Commencement week.

The town is full of visitors.

Republican caucus tonight.

Enforce the dog ordinance.

The honest grasshopper is on hand.

Rochester celebrates on the fourth.

The forest abound with fox-squirrels.

Spring chickens are now ready to be served.

To-morrow will be the longest day in the year.

Our merchants enjoyed a lively trade Saturday.

The milliners will soon take their annual vacation.

Very fine costumes will be worn by lady graduates.

Dealers in ice-cream have been enjoying a dull trade.

Quite a number patronized the Greenwich fair from this place.

Secretary Couch is busy arranging the program for the coming fair.

A full report of the commencement exercises will be in next issue.

The Salvation Army folks parade the streets quite often nowadays.

The hotel and boarding houses appear to be well patronized at present.

If there was only a foot path across the park it would look much better.

The older people claim there was a town clock in running order here at one time.

The lawn mower has been busy while the street sprinkler has been taking a rest.

The boys are saving up their shekels to purchase fire-crackers on the fourth.

C. L. Pyke the Photographer carried off the red ribbons on his work at the Greenwich Fair.

Thanks to Mrs. Mary J. Lewis and Mrs. Huffman for nice baskets of delicious strawberries.

Excursion to Cleveland over the Bee Line to-day. Some of the boys took their best girls.

Tickets can be procured of the old time ticket agent, E. W. Adams for Commencement exercises.

Any disturbance in town during the night season should be reported immediatly to the night watchman.

The council have given the band boys the use of Mayor's court room to practice in and store their instruments.

Miss Mable Holbrook presented us with a strawberry measuring in circumference 6½ inches. Who next.

June 20th the time will expire for paying the last half taxes for 1888, but the usual custom will doubtless be observed to extend time a little.

The whistle wetter and stomach Satisfier comes in quantities of one gallon now. As hot weather is coming more is needed to keep the nerves steady.

The morning train west on the W. & L. E. Ry. leaves one hour later on the new schedule 5:05 Standard time which will accommodate the people much better.

The price of wool ranges from twenty-five to thirty-five cents, according to quality. Messrs Laundon, Windecker & Co., have purchased a number of small lots.

Lectures on the Johnstown, Pa., disaster from an eye witness stand point imaginary Scenes of the flood and actual photographs in Panorama form will soon be on hand.

Members of Wellington Council No. 63 O. of C. F., will be glad to learn that up to the present time, only two members are known to have lost their lives in the Conemaugh Valley disaster.

Thirty-five cents is offered for wool, the old Republican times are returning. Just as the above was placed upon paper the sun burst from under a cloud where it had been hidden for a number of days.

Ex-Postmaster Scott of Kipton was among our callers Monday. Henry is just as happy without an office as with one.—Elyria Democrat. How will it be when Editor Reefy is compelled to step down and out of the post-office?

Robert Blee superintendent of the Columbus and Cincinnati divisions of the old Bee Line will probably be general superintendent of the newly oganized company. C. J. Stedwell trainmaster will probably get a boost.

Messrs Wean, Horr Warner & Co., are reported to have planted in swamp lands near Lodi and Creston, 105 acres to onions, 45 acres to celery and 200 acres to potatoes. Our ex-mayor seems determined to make an effort to have an abundant yield of the products he is engaged in.

The chances for receiving the nomination for State Treasurer by Mr. John C. Sheffield of Bellevue, appear to be very flattering. Mr. Sheffield is a very able business man and his nomination would be a credit to the convention; let it be John C. Sheffield of Huron county, for State Treasurer.

There appears to be a gang of theives passing through the country, breaking into residences, and even stealing horses. Dell Johnson of Brighton, lost a valuable horse last Thursday evening. Our people should be on the alert both in town and country, and cause the arrest of any person or persons found about their premises and make them give an account of themselves, or suffer the consequences.

Union services were held at the Congregational church Sunday evening. Rev. S. D. Gammell preached the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class from 1st. Cor. 12th chapter and 31st verse, which was listened to with the closest attention, by the large and attentive audience. The music was furnished by the class, viz: Misses Nellie Couch, Grace Artz, Bertha Howk, Agie Haskell and Messrs Johnson, Barrett, Rust and Eglin.

The funeral of Capt. Trinter was very largely attended; the line of carriages being just one mile in length. The Captain was going to make one more trip then retire from the business and remove with his family to a fine residence just completed in Cleveland, to spend the remainder of his days. His last communication to Mrs. Trinter was written on Friday June 7th., stating that he would arrive home Wednesday morning June 12th. His remains did arrive on the morning stated.

Thursday night the Bee Line depot at Rochester was entered by burglars, but they secured nothing for their trouble. The marshals along the line were advised of the affair, and marshal Williams here did haul in two or three suspicious looking fellows into the cooler Friday night. Saturday morning two more quite respectable looking men were around the Bee Line depot, but about nine o'clock started towards the W. & L. E. depot. About this hour rumors were flying around town of a safe blowing that had taken place in Greenwich the night before, and the marshal decided to interview the two men, hence he called M. L. Cook to accompany him and when on the way H. S. Smith the transfer hack man voulunteered to accompany them. The two suspected were overtaken near the residence of F. Rodhouse on Prospect street when they were placed under arrest and the quartette with Smith in the lead started for the cooler but after traveling about fifteen rods they made a break for liberty and in the tussle Cook was hurled to the ground. Smith gave them chase across the lots and the marshal did the shooting which was answered by one of the runaways. One fled towards Penfield and the other to the south woods. The marshal had exhausted his ammunition and to proceed after them unprotected was unwise so he caused the case to be reported up town and a company was formed in a very short time to raid the forest—Geo. Couch, Bent. Vischer, 'Gene Robinson and about fifty more armed to the teeth. Our fighting Editor had a bid to accompany the vigilance committee but he decided to adopt the safe policy in case of doubt and remain at home and do his shooting in the next issue of THE ENTERPRISE. Later in the afternoon the scouts returned having made a thorough search of the margin of the forest but no tidings of the fugitives from Justice. About eight o'clock a report reached town that they had "got 'em" and all were anxious to know where and all about it. The excitement ran high for a few moments, when the excited crowd was politely informed that they had got them chased into the woods and the burgs were somewhere in that vicinity, "give it up."

DIED.

GATES.—On Friday June the 14, Mrs. Mary Warner Gates, aged 44 years. Her remains were interred in the new cemetery Sunday, Rev. S. D. Gammell officiating.

JOHNSON.—Of consumption, at the residence of her brother, Cornelius Springsted, at Olena, Huron Co., O., June 14th 1889, Alice, wife of Wm. A. Johnson, of Wellington, aged 31 years. Funeral Sunday the 16th at ten A. M. Interment at Norwalk cemetery.

Our Fair

Which takes place on Aug., 27, 28, 29 and 30, gives promise of being one of the best ever held in Wellington. The management desire to give three full days of good entertainment, forenoon and afternoon alike, each day as good as the other. Therefore many new features of an interesting character will be added this year. The Floral Hall will be converted into a loan exhibition, under the auspices of the Ladies Relief Corps.

Two running races will be added to the horse department. The following program will be given during the three last days:

On Wednesday, the second day of the Fair, at 10 a. m., a ball game between juvenile clubs from Oberlin and Wellington; all players to be actual residents of the townships of Russia or Wellington, and all players to be under 16 years of age. Prize to winning club, $10.00. Immediately following this game will be a ball game between the senior clubs of Wellington and Russia; each club to be allowed one player who is not a resident of either of said townships, and he may be either an amateur or a professional player. Prize to winning club, $20.00.

On Thursday, at 10 a. m., a ball game between the winning senior club and a club from some other village in Northern Ohio, in all probability from either New London, Seville, or Norwalk. Prize to successful club, $20.00.

On Friday, at 10 a. m., the following athletic entertainment will be given in front of the Grand Stand. The program to be participated in by four teams of not over twelve members each; one from the townships of Wellington, Huntington, Rochester and Penfield, to be chosen by S. K. Warner and C. W. Horr, Jr.; one from the townships of LaGrange, Litchfield, Grafton and Carlisle, to be chosen by S. Hastings and another; one from the townships of Pittsfield, Russia, Camden and Brighton, to be chosen by F. C. Williams and another; and a fourth from the townships of Harrisville, Spencer and Homerville in Medina Co., and Canaan in Wayne Co., to be chosen by Will Clifford of Creston and Al. Nead of Lodi. The members of these four teams must be actual residents of their respective townships, and none of them can be professionals. Four members of each club shall be under 16 years of age, and two of these shall be under 12 years of age. The club scoring the highest number of points in the various contests shall have a sweepstake prize valued at $20.; the second highest number of points received by any club shall entitle it to the second prize valued at $10.

PROGRAM.

Senior Rope Pull—Four contestants from each club, aggregate weight not to exceed 700 lbs.; 1st. prize valued at $12., 2d. prize valued at $6.; winners of 1st. prize 20 points, second 10 points.

Junior Rope Pull—Four contestants from each club; aggregate weight not to exceed 420 lbs.; not more than one contestant in each club to be over 16 years of age, and he not to participate in Senior Rope Pull; 1st prize valued at $8.00, 2nd prize at $4.00; winners of 1st. prize 12 points, second 6 points.

Senior 100 yds. Foot Race—Open to two representatives from each club of any age; 1st. prize valued at $6.00., 2d. at $3.00; winner 8 points. second best 4 points.

Junior 100 yds. Foot Race—Open to two boys from each club under 16 years of age; 1st. prize valued at $4.00, 2d. prize at $2.00; winner 6 points, second best 3 points.

Juvenile 100 yds. Foot Race—Open to two boys from each team under 12 years of age; 1st. prize valued at $3.00, 2d. prize at $2.00; winner 6 points, second 3 points.

Handicap 100 yds. Race—Open to winners in three foregoing races; positions to be fixed by time made in previous races; winners of second money in three above races to be placed three ft. ahead of winners of first money; 1st prize valued at $6.00, 2d at $3.00; points 6 and 3.

Note—All races to be from pistol start; and professional sprinters to be debarred from all races.

Standing Jump—Open to two members from each club; 1st prize valued at $4,00, 2d prize at $2.00; winner 6 2d 3 points.

Broad Running Jump—Open to two members from each club; 1st prize valued at $4.00, 2d prize at $2.00; winner 6 points, second best 3 points.

Pulling Sticks—Two contestants from each club; 1st prize valued at $4.00, 2d prize at $2.00; points 8 and 4 respectively. Contestants will be required to pull with their feet braced against a board 6 in. high firmly staked in the ground, and no "monkeying" will be allowed.

Sweepstake Rope Pull—Winners of Senior Rope Pull and winners of second prize in Junior Rope Pull on one side, and winners of Junior Rope Pull and winners of second prize in Senior Rope Pull on the other side. This contest not to count any points for sweepstake prize. First prize valued at $8.00; no second prize.

The object of offering prizes instead of money to victors in the athletic contests is to prevent the contestants from being debarred from future amateur contests, as under the rules of the National Amateur Athletic Association of America anyone who contests for a money prize becomes a professional athlete.

For further information address C. W. Horr, Supt. of Athletic Sports.

Washington Letter.

[From our Regular Correspondent.]

WASHINGTON, June 14, 1889.

The President has positively and finally refused to take any part in the factional quarrel of the republican party of Virginia. He has been visited this week by strong delegations from both sides as well as by a number of prominent individuals. To all he has given the same answer; "As President of the United States, I do not feel authorized to interfere in political quarrels in any State. Wherever there is a divided party my only feeling is indifference tinged with disgust, and I must decline to accept any responsibility for the sufferings caused by lack of harmony." The President is generally commended for the position he has taken in this matter, although of course the Virginia people think it wrong. The President has also denounced as false the report that he has instructed Assistant Postmaster Clarkson to appoint no Virginia postmaster without the endorsement of Gen. Mahone.

Secretary Rusk says he is very doubtful of his being able to accept any of the many recent invitations to Agricultural fairs which he has received, owing to the fact that he is devoting every moment of his spare time to the perfection of a plan of reorganization of the Department of Agriculture which he hopes to submit to the President with his annual report this fall. He will, however, endeavor to have the department represented at most of the largest exhibitions.

Among the Presidential appointments this week were the following: Archie E. Baxter to be U. S. Marshal of the northern district of New York; Charles H. Colburn to be coiner, E. B. Zabrikie to be melter and refiner at the U. S. mint at Carson, Nevada; Thomas J. Morgan, of R. I. to be Commissioner of Indian affairs; H. Sherman, Jr., to be receiver of public moneys at Salt Lake, Utah; Frank O. Hobbs of N. H. to be register of the land office at Salt Lake, Utah; Edward C. Gathy to be register of the land office at Pine City, Minn.; W. C. Wills to be register of the land office at Huntsville, Ala.; E. L. Chapman to be receiver of public moneys at Larned, Kansas; and Charles D. Ford to be register of the land office at Lamar, Colorado.

Secretary Tracy has received a cablegram in cypher from Commander Kellogg who was sent to Hayti to report upon the condition of affairs there. What it contained is not known, but it created more or less commotion at both the Navy and State departments, and it is known that one war vessel has been ordered to go there at once, and that others will be sent.
