

THE ENTERPRISE.

J. B. SMITH, Proprietor.

WELLINGTON, OHIO.

General News Summary.

Interesting Home and Foreign News.

WASHINGTON.

The exports of cotton from the United States for March last were 543,901 bales, valued at $36,089,921, as against 531,400 bales in March, 1888.

The Comptroller of the Currency has declared a second dividend of twenty per cent. in favor of the creditors of the First National Bank of Livingston, Montana, making in all ninety-five per cent. on claims proved, amounting to $36,323. This bank failed August 25, 1884.

The following appointments were made by the President on the 15th: Lyman E. Knapp, of Middlebury, Vt., to be Governor of Alaska; Henry S. Walter, of West Virginia, to be Marshal for that State; Spencer Hartwig, of Covington, Ky., special agent to make allotments of lands in severity to Indians.

The total value of the exports of beef and hog products from the United States during the month of March, 1889, were $3,125,068; for the corresponding period last year, $3,323,851.

Comptroller of Patents Mitchell has removed Captain Jerome B. Burke, chief of the Gasette Division, Patent Office, and appointed J. W. Babson in his place. Mr. Babson formerly filled the position to which he has been reappointed.

The Second Assistant Postmaster-General on the 12th began the opening of bids for carrying the mails on about 1,500 star and steamboat routes in the country. Nearly 25,000 bids have been received and a large clerical force is busy opening and scheduling the proposals.

The following special agents in the General Land Office to investigate fraudulent land entries have been appointed by Secretary Noble: W. N. Moxton, of Texas; John York of Illinois; John S. Sidger, of Nebraska; and Sol. A. Hawk of West Virginia.

W. H. H. Smith has been appointed chief clerk of the Naval Bureau of Steam Engines, vice Julius J. Peels, resigned. Mr. Smith was the immediate predecessor of Mr. Peels and went out after a service of twenty-three years in the bureau.

Mrs. Feliger, wife of Admiral Feliger, was thrown from her carriage in Washington, on the 14th and seriously if not fatally injured.

Hon. John P. Usher, who was Secretary of the Interior under President Lincoln, died at the Mt. Clearfield Hospital, Philadelphia, on the 14th the result of the removal of a tumor from his throat.

The commission appointed to select a site for a navy yard on the Pacific coast have decided to report in favor of a place on Puget Sound, near Seattle.

During the fourteen days of the present month 22,000 letters containing applications and papers in reference to appointments for fourth class and Presidential postmasters have been received in the office of the First Assistant Postmaster-General. There are also 400 applications on file in the Department for positions of post-office inspectors, and 500 applications on file for like positions at the Civil Service Commission.

The President made the following appointments on the 15th: James E. Stuart, post-office inspector, with headquarters at Chicago; George M. Christian, assistant superintendent of the railway mail service, assigned to duty in the office of the First Assistant Postmaster-General; Moses P. Wyman, of Custer County, Montana, agent for the Indians of the Crow Agency in Montana.

When the open hearth cast steel gun was tested at Annapolis a short time since a favorable report was made. Later investigation, it is claimed, shows flaws, and the matter has come before the Secretary for decision. Naval officers generally are inclined to believe that a cast steel gun can not be made equal to a built up gun.

THE EAST.

General F. P. Miller, the well-known Irish agitator, died on the 10th at his residence in New York City. He has of late years been an inmate of the New York Herald.

President Miller, of the Allegheny (Pa.) Barbers' Association, has issued a call for a convention to meet in Pittsburgh on the first Tuesday in September to form a national trade union.

The trunk line general passenger agent, in session at New York, have granted the request of dry goods merchants to make excursion tickets for the centennial inaugural good until May 6 so as to give visitors to New York City ample time to make purchases.

Thomas McCarthy, one of the gang connected with the Manhattan bank burglary, and who afterwards held up a train near Troy, N. Y., for which he served seven years in prison, was on the 11th sent to prison for eight years for grand larceny.

Mathias F. Dixon was elected United States Senator by the Rhode Island Legislature on the 15th. The ballot stood: Dixon, 51; Wetmore, 41; Arnold, 4; Coit 2; Spooner, 1. Total vote, 99; necessary to a choice, 50.

David A. Gage, at one time treasurer of the city of Chicago and widely known as a hotel proprietor, died at Charleston, N. H., on the 11th.

At its session in Philadelphia on the 11th Mrs. M. J. Chase, of that city, was elected president of the McCall Mission. The next meeting will be Boston in April, 1890.

Five damaged the storehouse of the Buffalo Cordage Company at Chelsea, Mass., to the extent of $30,000 on the 11th. The loss is covered by insurance.

The personal effects of the late Josiah Y. Williamson, of Philadelphia, have been appraised at $6,810,628.75.

John Crosby, of Minneapolis, took the prize from seven competitors on the 11th at the annual oratorical contest of the junior class at Yale.

It is said that $4,000 or $5,000 worth of the goods smuggled through the New York custom-house by the firm of Alard & Son, was innocently purchased by ex-Mayor Hewitt.

Alexander Emery, coffee and spice dealer of New Haven, Conn., assailed on the 11th with liabilities of $30,000 and assets $30,000. Forty per cent. has been accepted by some creditors.

Edgar Swan, ex-cashier of the National City Bank, of Lynn, Mass., on the 11th pleaded guilty to embezzlement of $35,000, and was sentenced to five years in the Lawrence, Mass., jail, the lightest sentence allowed by law.

A fire at Brooklyn, N. Y., on the 11th destroyed the extensive tile mills of Buchanan & Lyell, entailing an estimated loss of $400,000. The three hundred employees at work in the mills at the time escaped without injury.

George T. Brown, Democrat, was on the 15th elected State Senator from Providence, R. I., by a 188 majority over Rep. Republican, and Warren E. Pierce, Prohibitionist. This completes the next General Assembly, which now stands forty-nine Democrats and fifty-nine Republicans on joint ballot.

During the seven days ended April 13, the business failures occurring throughout the country number for the United States 213, and for Canada 37, or a total of 250 as against 223 the previous week, and 223 for the corresponding week of last year.

John G. Carruth & Co., proprietors of the Endurance Mills, Philadelphia, were robbed of $3,190 on the 13th by their bookkeeper, William W. Hill, who succeeded in getting out of the city before the robbery was discovered. The money had been given to Hill to place in envelopes for the weekly wages of the employees.

Walter G. Sterling, who was identified with large real estate, banking and other interests at Wilkesbarre, Pa., died in that city on the 13th, aged sixty-eight years. He laid the foundation for his large fortune by his luck in California in 1848.

Samuel Johnson, convicted of the murder of Isaac Sharpless in Delaware County, Pa., has been respited by Governor Beaver until June 4.

George Calder, Jr., of Lancaster, Pa., manufacturer of cotton goods, assigned on the 12th, with liabilities of $150,000. Assets less than $5,000.

Henry C. Miller, aged sixty-eight years, of Easton, Pa., started for his wood tract to burn brush a few nights ago. The next morning his body was found in a thicket burned to a crisp. It is supposed his clothing caught fire and he could not escape.

Mrs. Olive E. Friend, who was arrested on the charge of larceny in connection with the Electric sugar windmill, still maintains that she is innocent and that her husband really possesses the secret of refining raw sugar cheaply and quickly by means of electricity. Mrs. Friend is still confined in the Tombs, unable to secure bail for $7,000.

The Kearney mills of the Clark thread works at Newark, N. J., shut down for an indefinite period on the 12th, owing to the strike against the fifteen per cent. reduction in wages.

Henry Damon, aged twenty-two, of Belmont, Mass., was bitten by a savage dog last October and died of hydrophobia on the 13th, after suffering great agony.

It is reported that great de lusion prevails among a large number of miners in the Clearfield (Pa.) coal districts. Many of them have been without work since the first of the year, and have not the means to pay for the commonest food and other necessary expenses.

Five burglars escaped from the jail at Salem, Mass., on the 13th. Before leaving one of the gang robbed the jailer's safe of $100. They had been gone half an hour before their escape was discovered.

Captain Orest B. Read, of the Eleventh United States Infantry, stationed at the Plattsburg (N. Y.) barracks, suicided on the 14th by shooting himself in the head.

Charles Bates and Evan Meddle were instantly killed by an explosion of gas in the Grand Tunnel colliery at Nanticoke, Pa., on the 14th. They were experts engaged in examining the mines looking for dangerous flows of gas with a naked lamp.

At Norristown, Pa., on the 13th, while Rudolph Spielhofer was endeavoring to make an opening in a kiln of lime at the quarries of G. & W. H. Corson, he fell headlong into the hot lime and was roasted alive before the eyes of his fellow workmen, who were unable to extricate him.

A steamship which arrived at New York on the 14th from Hamburg reports that on April 13 in a dense fog, she struck the pilot boat Commanded by Bateman about midnight, sinking her at once and drowning Pilot John Hendran and the colored cook, Harry Halford.

Exports of specie from the port of New York during the week ended April 13 amounted to $1,358,483. The imports of specie during the same time amounted to $30,000.

The committee of sixteen treasury experts appointed by Secretary Windom to count the New York sub-treasury cash before it is transferred to Mr. Roberts, the new Assistant United States Treasurer there, began their work on the 13th. It is expected to occupy three weeks' time.

The weekly statement of the New York clearing banks, issued on the 13th, shows the following changes: Reserve, increase, $4,523,775; loans decrease, $2,477,920; specie increase, $3,733,300; legal tenders increase, $1,533,533; deposits increase, $1,502,900; circulation decrease, $361,600. The banks held $5,955,559 in excess of the twenty-five per cent. rule.

The steamer Rio Grande was damaged $25,000 by fire at her dock in New York on the 14th.

John A. Kasson, William Walter Phelps and George H. Bates, members of the Samoan Commission, were among the passengers on the Cunard steamship Umbria, which sailed from New York on the 13th.

Ex-Congressman Simeon B. Crittenden died on the 14th at his home in Brooklyn, N. Y. His age was seventy-five years.

The annual statistical report of the American Iron and Steel Association just issued, shows that the production of all the leading forms of iron and steel in the United States in 1888, with the single exception of pig iron, was less than in 1887. Following are the figures in net tons: In 1887, 22,781,409; in 1888, 20,974,838.

WEST AND SOUTH.

By a vote of 73 to 62 the lower house of the Missouri Legislature on the 11th passed a bill fixing a maximum rate of $1.30 per annum for saloon licenses for State and county purposes in all towns and cities of the State, and permitting towns and cities to charge from $100 to $1,500 for the same purpose.

A decision has been rendered by United States District Judge Thayer, of St. Louis, to the effect that stealing packages of postal matter from the tops of letter boxes is no offense against the mail law.

Hon. William P. Cutler, ex-Congressman, and for three terms a member of the Ohio Legislature, died at his home in Marietta on the 11th.

Dick Dowell, alias Sheldon, under sentence of death for murder, who escaped from jail at Weston, W. Va., in 1875, was captured recently near Grand Forks, D. T., and has been identified.

The steamship Pirate, Capt. J. W. Graham, arrived at Baltimore on the 12th, having on board a shipwrecked crew of four men of the schooner Richard W. Denham, of Bath, Me. The Denham was dismantled and leaking and was set on fire when abandoned.

The report recently telegraphed from Indianapolis to the effect that Samuel W. Myers, manager of the branch of the A. Booth Packing Company of that city, was a defaulter to the amount of $10,000, is denied.

On the night of the 11th the rooms of the Horrat Tailoring Company at Detroit, Mich., were burglarized of goods to the amount of over $2,000.

A mysterious and fatal disease, in some respects resembling scarlet fever, has broken out near Lincoln, Ill. Some dozen cases have been reported, all proving fatal. The disease usually runs its course within thirty-six hours, and so far has been confined to children.

Frank Ringo, a well-known ball player, suicided at Kansas City, Mo., on the 12th by taking morphine.

The most remarkable leap on record was made on the 12th by Meredith Stanley, a well-known athlete and bridge jumper of Cincinnati. It was from the famous high bridge on the Cincinnati Southern road over the Kentucky river. The height is 235 feet. He selected a place where the water was twelve feet deep, and attired in silk tights and slippers, leaped into the air and, doubling up his body like a ball, fell to the water. A moment later he came to the surface, when he was quickly seized by assistants in a boat. He escaped without breaking the skin and the next day claimed to feel as well as ever.

The trial at Geneva, Ill., of Broderick and Gooding, charged with conspiracy to injure the property of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company with dynamite, was concluded on the 13th, the jury returning a verdict of guilty. Broderick's punishment was fixed at one year in the penitentiary and Gooding was fined $500.

John Jackson, president of the St. Louis Grain Elevator Company, suicided by hanging himself in the office of the company on the night of the 13th. No motive for the deed is known.

At Chicago on the 13th, while Mrs. Edward Gallery was attempting to take a loaded revolver from her eleven-year-old boy, with which he was playing, the weapon was discharged, the bullet entering the boy's brain, causing instant death.

Mayor-elect George H. Thomas, of Colorado, Springs, Col., was found dead in his barn on the 13th with a bullet-hole through his head. He suicided because of heavy losses on May wheat.

Governor Foraker, of Ohio, has issued a proclamation designating Friday, April 30, as Arbor Day, calling on all those interested to devote it to tree planting, and urging that it be made a general holiday in Ohio.

Three business houses, fifteen dwellings, the school house and a bridge at Milford, Ky., were destroyed by fire on the 14th. Loss about $40,000.

A syndicate of capitalists from New York, New Orleans, Memphis and Atlanta, have consummated the purchase of 63,000 acres of land in St. George's Valley, about thirty miles from Chattanooga, adjoining the city of South Pittsburg, Tenn. The price for the property, which controls coal, iron and timber lands, was $50,000.

President H. H. Hickman, of the Southern Manufacturers' Association, has issued a call for a meeting of all Southern manufacturers in Augusta, Ga., May 1, to discuss matters of general interest to manufacturers.

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

The Balloon Society of Great Britain has bestowed a gold medal upon Mr. Williams, of Cincinnati, who has given numerous exhibitions in England of his skill in the use of the parachute in descending from a balloon.

An explosion in the Erin pit at Castrop, Australia, recently killed twenty-five persons.

The committee which has been investigating Mr. Pasteur's method of exterminating rabbits from Australia, reports that the rabbits inoculated with the virus of chicken cholera die, but the disease was not communicated from one to another.

Reports were circulated in Europe on the 11th that an attempt had been made upon the life of the Czar, and that he had been injured by a bursting shell. Russian authorities are said to have done all in their power to prevent the fact, becoming known.

Advice from the Hawaiian Islands state that the bark C. D. Bryant was seized by the Hawaiian government at Honolulu, March 23, for smuggling. Sixty tons of opium were found on the bark by the customs officers.

Five thousand three hundred emigrants sailed from Bremen and Hamburg on the 12th for New York.

Sir Charles Russell closed his speech for the defense in the Parnell trial on the 12th and the commission adjourned until the 30th inst.

Two thousand emigrants left Liverpool on the 14th for America making a total of 12,000 who have sailed from that place during the past week.

A serious conflict has broken out between the blacks and Portuguese in Demerara. The shops of the Portuguese, who are the principal tradesmen, have been sacked, entailing an estimated loss of $100,000.

The Court of Queen's Bench has decided that women are not eligible to membership in the London County Council. The election of Lady Sandhurst is therefore declared void.

LATER.

Over one hundred old soldiers have arrived at Wichita, Kan., from Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia to join the old soldiers' Oklahoma colony. The colony is in charge of Captain Hall and will locate near King Fisher.

The largest natural gas well ever struck was by the Philadelphia Company, near Belle Vernon, Pa., on the 15th. It is running off 40,000,000 feet a day, the pressure being 800 pounds to the inch.

P. F. Lockwood, a wealthy real estate dealer, committed suicide on his cemetery lot at Minneapolis, Minn., on the 15th. He was insane.

The stable of James Miller, a colored hackman, at Louisville, Ky., two horses, a carriage and his colored driver, sleeping on the second floor, were burned on the 15th. Miller, as soon as he discovered the fire, rushed into the burning building to save his horses, but was overcome by smoke and died.

The workmen at the salt shaft at Kingman, Kan., struck rock salt on the 15th at a depth of 675 feet. The salt is as clear as glass and seems to be absolutely pure. It is the only rock salt mine west of New York.

CHARLES F. HATCH, president of the Wisconsin, Minnesota & Pacific railroad, committed suicide in his office at Minneapolis, Minn., on the 15th, by shooting himself in the mouth with a revolver. The suicide is well nigh inexplicable, as Mr. Hatch's business and domestic relations were of the happiest.

GEORGE RENZI, the swindling merchant who defrauded the tobacco trade and the Commercial National Bank some months ago to the extent of $50,000, was locked up at police headquarters in New York on the 15th.

ALLEN C. CHURCHILL, a prominent Republican politician and extensive glove manufacturer, died at Gloversville, N. Y., on the 15th, aged sixty-five years.

HON. CALVIN BOGGS, one of the best known lawyers in the two Virginias, died in Parkersburg, W. Va., on the 15th, aged sixty-six.

GENERAL CHARLES K. GRAHAM, ex-surveyor and ex-naval officer of the port of New York, died at Lake Wood, N. J., on the 15th. His disease was pneumonia.

The suit to test the constitutionality of the act of the late Indiana Legislature authorizing a loan of $700,000 was decided on the 15th in the Circuit Court at Indianapolis. Judge Howard, in a brief opinion, held that the law was unconstitutional. The case will be taken at once to the Supreme Court.

Five in a block in New York on the 15th wherein James Gordon Bennett and other wealthy men kept bachelor quarters when in the city, did no serious damage but several inmates narrowly escaped suffocation.

In the case of William B. Robertson, collector of the port of New York, plaintiff in a suit against Charles Salomon, an attorney, the United States Supreme Court on the 14th decided that bonds were dutiable at ten per cent. on vegetables.

DIETER'S CROWN BAKING POWDER

BAKING POWDER

Recommended by the highest medical and chemical authorities, who testify to its absolute purity, wholesomeness and wonderful strength. Every can guaranteed to do the work of any other baking powder costing twice as much. Every can guaranteed to give satisfaction, or purchase money refunded.

1 lb. Can, 20cts. 5 lbs. 80cts. 4 lbs. 50cts. If your dealer does not keep Crown, do not let him persuade you to buy some other. We challenge the best of goods, but will not sell you by act.

DIETER'S CROWN BAKING POWDER.

DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP

THE PEOPLE'S REMEDY. PRICE 35c. Salvation Oil. Small Patent. 25c. Only 25c.

News About Town.

It is the current report about town that Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs is making some remarkable cures with people who are troubled with Coughs, Sore Throat, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption. Any druggist will give you a trial bottle free of cost. It is guaranteed to relieve and cure. The large bottles are fifty cents and one dollar.

A Great Surprise

Is in store for all who use Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs, the great guaranteed remedy. Would you believe that it is sold on its merits and that any druggist is authorized by the proprietor of this wonderful remedy to give you a sample bottle free? It never fails to cure acute or chronic coughs. All druggists sell Kemp's Balsam. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.

Why embitter life by dragging around with lame back, diseased kidneys, dropsical swellings, female weakness, nervous debility, neuralgic disease and rheumatic complaints, when Dr. Fenner's Kidney and Backache Cure will so quickly cure? Rev. A. J. Merchant, Presiding Elder writes: "It gave me almost instant and entirely permanent relief." Superior to all known medicines in these diseases. For sale by druggists.

Simply purifying and cleansing the blood is not sufficient. It needs enriching also, the nervous system needs toning up and all this is accomplished by Dr. Fenner's Blood and Liver Remedy and Nerli Tonic. Use his Cough Honey in all coughs; his Golden Relief in all pains of stomach and bowel disorders; his Kidney and Backache Cure in lame back, dropsy and all kidney disorders; his German Eye-Salve in sore eyes, cracked skin and piles; his Capitol Bitters for appetite and strength. For sale by druggists.

The Homeliest man in Wellington as well as the handsomest, and others are invited to call on any druggist and get free a trial bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the lungs and throat, a remedy that is selling entirely upon its merits and is guaranteed to relieve and cure all Chronic and Acute Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.

Foolish People

Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediately see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial size free. At all druggists.

William Laird.

William Laird, a well known druggist of Springfield, Oregon, writes as follows: "My stock of Van Wert's Cough Balsam ordered from you a short time ago is almost exhausted and I am pleased to note the fact that it has given universal satisfaction. I have never had a single bottle returned. The medicine is a boon to mankind." Trial size free. E. W. Adams the Leading Druggist.

A Sensible Man

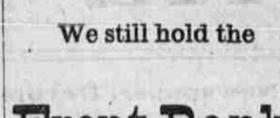

Would use Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs. It is curing more cases of coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, croup, and all throat and lung troubles than any other medicine. The proprietor has authorized any druggist to give you a sample bottle free to convince you of the merit of this great remedy. Large bottles 50c and $1.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine the peculiar way in which Kemp's Balsam, for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed "wonderful." He authorizes druggists to give those who call for it, a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50 cents and one dollar. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

SAVED THE VALUE OF A FARM—Sellers Cough Syrup has attained a reputation all over the world as a remedy for Coughs and Colds, and more could hardly be said of any other medicine. The syrup should be kept in every family where there are children, and grown up people find it a most valuable medicine for coughs, colds, hoarseness, and throat and lung diseases. The pills are such a standard remedy in some parts of the country that a family never thinks of doing without them. Said an old gentleman in Eastern Maryland, "Why I have raised my family on Sellers' Pills, and I consider them almost as essential to a family as bread. In the last thirty years they have saved me enough in doctor bills, to pay for a farm.—Cincinnati Times-Star.

DIETER'S CROWN BAKING POWDER

BAKING POWDER

Recommended by the highest medical and chemical authorities, who testify to its absolute purity, wholesomeness and wonderful strength. Every can guaranteed to do the work of any other baking powder costing twice as much. Every can guaranteed to give satisfaction, or purchase money refunded.

1 lb. Can, 20cts. 5 lbs. 80cts. 4 lbs. 50cts. If your dealer does not keep Crown, do not let him persuade you to buy some other. We challenge the best of goods, but will not sell you by act.

DIETER'S CROWN BAKING POWDER.

DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP

THE PEOPLE'S REMEDY. PRICE 35c. Salvation Oil. Small Patent. 25c. Only 25c.

News About Town.

It is the current report about town that Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs is making some remarkable cures with people who are troubled with Coughs, Sore Throat, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption. Any druggist will give you a trial bottle free of cost. It is guaranteed to relieve and cure. The large bottles are fifty cents and one dollar.

A Great Surprise

Is in store for all who use Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs, the great guaranteed remedy. Would you believe that it is sold on its merits and that any druggist is authorized by the proprietor of this wonderful remedy to give you a sample bottle free? It never fails to cure acute or chronic coughs. All druggists sell Kemp's Balsam. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.

Simply purifying and cleansing the blood is not sufficient. It needs enriching also, the nervous system needs toning up and all this is accomplished by Dr. Fenner's Blood and Liver Remedy and Nerli Tonic. Use his Cough Honey in all coughs; his Golden Relief in all pains of stomach and bowel disorders; his Kidney and Backache Cure in lame back, dropsy and all kidney disorders; his German Eye-Salve in sore eyes, cracked skin and piles; his Capitol Bitters for appetite and strength. For sale by druggists.

The Homeliest man in Wellington as well as the handsomest, and others are invited to call on any druggist and get free a trial bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the lungs and throat, a remedy that is selling entirely upon its merits and is guaranteed to relieve and cure all Chronic and Acute Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.

The Homeliest man in Wellington as well as the handsomest, and others are invited to call on any druggist and get free a trial bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the lungs and throat, a remedy that is selling entirely upon its merits and is guaranteed to relieve and cure all Chronic and Acute Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.

Foolish People

Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediately see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial size free. At all druggists.

William Laird.

William Laird, a well known druggist of Springfield, Oregon, writes as follows: "My stock of Van Wert's Cough Balsam ordered from you a short time ago is almost exhausted and I am pleased to note the fact that it has given universal satisfaction. I have never had a single bottle returned. The medicine is a boon to mankind." Trial size free. E. W. Adams the Leading Druggist.

A Sensible Man

Would use Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs. It is curing more cases of coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, croup, and all throat and lung troubles than any other medicine. The proprietor has authorized any druggist to give you a sample bottle free to convince you of the merit of this great remedy. Large bottles 50c and $1.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine the peculiar way in which Kemp's Balsam, for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed "wonderful." He authorizes druggists to give those who call for it, a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50 cents and one dollar. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

SAVED THE VALUE OF A FARM—Sellers Cough Syrup has attained a reputation all over the world as a remedy for Coughs and Colds, and more could hardly be said of any other medicine. The syrup should be kept in every family where there are children, and grown up people find it a most valuable medicine for coughs, colds, hoarseness, and throat and lung diseases. The pills are such a standard remedy in some parts of the country that a family never thinks of doing without them. Said an old gentleman in Eastern Maryland, "Why I have raised my family on Sellers' Pills, and I consider them almost as essential to a family as bread. In the last thirty years