AGREEMENTS were made Monday before the Supreme Court at Washington, D. C. by the defendant on appeal in case United States vs the Mormon church at Salt Lake to dissolve the corporation and confiscate the property in favor of the government.

A LAW was passed last winter by the General Assembly requiring banks to make a report of all deposits that have been on hand for seven years uncalled for, to the Probate Judge of the county, between the first and third Mondays in January, and the penalty for not so doing being $500.

Eight thousand four hundred and sixty-eight and a half dollars are disbursed to pay the expenses of delivering the electoral vote from each state to the Vice President of the United States.

REPRESENTATIVE BRAMAN has forwarded us a copy of a bill as drafted by Mr. Tryon, to create the office of township supervisors and the letting of certain portions of work by contract.

GOVERNOR FORAKER has complied with the recommendation of the Board of Pardons in the case of Mrs. Mary L. Garrett to commute her sentence to imprisonment for life, and if she accepts of the new situation of affairs the annex to the prison will soon lose sight of her and she will be conducted in the grim department for the females where she will be relieved of the care and custody of her young babe.

nothing undone in trying the case for the interest of their client and after ten days of trial before the court, two trips to Columbus and watching the case since Nov. 3, 1887, it is not at all likely that the commissioners of Medina county will reward them for half the amount of service rendered.

Painful Sores.

I have been afflicted with very painful sores in times past, causing both boils and showing that my blood was remarkably impure. After using a great number of remedies without benefit, I at length bought Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) and it has cured me sound and well.

I have been afflicted with Scrofula ever since I was a small child. To tell of all I have suffered would be a picture too dark and painful to think of. Years of misery I endured, bad digestion, no appetite, rheumatism in my feet, all these and more than these have made my life a misery.

Last year my little boy John had a breaking out with sores all over his body, which was painful and troublesome. After using other remedies for several months, while the sores grew worse, I was induced to give him Swift's Specific.

Swift's Specific is entirely a vegetable medicine, and is the only medicine which has ever cured Blood Poison, Scrofula, Blood Humors and kindred diseases. Send for our books on Blood and Skin Diseases, mailed free.

MRS. GARRETT.

The State Board of Pardons commenced their January session at 2 o'clock this afternoon, there being a very large crowd in attendance. The meeting was to have taken place this morning, but on account of the non-arrival of two members it was postponed until this afternoon.

As soon as President Hagerty called the board to order, Attorney E. G. Johnson, of Elyria, began presenting the case for Mrs. Garrett. He traced the history of the circumstances surrounding the crime, this occupying some time.

J. H. Dickson, attorney for Mrs. Garrett followed Mr. Johnson and made a statement which although brief, covered all the material points in the case. The claim was made that Mrs. Garrett is not guilty, but is the victim of circumstance.

After this hearing President Hagerty announced that the board would consider the case in executive session to-night.

Gov. J. B. FORAKER, Columbus, O.: DEAR SIR—"I have been requested to write you concerning the commutation of the sentence of Mrs. Mary L. Garrett, who was convicted of the murder of Anna Garrett at the September term of the Medina County Common Pleas Court, and sentenced to be executed January 24th, 1889.

GOVERNOR FORAKER has complied with the recommendation of the Board of Pardons in the case of Mrs. Mary L. Garrett to commute her sentence to imprisonment for life, and if she accepts of the new situation of affairs the annex to the prison will soon lose sight of her and she will be conducted in the grim department for the females where she will be relieved of the care and custody of her young babe.

The following is the report of the board: "There was testimony to show that the imbeciles were of filthy habits, and not of kind dispositions, and in many ways very offensive, but it does not appear that their stepmother, Mrs. Garrett, had ever shown any particular unkindness toward them.

at the time of the fire. It was clearly proven by the State that there was coal oil on the floor of this room, but no lamp or oil can could be found anywhere in the room or under the floor. It seems to us that Mr. Garrett was as much at fault in not seeing that the two imbeciles were rescued as was Mrs. Garrett, the condemned. The case was taken on error to the Circuit Court, who decided that a fair trial has been given Mrs. Garrett, and that there was no error in the records.

In accordance with the recommendation of the Board of Pardons, and for the reasons therein stated, Governor Foraker to-day issued his warrant commuting the sentence of death passed on Mary Garrett by the Court of Common Pleas of Medina county, at the September, 1888, term, to imprisonment for life.

Warden Coffin, soon after the Governor announced his decision, visited the annex where Mrs. Garrett was confined, and acquainted her with the action of the executive.

"It isn't what I deserve," she answered, and then the tears began to trickle down her cheeks. "If I had ever thought of such a thing I would feel that I was punished. I ought not to be here at all."

"You were within two days of your execution," he finally said.

"What day is to-day?" asked Mrs. Garrett.

"The twenty-first, and you would have been executed on Thursday, before 3 o'clock in the morning."

"I have not kept count, so you see how much interest I had."

"You know whether you are guilty or not?"

"Yes, I know, and God knows," and she began crying again. She then related her history as connected with the murdered step-daughters. She had never objected to them, but her husband did not want to keep them at home.

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article.

To Get

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me to buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, and was satisfied with it, and did not want any other.

Hood's

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and had for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it." Mrs. ELLA A. GOFF, 61 Terrace Street, Boston.
