Washington Letter.
[From our Regular Correspondent.]
WASHINGTON, Aug. 9, 1889.
Secretary Noble is just now holding the fort all alone, he being the only member of the Cabinet in the city. The rest of them are scattered around about as follows: Secretaries Blaine and Tracy are with the President at Bar Harbor; Secretary Windom is in Boston looking after some complicated custom matters; Secretary Proctor is at his Vermont home; Secretary Rusk is in New York city endeavoring to make arrangements with the railroad managers that will facilitate the Government inspection of all shipments of live cattle; Postmaster General Wanamaker is at his country residence in Pennsylvania, and Attorney General Miller is in Indianapolis, where he will meet the President on the 23d inst. and return with him to Washington after the laying of the corner-stone of the soldiers' monument in that city.

All payments of bills against the Government for work done by the telegraph companies have been suspended until some agreement shall be reached as to the price to be paid. Mr. Wapamaker still sticks to the first opinion that one will not see enough, while the telegraph companies insist that they lose money at the present rate of one cent per word.

A very interesting story has been floating around Washington for a day or two, which belongs to the "important if true" class. It states, on seemingly good authority, that the President has decided to appoint Secretary Noble to the vacancy on the bench of the Supreme Court, and that the vacancy in the Cabinet will be filled by either making Assistant Postmaster Clarkson Secretary of the Interior or by transferring Mr.
Wanamaker to that position and making Mr. Clarkson Postmaster General. Secretary Noble says he heard this news first from a newspaper man. That gives it a very bad black eye to start with. The President, like all other sensible public men, is very friendly to newspaper men, but he is hardly friendly enough towards them to have told one of them of such an important appointment before informing the man appointed. So much for the first part of the story. As neither Mr. Wanamaker nor Mr. Clarkson are lawyers, it is certain that neither of them will ever be made Secretary of the Interior by President Harrison, for he long ago put himself on record as believing that only a lawyer should be at the head of that department.
That disposes of the last part of the yarn.

Secretary Noble on Wednesday received the following telegram from ex-Gov. Foster, chairman of the commission which has been negotiating for the purchase of a portion of the great Sioux Indian reservation in Southern Dakota: "We have won the fight. We leave to-morrow for Chicago. Will write you fully from Chicago." The dispatch was forwarded to the President at Bar Harbor. Ex-Gov. Foster's colleagues on the commission are Maj. Gen.
Crook, U. S. A., and Hon. William Warner, of Missouri. When the agreement just arranged by this commission is approved by Congress, which it is certain to be, about 11,000,000 acres of land will be open to settlement. The Government is to pay the Indians $1.25 per acre for all lands sold to homestead settlers for the first three years after the act goes into effect, 25 cents per acre for all disposed of in the next two years following and 50 cents per acre for what remains undis-posed of at the end of that time.

A Good Appetite.
Is essential to good health; but at this season it is often lost, owing to the poverty or impurity of the blood, derangement of the digestive organs, and the weakening effect of the changing season.
Hood's Sarsaparilla is a wonderful medicine for creating an appetite, toning the digestion, and giving strength to the whole system. Now is the time to take it. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla.

CONSUMPTION SURELY CURED.
TO THE EDITOR.—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured.
I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their express and post office address. Respectfully, T. A. SLOCUM, M. C. 1217 1/2 St., New York.

News From the County Seat.

able relief; injunction allowed.

Tippecanoe Stone Company. Money and attachment.

The above is the amount of new business in the common pleas court since the 23d of July. Unless court business accumulates much faster, the October term will be much shorter than the April term.

DISTRICTS FOR REAL ESTATE ASSESSMENT.
Notice is hereby given that the Board of County Commissioners at their June session A. D. 1889, divided the county of Lorain into twenty-one assessment districts as provided by law. Said districts

The law requires that the qualified electors of such district shall, at the November election, A. D. 1889, elect some citizen of such district, having the qualifications of an elector, as assessor of the real property within each of said districts respectively that the Judges of Elections shall keep a separate poll book for the elections of said assessors and certify the returns thereof to the County Auditor.

By Order of the Commissioners,
O. HERRICK, Auditor.
Elyria, O., Aug. 6, '89.

THE FAIR.
The work of decorating Floral Hall for the coming fair will be done by the ladies of Hamlin Relief Corps and, as already stated in these columns, will be conducted upon the plan of a loan exhibition. All are cordially invited to contribute to the interest of this work by the loan of such articles as will make the hall attractive and pleasing to the public. Articles, ancient and modern, are earnestly solicited —needle work, knitting and crochets, quilts, spreads, afghans, table scarfs, stand covers, sofa pillows, tidies, mats cushions and other fancy work, all kinds of bric-a-brac, pottery, paintings, pieces of silver, china and glass, vases, shells, stones, etc.
etc. The work of arranging articles solicited will be in the hands of a committee of competent ladies, and no pains will be spared by them to render everything satisfactory to every one concerned. Glass cases will be provided for the reception of such articles as would be injured by dust or breakage, and nothing will be allowed to be handled or otherwise injured. If any one desiring to assist in this work and being unable to attend to it will communicate the fact to the chairman or secretary some member of the committee will call and take charge of the article named.
Each article loaned will be classed and numbered, and entered with the name of the owner upon the books of the secretary, and at the close of the fair will be returned to its owner with many thanks. For further information enquire of Mrs. L. Willard, Sec. of Com.

I haven't the courage to die, sir.
Hardly the courage to live.
Can't drink enough to forget, sir.
Ain't Christian enough to forgive.
This was the wall of a man who had endured the tortures of "liver complaint" and dyspepsia for years; and he might have endured them for life had he not heard that Dr. Peirce's Golden Medical Discovery would make him a well man.
He gave it a trial and was cured. Once he was hollow-eyed, emaciated and slowly tottering toward the tomb; but now he is vigorous, robust and healthy. There is nothing that can compare with the "Discovery" as a curative agent for sour stomach, constipation, impure blood and biliousness.

The worst cases of chronic Nasal Catarrh positively and permanently cured by Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.
