Dime Society of the M. E. Church last Friday.
Sam Roe has purchased two lots of the Ludwig Bros. on Quarry street and will erect dwellings on them in the spring.
John Root has begun another dwelling which makes the fourth on Quarry street this winter. That part of town is bound to flourish.

J. Harmon has rented his farm to W.
Schmauch and will move to North Amherst soon. We regret to say that Mr. H. has purchased a saloon in that village and will begin operations soon.
The M. E. choir accepted an invitation to furnish music for the Kendeigh Cor-ner's Mutual Improvement Society last Friday evening and were well received.

J. Berger, editor of South Amherst news for Amherst Reporter, is going the rounds with a very useful article for housekeepers if they have fires to kindle. This fire kindler is an excellent thing and everyone should have it.

An "English Tea" will be given at the home of Messrs. Barton & Thompson on next Thursday evening for the benefit of the M. E. Church. It is to be something entirely new in the line of socials and it is hoped that a large number will be present to enjoy it.

There will be an interesting and instructive debate at the school house on Wall street Saturday p. m., Jan'y 26. Messrs.
Chas. Harris and H. B. Wright will present the affirmative and F. Brandt and E.
Stone the negative. We have not a statement of the question, else we would give it. We hope our people will turn out to hear this discussion.

HUNTINGTON. Jan'y 21, '89.
The meetings will continue at the M. E.
Church every evening this week. The attendance last week was pretty good considering the weather.
Paul Long, son of the pastor, is quite sick with quinsy.
Major Smead and his wife are both having their "annual" lung trouble, but unlike the past they seem to be getting better instead of waiting till spring.
Mrs. Lawson is still just alive. Her two sons, Sylvester Lawson, from Elgin, Ill., and Asahel Lawson, from Norwalk, are with her. A daughter from Michigan was expected before this, but was detained at home by sickness in her own family.
Whitney Clark and wife and Whitney, Jr., have been visiting in Wellington and start for their home in Glen Allen, Pa., on Monday of this week.
Mrs. Clifford is a little more comfortable.
Mrs. Benjamin Pratt has been quite sick, but is improving.
Daisy Phelon spent Sunday in town.
Mrs. Burrell and Mrs. Andrews, sisters of Mrs. A. J. Burrell, and Carrie Reeves, a niece, returned to their home in Elyria last Friday.
The literary society at the south school house on Saturday evenings are attracting considerable attention. The question for discussion on next Saturday evening, "Resolved that the sewing machine is more beneficial than the mowing machine."

ROCHESTER. Jan'y 21, '89.
Edwin Thomas, one of the oldest settlers of Rochester, died Saturday, Jan'y 19, and was buried the following Monday. His age was said to be 97 years.
Mrs. Boice and Mrs. Mastin are reported as being very low but slight hopes of an ultimate recovery.
Mr. D. S. Pond still continues very low and is comparatively helpless.
Singing school at M. E. Church on Saturday evenings.
There is talk of holding a series of revival meetings at the F. W. B. Church.
H. Bradford is getting material together preparatory to building a new house.
The Bee Line agent here says the beautiful flowers that have ornamented the railroad grounds must give way to a zoological collection. Everybody can raise flowers, but everybody can't have a zoological garden, and H. B. won't take a back seat for nobody.
Whooping cough prevails to some extent; also a new disease that the owners call breakneck cough is having quite a run.

HAIL COLUMBIA.
It is the intrinsic merit alone of Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer that has gained for it great popularity for restoring the natural color of the hair.

Jan'y 22, '89
The protracted meetings which were to commence last week at the Baptist Church, on account of the unfavorable condition of the weather, have been postponed.
Bert Stevens and wife, of Black River, are in the village visiting friends.
Mrs. J. J. Mastin is slowly recovering from a serious illness of several weeks duration.
Mr. Lave Simonsen has been on the sick list for several weeks, but is now on the gain.

The infant child of Norman Pond died last Saturday morning at 2 o'clock.
The young people of the village are taking steps towards the formation of a literary and musical club. They will meet next Thursday night with Miss Daisy Kessler to perfect the organization, adopt a constitution, and elect officers.
Mr. O. E. Johnson has moved his saw mill to New London township, where he has a contract for sawing out a large amount of lumber. Mr. Johnson expects to return after he has finished the job.
This has been a bad season for Mr. J. as the farmers were unable to haul their logs to town on account of the bad condition of the roads.

AMHERST. Jan'y 21, '89.
A general squabble is going on in our quiet vicinity for the postoffice. Excitement running high. Gibson Bros. and F.
Harpster are the contestants.
E. C. Schuler, of North Amherst, was in town yesterday.
Miss Nora Peabody, of Henrietta, was a visitor on Wall street recently.
Mrs. Hattie Post, of Henrietta, was a guest at J. Durand's last week.
F. D. Wyatt has sold his new residence on Main street to William Merchant; consideration $600.
Mrs. J. Minch entertained the Ladies and youngest residents of the township died on the same day.

That cowardly wretch, the dog poisoner, has been doing some of his dirty work in this place.
BON HOMME.
Leading physicians recommend Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Old and young take it with perfect safety. It cleanses the blood, strengthens the nerves, and vitalizes the system. Popular experience has long placed this medicine at the head of tonic alteratives.

LA GRANGE. Jan'y 21, '89.
Some colds are the order of the day.
Writing school has an average attendance of over fifty.
Entertainment at town hall Saturday evening, Jan'y 26, by G. A. R. and W.
R. C.

evening of next week.

sale.
Miss Lemmon, formerly of our schools, now of Oberlin school, received an unexpected and substantial increase of salary at the opening of the winter session.
YOUNG DUVLY.
That beautiful glossy sheen, so much admired in hair, can be secured by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. There is nothing better than this preparation for strengthening the scalp and keeping it free from dandruff and itching eruptions.

James Andrews has his house nearly ready for occupancy. It makes a marked improvement to that street.
The funeral of Ephraim Coleman was attended by a large number of friends and relatives on Sunday last. He has been a great sufferer for a year and a half.
D. J. Foster, W. D. Dimmock are in Virginia prospecting. Mr. Dimmock was there a few weeks ago and reports very favorable for the country.
Sadie Wurtz is with her aunt Mrs. John Pittinger, who is not much improved.

homestead and will therefore never cross and stove store on the corner across from Van's, which is an improvement very much needed on that corner.

Fred Gardiner and family visited in Rochester and New London.
Factories are beginning to have a little apprehension about the ice harvest.
AMATEUR.
Demosthenes, the Grecian orator, cured his stammering by having his mouth full of pebbles, and many are the modern orators who have cured their hoarseness by an occasional dose of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Washington Letter.
(From our Regular Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, Jan'y 18, 1889.
The Vice President-elect and Mrs. Morton have arrived in this city. They are stopping at the Normandie, the hotel where Mr. Blaine and his family are located for the winter. There may not be any significance in this, but it has had the effect of strengthening the already generally prevalent opinion here that Mr.
Blaine will be at the head of General Harrison's cabinet.
An argument has been reached by the conferees of the Senate and House on the bill providing for a Secretary of Agriculture, so that unless the President shall interpose a veto, which is not at all probable, General Harrison will have one more officer in his cabinet than any of his predecessors have ever had.
The House Committee on Military Affairs has made a favorable report on the bill to revive the grade of lieutenant general of the army and providing for the selection of a major general to fill the position. This would limit the selection to Generals Schofield, Howard, and Crook; but it is the special object of these engaged in pushing the bill to secure the promotion of General Schofield. There is so much opposition to the measure that there is little probability of its becoming a law at any early date.
Records are dangerous things, as many politicians have occasion to know. One of the latest possible victims of the record Nemesis is General W. S. Rosecrans, at present Register of the Treasury. General Rosecrans is nearly 70 years old, and his various ups and downs have left him a poor man. Therefore, his friends have introduced a bill in Congress, which has been favorably reported by the military committee of both Houses, to place him on the retired list of the army with the rank of major general, in order to provide him with the means of passing the remainder of his life in comfort. There
