LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

These are fowl days. Sunday and Monday were dark, rainy days. Our clubbing rates will appear next issue. Get ready to entertain your friends on the 28th. Social hop at the town hall, Thanksgiving eve. The usual preparations are being made for Thanksgiving. Our dealers are receiving choice lots of Christmas presents. Dr. J. W. Smith has tendered his resignation as health officer. The bricklayers are having bad weather to get in ten hours a day. An unusual amount of stock will be fed in this vicinity this winter. Very able discourses were delivered in all the churches last Sunday. Listen to the rumbling of the wheels over the new stone driveways. Our onion growers preserved their crop in excellent condition this year. The express companies are reaping a harvest now in transporting poultry. They have begun to prospect for water at the new site for the bending works. A still hunt fails to find the rascal who forged the orders on the cheese firms. Very little money has been squandered in Democratic jubilees in this county. The star spangled banner waves from the cupola of the union school building. The mail carriers from the neighboring towns earn their full salary this week. Attend the amusements at the opera house, Wednesday and Thursday evenings. The opera house will be the center of attraction for amusements this week and next. A very few divorce cases appear on the common pleas court docket for the present term. Day burners would improve the light in some of our business rooms these dark days. The death list for '99, in this place, is the largest that it has been for a number of years. The Bee Line Company have an unusual amount of freight to handle just at present. Will Crozier brought in 61 quail, and 19 rabbits as the result of a two days hunt in Ashland county. The drugs in the store formerly occupied by Dr. Emerson, show by invoice to be worth $1,500. The following inscription appears on the south side of the Disciple Church, "The Christian Church." The water in the cistern on the south side of the square might be used to advantage providing it was cleaned out. The third term principles for high officials in the Buckeye State has been settled for the coming century at least. It is said that some of our business houses are offering premiums to the clerks who make the largest sales up to a certain date. Mr. W. E. Whitney has decided to locate in Albon Ashland county with a view of operating a general store, he with his family leave for that place this week. The old time snow bird will probably have a chance this winter to exercise its prerogatives over this territory as the number of English sparrows have been somewhat diminished. W. R. Stanley & Co. had the misfortune to have one of their portable steam saw mills in Arkansas consumed by fire last week. It is supposed to be the work of an incendiary. Our poultry shippers usually patronize the express companies instead of the fast freight lines, but a majority of the oysters that are received here from Baltimore are transported by fast freight. George Davidson was hauled into the mayor's court for being drunk. His honor imposed a fine of $25 and committed him to the workhouse in Cleveland, but suspended sentence during good behavior. At the G. A. R. hall a New England supper will be served next Tuesday evening, Nov. 24, from 5:30 to 7:30 o'clock. After which a good old fashioned camp fire will be held, under the auspices of Col. W. F. Herrick camp of the Sons of Veterans. Our local item last week on electric lights has caused the question to be agitated a little. It would do no harm for the committee on lights to investigate the difference in the expenses. It would make our town appear far more brilliant in the evening. The Salvation Army will give an oyster supper at their hall, Saturday evening. Tickets 20 cents. They have had their hall newly papered, painted and calcimined, and it will be beautifully decorated for the occasion of the 3d anniversary of the 142d corps of the Army of Ohio, which will be held the 23d and 24th insts. The Y. L. H. M. R. C. will give a concert at the M. E. Church next Friday evening with orchestra and other instrumental music. Some of the features of the entertainment will be the singing of Mrs. McLeod, Italian serenade with violin obligato, the Starlight Musical Club, and recitations by Mrs. Ida Stewart. Our fighting editor would be a very improper person to attend the post office about fifteen minutes after four o'clock on the days school is in session. No one else need apply for admission until the school audience is served. If it is necessary for the pupils to visit the office at all, it would seem as though a little better order might be observed. Dr. Sheldon has returned to Wellington to live. He has secured and fitted up an office in a convenient location and furnished it with a complete outfit for his practice. We noticed during a short call an expensive operating chair, appliances for the treatment of all fractures to which humanity is liable, and a well chosen library of late medical literature. We welcome the doctor upon his return. The citizens of this village assembled in the court room Monday evening to consider the proposal of Allen & Sydnal, of Norwalk, to remove their shops, for the manufacture of engine governors, to this place. Their proposition was that the citizens of Wellington subscribe $4,200, to help pay for the erection of a large two story brick building. They had already received some very good offers from a number of other places, among them Defiance, which city agreed to give $8,000 and building site. Bennett Bros., of this place made them a private proposition, whereby the manufacture of brick machines would be carried on in part of the new building. Their offer was so generous that Messrs. Allen & Sydnal decided that if the citizens would subscribe the aforesaid $4,200, they would throw the offer from Defiance overboard and move to Wellington. At the meeting some $1,800 was subscribed, S. S. Warner heading the list with $300, followed by another $300 from Laundon, Windecker & Co. The gentlemen from Norwalk thought they could not give Wellington but that evening to raise the money in, as Defiance demanded a final answer Tuesday morning. They finally extended the time to eleven o'clock Tuesday, and then as the amount was not yet raised, to Tuesday night, when another meeting was held and the necessary cash, with the exception of about $500, was subscribed. This amount will probably be raised to day.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had children, she gave them Castoria.

Surprisers.

Jerry Clark, who for the last three years has been the foreman of the Allyn cheese factory, will leave for California the first of December to make that State his future home. Last Thursday evening he was given a genuine surprise by the patrons of the factory who with their wives and children invaded his home, spending the evening in sociability, games, dancing, and an oyster supper. Mr. and Mrs. Clark have won the friendship of all the people of that community, and their good wishes go with them to their home in the Golden State.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Warren was invaded on Saturday evening by a party of self invited guests, numbering over forty persons, and its inmates reminded of the fact it was the fourteenth anniversary of their wedding day, and that it should be celebrated in a proper manner. The party were most courteously received and joyously welcomed by the surprised family, who immediately put their home into the hands of the invaders, for the time being, to do as they pleased. The house was found to be in holiday attire, lights and fires included. Well laden baskets filled with all the requisites necessary for a first-class oyster supper were brought in, and unladen and busy hands soon spread a feast fit for the well, fit for the celebrating of this wedding anniversary, or in fact, for the celebrating of any important event that might be named. The supper was a complete success, and the social pleasures were very enjoyable, lasting until near the midnight hour. As the guests departed for their homes, they were each and all warmly thanked for thus contributing to the pleasures and entertainment of the evening and received the assurance that their coming had surely brought happiness long to be remembered.

Literary Notes.

A "Shakespeare Revival" is a new thing off the stage. "Merry wives of Windsor" will be the first of Shakespeare's comedies illustrated by Edwin A. Abbey, and commented upon by Andrew Lang for Harper's Magazine. This double interpretation of the play will be enacted in the December number. One of the eleven illustrations will form the frontispiece, and represent the moment in Scene 3, Act 1, when Falstaff transfers Bardolph to the service of the host of the Garter Inn, saying: "Bardolph follow him; a tapster is a good trade." Mr. Abbey has, it is said, accomplished something which no player, even the greatest, has attempted: the adequate interpretation of all the leading roles in a Shakespearean drama. My boy met with a serious accident by pulling a can of boiling water over on himself and scalding his face, arms and hands dreadfully. Having a bottle of Salvation Oil in the house I applied it immediately to the parts scalded, (as per directions) and am glad to state that he is now well, and the wounds healed nicely, without leaving a scar. MRS. A. CAMPBELL, 3 Roberts St. Balto.

A Card to the Public.

Miss Nellie Free, the charming singing and dancing soubrette, will appear at the opera house for one night only, Tuesday, November 29th, and will present Scott Marble's beautiful comedy, "Silver Spur," introducing songs, dances, trio and minuet dances. Miss Nellie Free is supported by her own powerful company, playing all the largest cities in the country having a date open. The business manager has contracted for one night at Wellington. Miss Free's business for the entire season has been one continued round of success. At Quincy, Ill., several weeks ago, she received not less than seven beautiful floral gifts from her many lady admirers in the audience. One lady, in her excitement, threw her glove as well. Remember the date for one of the bright lights of the profession, Tuesday evening, Nov. 29th. MALEY & CO., Managers Nellie Free Co.

Common Sense

Should be used in attempting to cure that very disagreeable disease, catarrh. A catarrh originates in impurities in the blood, local applications can do no permanent good. The common sense method of treatment is to purify the blood, and for this purpose there is no preparation superior to Hood's Sarsaparilla. That this peculiar medicine does cure catarrh is shown by the many testimonials from people who have found relief upon using it when all others had failed. A book containing statements of cures sent on receipt of two-cent stamp, by C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass.

A CARD.

I wish to say to my patrons and the public generally that after repeated efforts I have been able at last to secure E. E. Holloway, D. D. S., as a partner in my dental office, my large and increasing business demanding another competent man. We are now prepared to do all kinds of dental work on the shortest possible notice. Dr. Holloway graduated at the Ohio Dental College in 1884, and has been in active practice ever since. He makes a specialty of gold filling and regulating teeth, which is one of the greatest feats in modern dentistry. Below is given a statement of the Demonstrator of Operative Dentistry of the Ohio Dental College at the time of his graduation. "To whom it may concern: This is to certify that I was Demonstrator of Operative Dentistry in the Ohio Dental College, at Cincinnati, while Dr. E. E. Holloway was a student in said college. He graduated with honors, being considered the best operator in his class. I can recommend him as being a competent and skillful dentist. A. E. McCOSKEY, D. D. S. Urbana, O., Oct. 21, 1899." Thanking the public for past patronage I still solicit a continuance of the same. Respectfully, Dr. C. K. HISEY.
