

WOONSOCKET RUBBER GOODS! RUBBER GOODS! AT FRANK B. SERAGE'S.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Let us all give thanks. Visit your friends to-morrow. The barbers' day of rest is on Monday, now days. Read our clubbing rates and then give us a call. The telephone business here is gradually increasing. A letter from Old Virginia will appear in our next issue. Only one pleasant day last week, and that was Saturday. The political fishing tackle can now be laid up in the loft. The public schools will take a vacation until Monday next. The quality of the products brought to market is excellent. Our sporting fraternity are making war on the birds and forest animals. The attention of the Nation will be centered on the turkey tomorrow. Correspondents will please mail their letters Monday morning each week. Some of the places of business have advertised to close doors to-morrow. The rush to pay taxes is not likely to take place until or about Dec. 15 to 20. The cheese sales for the past ten days have been very satisfactory to our dealers. The Norway rats are becoming quite troublesome in the central part of the State. The innocent house fly has departed and will not be with us until the June sun of '90. Barrett & Waite had one of their buggies smashed up while on the road last week. The lessee appeared and paid damages. On account of so many young turks being destroyed by the early spring rains, the second crop are scarcely fit for a Thanksgiving dinner. Farmers, when you have anything to sell just step in and tell the people about it by inserting a card in THE ENTERPRISE. It will pay you every time. The street loafers should chip in and purchase a coal-oil stove and place it at some point on the sidewalk where it will accommodate the greatest number. Some petty sneak thief confiscated a score, or more, of fine cabbages from F. B. Manley's garden, not having the politeness to leave enough for a Thanksgiving relish in the shape of cold-slaw. The W. & L. E. Ry. Co. will sell tickets at one fare and a third for the round trip to all W. & L. E. stations Nov. 27 and 28. Good to return until Nov. 30, '89, on account of Thanksgiving day. One end of a freight car on the local train on the W. & L. E. going south jumped the track near the crossing Tuesday morning and the passenger trains were compelled to cross the Bee Line on the Y. The young people indulged in a trip of the light fantastic toe at the new Bending Works building Saturday evening. As the results of the instructions given last winter, the Cheese City supports a number of very graceful dancers. The business in the common pleas court is grinding away slowly. One case was tried before a jury last week that occupied four days. Hon. C. P. Wickham and E. G. Johnson were for the plaintiff, and Strong and Stewart, of Norwalk, for the defendant. The letter D stands for delinquent in the country newspaper business. There now appears probably the least number of delinquents on our list of any paper in the State, and it is hoped that our loyal patrons will still continue to aid us in keeping it just where it is. Tuesday evening, November 26th, was the third anniversary of the Salvation Army of this place. Their hall has been painted and kalsomined and presents a beautiful and attractive appearance. The Army have had some hard battles to fight during their sojourn here, but they have managed to reach their third anniversary with victory written upon their banner. A number of our young men have left town within the past two years with a view of seeking a locality to make more money. Some have accomplished their expectations while others have not. Look after the simple stephens boys, and it will soon mature into dollars. It is not the amount of money an individual

MANUFACTURING INTEREST NUMBER TWO.

Forty-two Hundred Dollars Raised to Induce Allen & Sydnal, of Norwalk to Locate Here. The time having been extended to Saturday morning, meetings were held in the town hall Tuesday and Wednesday evenings to solicit additional funds to make up the amount required to induce Messrs. Allen & Sydnal of Norwalk, to locate their works in this place. The committee appointed by the meeting to continue to solicit funds and turn the money over and make such contracts with the gentlemen as would be for the interests of the town, were, D. L. Wadsworth, S. S. Warner, H. A. Horr, S. K. Laundon and G. A. Van Clee; and by Saturday morning the full amount of funds, $4,200, was raised. This will make $5,700 donated by the town for manufacturing interests to locate here within the past six months, which is remarkable for a town of this population and taking into consideration the dullness of the times; but anything our business men undertake is generally accomplished. The gentlemen on the committee, and all donors, are entitled to untold credit for their prompt and business move in this direction. We are informed that this firm has been located in Norwalk for the past eight years, and on account of their large annual increase of trade it became necessary to erect additional buildings and increase their facilities to accommodate their customers. The people of Norwalk were given an opportunity to give them financial aid and declined, but offered to loan them money on long time to make their improvements. The business men of Ipswich learned of the company's intentions to locate elsewhere, and immediately offered them a large advance if they would locate in their city; but they appeared to like Wellington, and through Bennett Bros. & Co. offered to locate here for the amount previously named. Bennett Bros. & Co. were contemplating erecting more commodious structures for their works the coming season, and if the firm from Norwalk decide to locate here, a brick building 125x48 feet, two stories high, with the necessary additions, will be erected and the two firms will consolidate and be operated under the name of The Wellington Machine Works. Mr. Allen, of the firm, met the committee Monday evening and everything was arranged that could be up to date. Mr. Sydnal is a practical machinist, having learned his trade in Birmingham, England, who will be an excellent auxiliary in assisting in the practical part of the work. The time for beginning the work upon the building has not been decided upon, but the probabilities are that nothing will be done but to get in readiness to begin it in the spring; it will require forty to seventy-five men to operate the works successfully, and an increase in number as the business advances. This is the first time since January, 1885, that there has been any perceptible business boom. During these years there has been a continued lull in demand for real estate, and not even the brightest financial mind could assign any apparent reason for it, but during the same period, it was ascertained that the same depression existed in our neighboring towns; consequently we felt in better spirit, but since September 15 things have been brightening up very materially. Real estate has begun to move, business is better in every way. Mr. C. V. Hemenway informs us that he has sold more brick to be consumed in this place within the past three months than he has within the past four years; therefore we feel like congratulating ourselves in securing two important business interests to locate here permanently within so short a time. At the Opera House. The troupe under management of Maley & Co., appeared at the opera house Tuesday evening and rendered Scott Marble's beautiful comedy "Silver Spur." Every eye was centered upon Miss Nellie Free the star of the evening and it can be truly said that no one went away disappointed. The company is a powerful one, hence are able to present a play as the author intended that it should be. A large audience was present and stand ready to return should the company ever favor us with their presence. On Nov. 20 and 21 Prof. Hurlburt appeared with his trained horses and dogs and rendered an excellent entertainment. It seems almost incredible that the dumb animals can be trained to do so many tricks. They could do almost everything but talk. The entertainment gave entire satisfaction. "It's only a question of time," said a short time, too, as to when your rheumatism will yield to Hood's Sarsaparilla. Try it.

Obituary.

DAVIDSON. Hiram S. Davidson, deceased, late of Wellington, Ohio, was born in Luzerne Co., Pennsylvania, March 27, 1834, and died at his late residence in Wellington, Nov. 13, 1889, after a long and lingering illness of eleven months, and being confined to his bed for the last six months. His illness was attended with much pain and his death was looked forward to by him as a bright avenue of escape. His case was looked upon as hopeless by the physicians who attended him, for some time. Mr. Davidson, knowing his earthly existence to be only a question of time, expressed his willingness to leave all the labors, toils and anxieties of this world behind and enter into the rest which he firmly believed was in waiting for him, having experienced religion when sixteen years of age, connected himself with the people of God in church fellowship, and ever maintained his profession by a constant Christian walk to the close of life. His open and generous heart won for him many friends, while in life, and now in death to mourn the loss of a thorough business man, whose honesty was never questioned. He was sixty-five years of age, the father of nine children, all of whom are living, and with the mother, deeply mourn the loss of a husband and father. Funeral services from his residence, Friday, Nov. 15, conducted by the Rev. George Mather, of Ashland, who preached a very able sermon, taking for his text the twenty-third verse of the sixth chapter of Romans, and dwelt upon it in a way to make us familiar with all the mysterious ways of Providence. After which all that is mortal was interred in the new cemetery, where he now sleeps, no longer to endure the pangs of pain, which, he for so many months became an unfortunate victim. The family desire to express their heartfelt thanks to all those who kindly remembered them during the sickness, death, and burial of the husband and father. G. A. DYER. Miss Eliza Fisher was born in Columbiana, Ohio, on November 14, 1839, and was married to Darwin Dyer June 12, 1855. They moved to Hanover, Shelby county, Indiana, in 1852, and in 1846 moved to Brighton, Lorain county, Ohio. Her death occurred at Wellington, Ohio, on November 14, 1889. Allow us to thank all who so kindly helped to care for our mother through her last sickness. We shall always remember her dear sister, Mrs. Joyce, who stood by her bedside day and night. No one could have done more than she and her son Jasper. Mrs. Dyer was visited when taken sick and could not be moved home. Mrs. Wm. V. BAILY. DIED. PARKER.—Saturday evening, November 23, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. O. Johnson, on Cortland Avenue, Mrs. Ann Eliza Parker, aged 88 years. Funeral Tuesday at eleven o'clock, Rev. S. D. Gammell officiating. Her remains were taken to Oberlin for interment. MILLINERY. For the next two weeks I will sell my large stock of felt hats at reduced rates. Made hats a specialty. Ladies please call. Miss A. G. SWANER. Advertisers Letters. The following is a list of unclaimed letters remaining in the postoffice at Wellington, Ohio Nov. 25, '89. Mr. Eddie R. Phelps. Should be used in attempting to cure that very disagreeable disease, catarrh. A catarrh originates in impurities in the blood. Local applications can do no permanent good. The common sense method of treatment is to purify the blood, and for this purpose there is no preparation superior to Hood's Sarsaparilla. That this peculiar medicine does cure catarrh is shown by the many testimonials from people who have found relief upon using it when all others had failed. A book containing statements of cures sent on receipt of two-cent stamp, by C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass. CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEARS. Don't fail to send twenty cents to NOV AND GIRA, Springfield, Ohio, for the Grand Christmas and New Years numbers of that beautiful illustrated home magazine. Each number contains tales of adventure, scientific and historical articles, puzzles, games and other interesting matter. A year's subscription would make a splendid Christmas present for a young friend. Regular price one dollar. New subscribers, until December 30th, only 50 cents. This will include Christmas and New Years numbers. Do not delay; send immediately. Beginning with January 1st next, the Rev. T. De Witt Talmage, D. D., will become one of the editors of The Ladies' Home Journal, of Philadelphia. The famous preacher will have a regular department each month, written by himself, with the title "Under My Study Lamp." His first contribution will appear in the January number of the Journal. Dr. Talmage's salary is said to be one of the largest ever paid for editorial work.
