Events in their Immediate Vicinity.
HUNTINGTON.
Dec. 2 '89.
There was quite a good attendance at the churches last Sabbath, the condition of the roads being taken into account.
The pastor of the M. E. Church held a union service in the Baptist church on Thanksgiving day, preaching from this text: "O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good: for his mercy endureth forever." There were a good many present—rather more than the usual number, for it is always a time of fearful roads.
The largest family gathering that I have heard of was at Walter Dirlan's, between twenty-five and thirty being present, some from Wellington and some from New London.
Carl Rogers and wife spent Thanksgiving in Pendfield; Dent Bradner and wife and Baynum Roice and wife, at George Bradner's in Wellington; Ed Reley and wife, J. I. Chapman and family, in Huntington.
Children in south and northwest parts of town are having whooping cough quite hard. There were three deaths during the past week from this cause. Mr. Alta Mann's four weeks old baby was buried on Tuesday. Mr. Geo. McQuate's seven months old little girl died on the 24th, and his little girl nearly seven years old who was a cripple died on the 26th, and both were buried in one grave on Friday.
Funeral in the Baptist church, the pastor officiating. It is an unusual thing to see two little coffins in church at the same time. They were two very pretty looking little girls.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Breyley, who spent some time at Elder Wyant's last year, have just lost their little girl. She was buried Sunday, Dec. 1st, Mr. and Mrs.
Breyley going out to the funeral.
Mr. and Mrs. Overholtz spent Thanksgiving with her parents.
Frank Irish of LaGrange spent Sunday two weeks ago with his cousin, Joe Hazelton.
David Hull seems to be having a pretty hard time of it. Besides his bruised face he has a large carbuncle on the back of his neck.

Mrs. Jerome Manville died this morning, aged 60 years. Mrs. Manville has been ill with pneumonia about two weeks, during which time she waited with an abiding faith the close of this life and the opening of better life beyond the grave.
The fall term of school closed this week with exercises in the hall, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. The exercises were as successful as could be expected, considering discouragements, bad roads, and bad weather. Net receipts, $136.33.
Miss Edna Tompkins is visiting friends in Medina county.
Mrs. Ira Pease of Huntington, visited her mother, Mrs. C. S. Ryan, this week.
Small boys and big boys, young boys and old boys have been hunting more or less the past two days.
Several of our young people have joined hands for life. Sunday, Nov. 24, Mr.
Geo. Broughton to Miss Lillie Ophir; Wednesday, Nov. 27, at the home of the parents of each bride, by Rev. W. H.
Palmer, Mr. Charles Ransom to Miss Grace Holcomb; Mr. Bert Wilkins to Miss Lucy Richmond. Your correspondent, who has had more or less to do with nearly all of these young people in years past, wishes them in parting a long and happy life.
Yours truly,
J. M. NEWS.

PENNSYLVANIA.
Dec. 2, '89.
The all absorbing topic of conversation and excitement for the past two weeks has been the "rat hunt" as it is called.
Willard Hart and W. J. Krebs as captains and nearly all the male (and part of the female) inhabitants participating.
The outcome of the hunt is to be an oyster supper to be paid for by the party that brought in the least number of counts.
Mr. Hart comes out ahead his counts were 12011, Krebs 10243. There were 623 English sparrows killed. All the other counts were rats and mice. Wednesday evening of this week is set for the time of having the supper, which will be at the town hall. Beside a great amount of fun and enjoyment, the hunt will result in much good in the destruction of so many of these pests.
Mr. Lyman Webber of Van Wert, is visiting his brother and other friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Taylor spent Thanksgiving with his mother near Elyria.
Miss Lottie Gardner has been spending a few days with her folks but returns to Lo'd to day.
For the past few days it has been quite cold and winter-like with some snow.

SPENCER.
Dec. 2, '89.
Quarterly meeting will be held at the F. W. B. church Saturday and Sunday.
H. B. Aldrich has returned from his hunting trip.
J. Burt and wife from Wellington, B.
Waters and wife from Medina, were the guests of A. Burt's Wednesday and Thursday of this week.
Mrs. L. Soeey from Michigan is visiting friends and relatives here.
Mr. Munson and niece, Mrs. Thompson, from Michigan spent Sunday at J. T.
Orr's.
Mrs. P. O. Lee from Lorain is visiting at her father's, Mr. D. Daugherty.
Miss Jennie Fuller is spending a few days with friends in Cleveland.
John Winters took in Cleveland Saturday.
Grandma Grinslager has returned from her visit in Lorain.
GLADYS.

FITTSFIELD.
Dec. 2, 1889.
A young gentleman at Mr. Willis Prits, and a young lady at Mr. Fred Biggs.
On the 23rd ult. a sparrow hunt was organized to report at the town hall on the 4th inst., the losing party to furnish the oysters.
Thanksgiving services were held in the Congregational church, Rev. Olds officiating. A rather slim attendance to hear a very pertinent address.
Rev. U. Richards has been suffering from an attack of rheumatism, but is now somewhat better.
An iron fence in front of the cemetery east of the center is a great improvement.

BRIGHTON.
Dec. 3 '89.
Last week a man was found in the barn of A. Gill, cold and sick. He claimed to be a soldier of the 98th O. V. I. He was taken to the residence of J. B. H. Herbert, a doctor called, and is now improving.
Miss Effie Gassett is staying with her grand-parents.
Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Whipple spent Thanksgiving with their son in Toledo.
Rev. Mr. Rutledge is holding meetings in East Clarksville.
Mr. D. M. Hall is so far improved as to be able to get around without his crutches.
A brother of Mrs. G. M. Peasly from Mansfield spent Thanksgiving with her.
Wm. Johnson and wife spent Thanksgiving in Cleveland. NEWS.

LA GRANGE.
Nov. 30, '89.
Cold weather.
J. M. Sigsbey will spend the winter as a traveling dentist in Wisconsin and Iowa.
Redmond Monroe met with a serious accident the other day, falling upon the sidewalk and putting his shoulder out of joint. Dr. Sawyer, aided by Dr. Lawrence, reset the shoulder.
We are glad to hear that our boys are doing well. Harvey Ryan went to California April '88, since which time he has been successful in business. He is now engaged in business in Seattle, Washington.
Guardon Noble has been elected a county superintendent of schools in Nebraska at a salary of $1700.

Washington Letter.
From our Regular Correspondent.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 29, 1889.
The President and Mrs. Harrison spent a very quiet Thanksgiving day at the White House. They entertained at dinner Major Ernst, who was recently appointed superintendent of public ground and buildings in this city. The Thanksgiving turkey at the White House came from Rhode Island.
Commissioner Raun has issued a circular requesting that all applicants for pension sign their full names to the application, instead of the initials only.
First Assistant Postmaster General Clarkson is reorganizing his office in order to keep up with the rapidly increasing business which comes before it.
The Industrial Congress of the United States, which was in session here last week, passed a resolution in favor of holding the Columbus Exposition of 1892 at Washington.

The Attorney General has given his opinion that men who were enlisted in what was known as the "quartermasters brigade" or "quartermasters volunteers" during the late war are to be considered as being in the "Military service of the United States" and honorably discharged, with the intent of Rule 10, of the Civil Service regulation. This is good news to many.
Commissioner Raun has issued an order to the officials in the Pension office cautioning them to use the greatest care in the rejection of applications for pensions and requiring all letters rejecting claims to be brought to the desk of the Commissioner for signature.

Secretary Blaine gave a dinner to the members of the International Maritime conference Tuesday evening. Among the invited guests were the Vice President Secretaries Noble and Rusk and the German and British ministers. The entertainment was marked by an innovation.
There were no after-dinner speeches.
The arguments on the Anti-Mormon test- oath which Idaho has adopted, will begin in the United States Supreme Court on December 9. Delegate Dubois of Idaho says if the decision is in favor of the Mormons that Idaho will make no further effort to be admitted as a State, as it has no desire to become a State without the power to control the Mormons and to keep them out of its politics.

Officials at the navy department deny the rumor that Admiral Walker, commanding "The squadron of evolution," now at Boston, is in this city for the purpose of conferring with the department as to the advisability of sending the squadron to Brazil. They say that the Admiral is in Washington on his own private business, and that the programme arranged for the squadron will not be deviated from.
Secretary Tracy has perfected arrangements to have the present contractors for gun powder furnish the new smokeless powder for the small arms of the navy and the brown primatic powder for the larger guns.
Senator Farwell smiles in a peculiar way when asked if the rumor which says he will not be a candidate for re-election is true. While the Senator does not say in so many words that he is not a candidate for re-election he says enough to make the inference plain that he is.
Nothing has been done in the cases of the five re-rated officials of the Pension office who were last week asked to resign, and refused to do so. There is a rumor that these men will not be dismissed, though that was Secretary Noble's first intention.
Secretary Proctor's annual report is a very interesting document. He makes a number of excellent recommendations.
He believes the proper way to prevent the large number of desertions in the Army is to lessen the distance between the Commissioned officers and the privates, and he shows how it can be done.

The Holidays
And the colder winter weather are now rapidly approaching. The joyful season is eagerly anticipated by the young folks in thousands of homes; but in nearly all there are one or more older ones to whom the cold waves and the storms mean renewed suffering from rheumatic back or limbs. It is not claimed that Hood's Sasaparilla is a positive specific for rheumatism, we doubt if there is or can be such a remedy. But the remarkable success Hood's Sarsaparilla has had in curing this affection is sufficient reason for those who are suffering to try this peculiar medicine.
An honest Swede tells his story in plain but unmistakable language for the benefit of the public. One of my children took a severe cold and got the croup I gave her a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and in five minutes later I gave her one more. By this time she had to cough up the gatherings in her throat. Then she went to sleep and slept good for fifteen minutes. Then she got up and vomited; then she went back to bed and slept good for the remainder of the night. She got the croup the second night and I gave the same remedy with the same good result. I write this because I thought there might be in the same need and not know the true merit of this wonderful medicine. CHARLES A.
TANCREED, Des Moines, Iowa. 50 cts. bottles for sale by Fred D. Felt, Druggist.
