained at any of the periodical designers through the city.

An Ordinance

Further to establish police regulations for the city of Perrysburg, to be ordered by the town council of the town of Perrysburg.

Sec. 1. That every fine shall be imposed by the mayor for a violation of any proviso of the ordinance enacted an ordnance establishing police regulations for the government of the town of Perrysburg, passed March 21, 1853, and all fines ordered to the committee person fined to the jail of the county of Wood until the fine and costs of prosecution shall be paid or there be a discharge thereof by due course of law.

Sec. 2. That the attention of the city, to which this is amending, be and is hereby referred to as to read as follows, to wit: All swine, the property of persons residing within the limits of the town of Perrysburg, and if swine not running at large within the limits of such corporation, under a penalty of two dollars for each such swine so found running at large contrary to the provisions of this section, unless such swine be kept within fences or corrals, by the owners, shall be impounded and if swine and costs are not paid within one month after impounding and dis-tration, to sell the same at public auction to the highest bidder, and to apply the proceeds, first, to costs of impounding, second, to the deficiency, except in cases described in this section, balance of the expense of swine so demanded on the demand. The first section of this ordinance to take effect from the time of its passage; the 2d section to take effect on and after the 1st day of March, 1854.

Sec. 3. That the 10th section of the ordinance, to which this is amending, be and is hereby amended as to read as follows: I certify the above to have been duly passed at a meeting of the city on the 2d day of March, 1853. JAMES MURRAY, Recorder.

A new city is to be built on the Mississipi-give at a point on the Maumee River, near Harl railroad, nearly opposite Dubuque. The name of the new town is Dunlap, and the town County Herald volunteers to write in it.
