FOR THE IMPROVEMENT OF SOUTH MAIN STREET.
WHEREAS, AS THE OWNERS OF MORE THAN TWO THIRDS OF THE FEET FRONT ABUTTING UPON SOUTH MAIN STREET have petitioned for the improvement thereof, therefore, be it resolved by the common council of the village of Wellington, Ohio, as follows:
1. That it is deemed necessary to improve South Main Street by paving the same with flag stone (8) eight feet long and not less than (4) four feet wide and not less than (3) eight inches thick if of split stone and not less than (7) seven inches thick with stone with both sides natural beds and all in accordance with the plans and specifications on file in the office of the Village Clerk.
2. That one fourth of the cost and expenses of said improvement shall be levied and assessed by the feet front upon all the lots and land abutting on said improvement, and the balance shall be levied and assessed upon the general tax list as an assessment upon all the taxable real and personal property of said village.
3. That the marshal is hereby appointed and authorized and directed to serve written notice of the passage of the above resolution upon all the owners of property abutting on said proposed improvement, and to cause to be made a list of the owners of such property of this county.
4. That said resolution be published in the Wellington Enterprise for two consecutive weeks.
Passed January 21st, 1889.
R. N. GOODWIN, Clerk. E. E. HUGHES, Mayor.

I notice in your last week's issue, among your notes from Medina, that Dr. Palmer of Lodi, 79 years old, claims to be the first white child born in Ohio. Allow me to correct Dr. Palmer's chronology. Mr Orin Harmon was born in Mantua, Portage county, Ohio, in 1803, and were he alive would now be 86 years old. Also Rebecca Cutler was born in Palmyra, Portage county, in 1804, and if alive would now be 85 years old. She married Edward P. Siskind and resided in Huntington, Lorain county 20 years and died there in 1884. Again, Silas Piney, the father of the subscriber, was born in Mantua, Portage county, in February, 1808, and were he alive now would be 81 years old nearly. I can name others who were born about the same time as these, but cannot now give the exact dates.

HUNTINGTON.
January 28, '89.
Quarterly meeting in the M. E. Church on Saturday and Sunday. Elder Hughes preaches on Saturday at 2 p. m. and both morning and evening on the Sabbath, and meetings continue every evening this week at 7 o'clock, and half-past 10 every morning.
Another one of Huntington's old estlers, Mrs. Martin Sage, died during the past week—I think Tuesday night. Her remains were placed in the vault at Brunswick, and some time in the future will be placed beside her husband in our cemetery.
Since my last writing Mr. Asa Simonson has sickened and died. He died on Thursday and was buried on Friday after a very short sickness. He was about 68 years old. Elder Wynant preached his funeral sermon.
Mrs. Geo. Lawton has a little daughter born the 24th.
If the snow which is on the ground now had come when it was frozen up solid it would have made splendid sleighing, but unless it freezes up soon it will all be wasted.
The nice new walk around the park and front of the town hall improve the appearance of the center very much.
Mrs. Hart has been having company from Michigan. I didn't learn the name.
Also Mrs. Cyrus Johnson has had a nephew visiting her from Michigan.
The boys brought a hand full of "spring beauties" (our early spring flowers) in from the woods last Wednesday, Jay 21.

Mrs R. B. Boice who was not expected to survive Sunday, is now rallying.
The young people's literary and musical social met at the residence of Miss Daisy Kessler Thursday evening and organized by electing the following officers: Pres., Miss Louie Pond, Vice-Presidents, Carrie Field and Wade Chamberlain; Treasurer, Josie Phelps; Secretary, Victoria Scoville; Asst. Sec., Edith Callin; Organist, Cora Costa; Musical Director, Clayton Din-mock; Program committee, Harvey Kesler, Wade Chamberlain, Mammie Crawford, Daisy Kessler. The social meets the first Thursday of each month.
Mrs. E. Palmer now 75 years of age commenced a course of lectures on phre-nology at DeHackett hall in this village Tuesday evening, to continue one week.
P. Dagnan, Jr. of the People's Store,

To The Citizens of Wellington.
Fred D. Felt, the druggist, of Wellington, will keep for sale the celebrated Indian Pill, manufactured by the eminent Dr. R. MacFarland of Genoa, O. This is the pill that cures headache, sick or nervous, also constipation, and for our failure we offer $100 if directions are carried out.
We can tell you more, they cure rheumatism, sciatic, chronic, or inflammatory. All stomach diseases yield every time to this great discovery. They will positively cure all diseases of the urinary organs if curable from any medicine. The secret is they cure the liver and will not fail. Do not fail to try this medicine: $1 a box, 50 cents in each box. Call at Felt's drug store for them. Felt only keeps them, Wellington. Ask for the little book giving symptoms. This is the great blood searcher of the world.
N. B. Felt's only. Remember Dr. R.
MacFarland's pill is the only genuine MacFarland pill on earth.

January 28, 1889.
During the week commencing the 15th, Mrs. Alexander gave physiological lectures, illustrated by a manikin, which were said to be very instructive to those attending. Prof. Alexander gave a stereo-optical entertainment, Monday evening, January 21st.
The Farmers' Institute held the 24th and 25 in this place was considered a success in every way, very full attendance and entertaining and instructive speakers.
Three or four from a distance, and our home talent was well represented. Mrs.
F. Rice read a paper on "Farmers wives and daughters" which was well received; also Miss Nellie Rogers on "Farmers and Farmers sons." These together with all proceedings of the institute, will be published in the Ohio Farmer. A more extended account would have been re-

WISCONSIN.
January 28, '89.
The entertainment given a few evenings ago in the Congregational Church was well attended and gave good satisfaction.
Mr. H. A. Whitbeck was quite seriously hurt a few days ago by being kicked by a colt.
Mr. Milo T. Jackson, our mail-carrier, met with quite a serious accident a few days ago. On his way from Wellington his horses became unmanageable, ran away, threw him out onto the frozen ground, hurting his arm and shoulder to some extent, and breaking the buggy in several places.
Mr. Ira Foster, of Michigan, has lately been visiting Mr. Lyman Foster and family.
Miss Nora Long returned Wednesday from her visit of several weeks with friends in Gallon.
Mr. H. Sechrist had his foot seriously hurt some time ago, and is not able to attend to his outside duties.
Mr. Robert Lowe, W. J. Krebs and J.
H. Gardner were in Lodi the fore part of last week.
Mrs. Fred Dague's mother, Mrs. Hov-ler, and a cousin from Suffield, Portage county, have lately been visiting her and family.
Mr. and Mrs. Simon Long went to Gallon on Saturday to visit their many friends there.
Mrs. Charles Lang is convalescent.
Mr. Dick Gibbons and wife, and his mother of Pittsfield, visited his sister, Mrs. Lyman Foster, on Saturday and Sunday.
The remains of George Renouard, a former resident of Penfield, were brought here and interred last Friday.
The weather for the past few days has not been an improvement in any way—lots of rain and mud, traveling almost impossible—but yesterday was ushered in with quite a snow, and we are looking for a change.

On the evening of the 15th ult., the Sunday School class of Mr. R. T. Weedon and other friends numbering over 60, made him a visit (a surprise) and spent a very pleasant evening, though the going was anything but good.
The fellowship meeting at the Cong'l church announced for 16th and 17th inst.
was closed the first day as the weather and the roads were about as bad if not worse than the worst of the season.
The farm of Mr. L. E. Whitney two miles west of the center is sold to a German. I cannot spell his name having never seen it. Consideration fifty dollars per acre.
Beautiful snow. Sleds going with logs making sawmillers hearts glad.
The Wait farm sold in two lots, purchasers R. Merriam the back lot, R. Mills the old homestead.
Our neighbor, Fisk, who moved to southeastern Virginia, near Norfolk, writes he has about work enough, sawing, to last him a year. He does not seem to be enamored with the place, but if he gets what sawing and grinding he can do, most likely he will stay awhile. M.
LA GRANGE.
January 29, '89.
A change—a snow storm.
Soon listen to the bells, merry bells.
Farmers have already begun to draw logs.
Considerable interest is manifested in the meeting now being held at the Baptist church. Elder Early, of Camden, is assisting Elder Gray.
The entertainment given at town hall Saturday evening by G. A. R. and W. R. C. was a decided success. Net receipts $56.33.

YOURS DAILY.
It was the pleasure of about thirty representatives of the G. A. R., W. R. C. and S. of V. of Wellington to be present at an entertainment given by the G. A. R.
Post of LaGrange at that place, on Saturday evening last. The evening was made the occasion of the unveiling of the altar for the G. A. R. Hall. This altar is a beautiful piece of workmanship, made and presented by Mr. Miller a member of Hastings Post. It is of wood and the mountings are of brass. The entertainment consisted largely of army scenes, many of them represented by tableaux so nicely arranged as to bring vividly to the minds of the old soldiers similar scenes which they had witnessed during the dark days of the late war. The different acts of unlimbering, loading and firing cannon were represented by three different tableaux. There was a hospital, a camp and a prison scene, a sham battle and a sword drill, in fact so many things so nicely arranged and represented, that it is impossible to single out and say of any one,

"this was very fine" or "that was the best thing on the program," for all was so well done that persons could only say. It was in all its details, a splendid success. Duets were sung and the time occupied in the arranging of tableaux, etc, was made pleasant by music from the orchestra.
The members of the LaGrange Post are to be congratulated, not only on the good home talent they possess but upon the pleasant manner in which they brought it out for the entertainment of their friends.
LITCHFIELD.
January 28, '89.
Rather good prospect for some sleighing.
Litchfield youths put in full time on the ice during the late short season of skating.
Wm. Thorp, of Cleveland, is visiting in town.
Chas. Turner visited last week with his son, F. S. Turner, of North Baltimore.
Mr. Houser, special pension examiner from Washington, D. C., was in town last week.
Wm. Lincoln and wife visited with his parents last week.
No telephone yet.
Mr. Johnson and family, who have been visiting for some time past in Huntington, have returned to their home.
Mrs. P. Starr is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Nichols, of Medina.
Dr. Carpenter visited last week in Gal-lion.
George Latze will move next week with his family to Akron, where he has obtained work in a match factory.
The young people of Litchfield have organized a literary society. Meetings are held at the high school-room every Thursday evening. The entertainment consists of debates, recitations, essays, etc.
Everybody who wishes to take part in such exercises, or who in other ways desires to acquire knowledge and accomplishments, are cordially invited to join.
No admission is charged, as spectators are not generally admitted.
This has been one of the dullest winters Litchfield has ever experienced since we have known her. No soirees, charivaries, nor even bussing-bees to gladden the hearts of the young folks. What, oh what is the matter with our people?
News was received here last week of the death of Edward Sperry, who many years ago was a resident of this place.
Ed. Storrs and wife are visiting at her father's, M. M. Gardner.
Henry Kruger is visiting friends in town. CARP.

Notes from Other Towns.
MEDINA.
Last Friday was divorce day in Common Pleas Court. Two decrees were entered, something unusual in the way of number, as the divorce docket has been quite large heretofore. The couples made happy by the judicial event were Betsy Lamb, who was cut asunder from N. E.
Lamb, and Clara Palmer, who had her nuptial obligations severed from Samuel Palmer. The two fair complainants felt as happy as two happy brides-maids in the glow of the morning. The second annual Lincoln Banquet will be held at Columbus, Ohio, Feb. 12, 1889. Several of the most popular orators in the country will be present, and everything will be conducted in first-class style. The person who makes it a practice of borrowing a neighbor's newspaper is engaged in a very bad business, especially if able to subscribe and pay for a paper. No stopping off at Grafton now for a glass of lager, while waiting to be hitched on to the Cleveland train. At the village election held there on the 18th, for or against saloons, the vote stood for saloons 53, against 80. Mrs. Belle Whitfield, who is on a visit to her father's from Iowa, has with her a little dog which she has trained to perform a variety of cute tricks with the gravity of a judge on the bench. It will walk, dance, run around after its tail, lie down as if dead, shake hands with all four feet, one after another, walk across the floor on its hind feet, jump through a hoop made of its mistress's arms, and many other little tricks which show wonderful canine cunning. Gas and oil are found in large quantities in many localities in Ohio. The discovery of gas and oil in Findlay has developed a marvelous growth. An old town that had nearly reached the limits of its growth has suddenly, by the development of this new element of wealth, sprung into the proportions of a bustling city of the second class. Millions have been added to her wealth within a single year, and many more will come to her coffers the coming year. North Baltimore and other towns in the northwestern part of the State, by the development of gas and oil, are rapidly springing up as active business centers, and the old fogy towns are being left far in the rear.—Gazette.

WISCONSIN.
January 28, '89.
The entertainment given a few evenings
ago in the Congregational Church was
well attended and gave good satisfaction.
Mr. H. A. Whitbeck was quite seriously hurt a few days ago by being kicked by a colt.
Mr. Milo T. Jackson, our mail-carrier, met with quite a serious accident a few days ago. On his way from Wellington
his horses became unmanageable, ran
ground, hurting his arm and shoulder to some extent, and breaking the buggy in
several places.
Mr. Ira Foster, of Michigan, has lately
family.
Miss Nora Long returned Wednesday
from her visit of several weeks with
friends in Gallon.
Mr. H. Sechrist had his foot seriously hurt some time ago, and is not able to attend to his outside duties.
Mr. Robert Lowe, W. J. Krebs and J.
H. Gardner were in Lodi the fore part of last week.
Mrs. Fred Dague's mother, Mrs. Hov-ler, and a cousin from Suffield, Portage
family.
Mr. and Mrs. Simon Long went to Gallon on Saturday to visit their many friends there.
Mrs. Charles Lang is convalescent.
Mr. Dick Gibbons and wife, and his mother of Pittsfield, visited his sister, Mrs. Lyman Foster, on Saturday and Sunday.
The remains of George Renouard, a former resident of Penfield, were brought
here and interred last Friday.
The weather for the past few days has
not been an improvement in any way—lots
of rain and mud, traveling almost impossible—but yesterday was ushered in with
change.

January 27, 1889.
On the evening of the 15th ult., the Sunday School class of Mr. R. T. Weedon
and other friends numbering over 60, made
him a visit (a surprise) and spent a very
anything but good.
The fellowship meeting at the Cong'l
church announced for 16th and 17th inst.
was closed the first day as the weather
and the roads were about as bad if not
worse than the worst of the season.
The farm of Mr. L. E. Whitney two
miles west of the center is sold to a German. I cannot spell his name having never seen it. Consideration fifty dollars per acre.
Beautiful snow. Sleds going with logs
making sawmillers hearts glad.
The Wait farm sold in two lots, purchasers R. Merriam the back lot, R. Mills the old homestead.
