HUNTINGTON.
Dec. 23, '89.
Mr. Peppenbagen preached from the text found in Luke 2, 11-13 on Sabbath morning, a very interesting Christmas sermon. The S. S. concert in the evening was very good. The pieces were well committed and were all appropriate for Xmas concert with perhaps one exception and that was thoroughly learned and well spoken. The singing was unusually good, owing probably, to the new books and practice. The house was full and it seemed strange how so many people could come as the roads are in such a condition.
I have kept no record of the weather, but I should say it had rained every day and night for more than forty days and nights.
There was no meeting in the Baptist church on Sunday evening.
They are quite afflicted with sickness at the Baptist parsonage, the pastor's sister and her husband both being sick.
David Hull is suffering very much with his broken nose. It does not seem to be healing at all.
Walter Breyley was home about two weeks ago with his arm in a sling, resulting from an accident.
Will Smith has sold his interest in the saw mill to his partner, J. B. Robinson, and has bought a saw mill in Centerton, Huron Co., about 23 miles from here, where he moves the last of this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Etwood Russell are spending a week in Norwalk.
Clifton Chapman, from Cleveland, and his sister Anna, from Ada, are coming home Tuesday of this week for the holidays.

ROCHESTER.
Dec. 24, '89
A good holiday trade.
Produce prices during the last week have only averaged from one to three cents higher, for butter and eggs, than in Wellington and New London.
Some of our youth who stray into the limits of classic and aesthetic New London, return from that great Prohibition center with a wobbly, wobbly gait, and a breath highly perfumed with inoffensive hop tea.
M. Goss & Co. have purchased the old mill pond with a view of extending their mill trade.
The organists of both churches were cleverly remembered Christmas.

PENFIELD.
Dec. 23, '89.
Born, Dec. 17, a daughter to Rev. and Mrs. Alberson.
Mr. and Mrs. Riley Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Scoville have moved to Lorain.
Mr. Hugh Chambers and family have moved into their new house.
Miss Lora E. Andrews returned a few days ago from a several weeks visit with friends in Cleveland, Newburg, and Bedford.
Mrs. O. K. Starr spent several days last week with friends in Wellington.
Mr. Hugh Chambers, Nelson Wilson, and J. H. Gardner were in Elyria one day last week on business.
Mr. W. B. Andrews intends to go to Oscoda, Illinois, in a few days to visit his brother.
Mr. Lyman Foster cut his hand badly a few days ago while butchering.
Mr. S. M. McLean and Mr. S. J. Al-lehouse who are teaching in the north part of the county are having a vacation and are home for the holidays, also Miss Rosetta Allehouse who is teaching in Eaton is spending her vacation at home.
Mr. John Bartholomew is spending the holidays with his father at Chautauque, New York.
Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Starr and Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Starr, with their families are visiting with friends in McComb, Ohio.
The weather has been so warm for the past two weeks that heavy thunder showers with sharp lightning have been a common occurrence. Dandelions are in the bloom by hundreds and mud, well there is but one mudhole, but it is a good one.
There is to be a Christmas tree entertainment at the M. E. church, but the condition of the roads is such as not to warrant a very large attendance. JACK.

SULLIVAN.
Dec. 23, '89.
Married, on Dec. 21, at Ithaca, Mich., by Rev. Norris, Rev. J. W. Heyward and Miss Mary A. Ingraham. They are spending this week visiting her mother and friends here; will return Saturday to Ithaca, where Mr. Heyward is engaged preaching for the Congregational church.
Mrs. Heyward was to teach in the High School there until the close of school year, June next, but has not decided whether to remain or not. May our best wishes attend them.
The Bazar which was held last Friday by the Congregational Society, although a very stormy time, proved a decided success, realizing $41 net proceeds, and all went home feeling they had a very pleasant time. The entertainment promised will be given later in the winter when better roads appear.
Married, on Dec. 19, Mr. Lewis Ward and Miss Minnie Giar, both of Sullivan.
Elmer and Will Dunlap with their families are visiting relatives and friends in town.
Misses Cora Pritchard and Birdie Campbell are home again for a few days, also Clayton Mann.
As the doctor might say it is distressingly healthy about us at present. We only hear of one now being under the doctor's care, Mrs. Dunlap, who is quite feeble.
It is expected that meetings will begin in Congregational church Thursday evening, on Friday. Fellowship meeting beginning at 10:30 a. m. at which time it v.
Merrill, of Ashland, Rev. Bowers, of Raggles and other ministers are expected to participate.
Will L. Clark is among the happy young men of our town, his wife having presented him with a fine Christmas present weighing at out nine pounds. The name of this gift is Harry William.

Dec. 23, 1889.
The annual meeting of the Pittsfield Mutual Fire Insurance Association was held in the town hall on the 19 inst. Most of the officers were re-elected. The reports of the Secretary and Treasurer were very satisfactory, showing a very successful year—some losses by lightning but a good balance in the treasury.
The "District Schule" entertainment given under the auspices of the W. C. T.
U. on the 20th was a financial success, notwithstanding the mud and darkness. The hall was filled and the audience gave unmistakable signs of being pleased. There is some talk of a repetition, but it may not be.
Mr. Wilfred Gillett and his bride arrived from Canada the 17th and left for Lorain on the 20th expecting to make that place their home.

Charles Clements, Esq., and family, of Chicago, are visiting Dr. F. S. Field.
Clayton Dimmock met with quite a serious accident while chopping a log.
His ax glanced from its course and striking his foot, cut a gash between two and three inches in length. He is under medical treatment.

HAIL COLUMBIA.

ELYRIA.
Ohio State Journal, Dec. 12, Warden Coffin will take the Garrett baby to its father in Medina county today. The Warden states if Garrett refuses to take the child he will place it in charge of the officers of the Medina county infirmary..... A recent decision in the courts maintains that if a man wants to go father than another one ahead of him on the road he is going, he has the right to pass, and if he is prevented by the other and an accident should happen there-by, the man thus obstructing the road is responsible for the damage done. No man has a right to infringe upon the rights of others, however, in trying to pass.... One night last week sneak thieves entered the foundry office, ransacked everything, opened the safe which was unlocked, but all they could find was 50 cents in stamps which they took..... The county barn in rear of the jail, which the Commissioners ordered built last fall, is completed. It was built by Levet and Waters, the contract price being something over $800..... A joint session of the County Commissioners of Medina and Lorain counties was held at the court house in Medina last Wednesday..... Miss Maude Shane, of this village, died suddenly Tuesday morning, presumably of heart disease.
Miss Shane was about 21 years of age, and has lived with her mother and an older sister in Medina. She worked in A. I. Root's factory for a long time, but lately she has been engaged teaching school. She was teaching in the school house west of the Burnham place on the York road, and came home at night. Monday morning she opened her school, but felt sick all the forenoon and was so much worse in the afternoon that she dismissed her school before the hour for closing, and went to the residence of Elmer Clark, a little farther west where she stayed all night. She passed a restless night and in the morning persuaded Mr.
Clark to bring her home. He started with her in his carriage, and on the way she had a fainting spell but recovered from it.
When they had nearly reached the State road she lapsed again with her head back on a pillow and struggled somewhat, and remained unconscious and lifeless until they reached Mr. Root's factory, where she was taken out, her mother being there.—Gazette.

OBERLIN.
The taxable property in the village of Oberlin, real and personal, as it appear-on the tax duplicate, is valued at $1,234, 955..... The new system of ticket selling does not appear to please the public any better than the old. The fact is a large audience room, in which people can be sure of a seat, is very much needed....
The Cantata of "Esther, the Beautiful Queen," will be given at Pettis Hall, on Wednesday and Thursday evening....
A petition will probably be ready in a few days for the construction of the stone road between Oberlin and Wellington.
As the roads are now it is impossible for farmers to drive to town with any kind of a load and scarcely with an empty wagon.
With a paved road, wood and produce could be brought in at times when the majority of farmers are mud-bound....
Examinations are in progress in the Oberlin public schools this week. In the High school, those pupils whose average mark in any study is nine or above, are excused from an examination in that study and passed on the term's work.
The fall term will close to-morrow for the holiday vacation. The next term will begin January 6th..... The Erie-Lorain county bridge over the Vermillion river near Birmingham, fell into the river Saturday afternoon. The structure was in process of construction by the Massillon Bridge Company, at a cost of $4,025. The iron work is badly damaged and no cause is assigned for its giving away. The loss will fall on the company.—News.

THE HOLIDAYS
And the colder winter weather are now rapidly approaching. The joyful season is eagerly anticipated by the young folks in thousands of homes; but in nearly all there are one or more older ones to whom the cold waves and the storms means renewed suffering from rheumatic back or limbs. It is not claimed that Hood's Sas-saparilla is a positive specific for rheumatism we doubt if there is or can be such a remedy. But the remarkable success Hood's Sassaaparilla has had in cure-ing this affection is sufficient reason for those who are suffering to try this peculiar medicine.

Hibbard's
THROAT AND LUNG BALSAM
GIVES INSTANT RELIEF.
Rheumatic Syrup Co., Jackson, Mich.
Gents: I have used your Throat and Lung Balsam in my family during the past winter and find it the best remedy that we have ever used. It gives instant relief. George Conner, 211 South D Street, Oskaloosa, Iowa.
John F. Cochran, of Sigourney, Iowa, says his wife used Hibbard's Rheumatic and Liver Pills for sick headache, and they entirely cured her.
Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup and Liver Pills are remedies of great merit. We take pleasure in recommending them.
