Sec. 52. That previous to the first day of November in each year, the treasurers of the several counties shall attend one day, at the place of holding the election, in each township of their respective counties, for the purpose of receiving taxes.

COUNTY BOARDS FOR THE EQUALIZATION OF REAL PROPERTY.

Sec. 53. The county auditor, the county surveyor, the county commissioners, and the district assessors, or a majority of them, shall form a county board for the equalization of the real property of their county, with the exception of the real property in the city of Cincinnati, which shall be equalized by a special board, as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 54. There shall be a special board for the equalization of the real property in the city of Cincinnati, to be composed of the county auditor, and six citizens of said city, to be appointed by the city council; said board shall meet at the auditor's office in Cincinnati, on the fourth Monday of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and every sixth year thereafter, and shall have power to equalize the value of the real property within the city of Cincinnati, and shall be governed by the same rules, provisions, and limitations, that are prescribed in the preceding section for the government of the county boards for the equalization of real property.

Sec. 47. Each county auditor shall, from time to time, correct any errors which he may discover in the name of the owner, in the valuation, description or quantity of any tract or lot contained in the list of real property in his county; but in no case shall he make any deduction from the valuation of any tract or lot of real property, except such as shall have been ordered, either by the state board or by the county board of equalization, in conformity with the provisions of this act, or upon the written order of the auditor of state; which written order shall only be made upon a statement of facts submitted to the auditor of state in writing.

Sec. 55. Each county auditor shall, on or before the first day of December, annually, a statement of the aggregate value of the taxable property in his county, and of the total amount of taxes for that year; and he shall make out and transmit by mail, to the auditor of state, on or before the first day of October in every year, a complete abstract of the duplicate of his county; he shall also, at the same time, make out and transmit to the auditor of state, an abstract of the number and value of each of the enumerated articles, the value of merchants' and manufacturers' stock, and the value of all other personal property, as returned by the township assessors, or as fixed by the board of equalization; said abstracts shall be made out in such form as the auditor of state shall prescribe; and shall also make out and transmit to the auditor of state, before the fourth Monday of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and every sixth year thereafter, a complete copy of the grand list of real property of each county, as it shall stand upon the duplicate of that year.

Sec. 48. Each county auditor shall correct the valuation of any parcel of real property, on which any new structure of over one hundred dollars in value may have been erected, or on which any structure of the like value shall have been destroyed, agreeably to the return thereof made in accordance with the provisions of this act by the assessor, and assess the taxes upon such corrected valuation.

Sec. 56. The state board of equalization shall consist of one member from each senatorial district of this state, except the first district, which shall be entitled to three members, all of whom shall have the qualifications of electors; and the qualified electors of each senatorial district, shall, at the October election, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and every sixth year thereafter, elect persons to serve as members of such board of equalization, in accordance with the provisions of this section; and the returns of the poll books and certificates of election shall be governed by the law regulating the election of senators; and in case of vacancy in such office, either by death, resignation, or otherwise, the governor of the state shall have power to appoint a person, who shall be a resident elector of the district so vacated, to fill such vacancy, as soon as he shall be informed thereof; the auditor of state shall, by virtue of his office, be a member of this board.

Sec. 49. County auditors shall not publish in the list of delinquent or forfeited lands, any tract or lot upon which the taxes due shall not be more than double the cost of publishing such tract or lot, but such tract or lot shall be retained upon the duplicate until the taxes due thereon shall be more than double the cost of publishing the same in the list of delinquent or forfeited lands.

Sec. 57. The said board shall meet at Columbus on the first Monday of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and every sixth year thereafter, and the members thereof shall each take an oath or affirmation, that he will to the best of his knowledge and ability, so far as the duty devolves on him, equalize the valuation of real property among the several counties and townships in the state, according to the rules prescribed by this act for valuing and equalizing the value of real property; and having received from the auditor of state the abstracts of real property transmitted to him by the several county auditors, said board shall proceed to equalize the same among the several townships and counties of the state, in the manner hereinafter prescribed:

Sec. 50. Each county auditor shall make out and transmit to the auditor of state, before the first day of September, annually, a statement of the aggregate value of the taxable property in his county, and of the total amount of taxes for that year; and he shall make out and transmit by mail, to the auditor of state, on or before the first day of October in every year, a complete abstract of the duplicate of his county; he shall also, at the same time, make out and transmit to the auditor of state, an abstract of the number and value of each of the enumerated articles, the value of merchants' and manufacturers' stock, and the value of all other personal property, as returned by the township assessors, or as fixed by the board of equalization; said abstracts shall be made out in such form as the auditor of state shall prescribe; and shall also make out and transmit to the auditor of state, before the fourth Monday of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and every sixth year thereafter, a complete copy of the grand list of real property of each county, as it shall stand upon the duplicate of that year.

Sec. 60. There shall be an annual county board for the equalization of the real and personal property, and moneys and credits, in each county, exclusive of the city of Cincinnati, to be composed of the county commissioners and county auditor, who shall meet for that purpose at the auditor's office, in each county, on the second Wednesday of May, annually. Said board shall have the power to hear complaints, and to equalize the valuation of all real and personal property, moneys and credits within the county, and shall be governed by the rules prescribed in the fifty-third section of this act, for the government of county boards for the equalization of real property; Provided, that said board shall not reduce the value of the real property of the county, below the aggregate value thereof, as fixed by the State board of equalization, nor below its aggregate value on the duplicate of the preceding year; to which shall be added the value of all new entries and new structures, over the value of those destroyed, as returned by the several township assessors for the current year.

Sec. 51. If the county treasurer shall be unable to collect, by distress, or otherwise, the taxes which have been, or hereafter shall be assessed upon any person or corporation, or on any executor, administrator, guardian, receiver, accounting officer, agent or factor, such treasurer shall apply to the clerk of the court of common pleas in his county, at any time after his annual settlement with the county auditor, and said clerk shall cause a notice to be served upon such person, corporation, executor, administrator, guardian, receiver, accounting officer, agent or factor, requiring him forthwith to show cause why he should not pay such taxes; and if he shall fail to show a sufficient cause said court, at the term to which said notice is returnable, shall enter a rule against him for the payment of such taxes, and the cost of such proceeding, which rule shall have the same force and effect as a judgment at law, and be enforced by attachment or execution, or such process as may be directed by the court.

Sec. 61. There shall be a special board for the equalization of the real and personal property, moneys and credits, in the city of Cincinnati, to be composed of the county auditor, and six citizens of said city, to be appointed by the city council; said board shall meet annually, at the auditor's office in Cincinnati, on the second Monday of May, and shall have power to equalize the value of the real and personal property, moneys and credits, within the city of Cincinnati, and shall be governed by the same rules, provisions and limitations, that are prescribed for the government of the county boards, for the equalization of real and personal property, moneys and credits; Provided, that said board shall not be authorized to extend its session beyond the first Monday in June, in each year.

Sec. 52. That previous to the first day of November in each year, the treasurers of the several counties shall attend one day, at the place of holding the election, in each township of their respective counties, for the purpose of receiving taxes.

Sec. 62. There shall be an annual county board for the equalization of the real and personal property, and moneys and credits, in each county, exclusive of the city of Cincinnati, to be composed of the county commissioners and county auditor, who shall meet for that purpose at the auditor's office, in each county, on the second Wednesday of May, annually. Said board shall have the power to hear complaints, and to equalize the valuation of all real and personal property, moneys and credits within the county, and shall be governed by the rules prescribed in the fifty-third section of this act, for the government of county boards for the equalization of real property; Provided, that said board shall not reduce the value of the real property of the county, below the aggregate value thereof, as fixed by the State board of equalization, nor below its aggregate value on the duplicate of the preceding year; to which shall be added the value of all new entries and new structures, over the value of those destroyed, as returned by the several township assessors for the current year.

Sec. 53. The county auditor, the county surveyor, the county commissioners, and the district assessors, or a majority of them, shall form a county board for the equalization of the real property of their county, with the exception of the real property in the city of Cincinnati, which shall be equalized by a special board, as hereinafter provided. They shall meet on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and every sixth year thereafter, at the auditor's office, in their several counties, when the county auditor shall lay before them the returns of the real property, made by the several district assessors of such county, with the additions he shall have made thereto, and having each taken an oath fairly and impartially to equalize the value of the real estate of such county, agreeably to the provisions of this act, they shall immediately proceed to equalize such valuation, so that each tract or lot shall be entered on the tax list at its true value; and for this purpose they shall observe the following rules: 1st. They shall raise the valuation of such tracts and lots of real property, as, in their opinion, have been returned below their true value, to such price or sum as they may believe to be the true value thereof, agreeably to the rules prescribed by this act, for the valuation thereof.

Sec. 63. There shall be an annual county board for the equalization of the real and personal property, and moneys and credits, in each county, exclusive of the city of Cincinnati, to be composed of the county commissioners and county auditor, who shall meet for that purpose at the auditor's office, in each county, on the second Wednesday of May, annually. Said board shall have the power to hear complaints, and to equalize the valuation of all real and personal property, moneys and credits within the county, and shall be governed by the rules prescribed in the fifty-third section of this act, for the government of county boards for the equalization of real property; Provided, that said board shall not reduce the value of the real property of the county, below the aggregate value thereof, as fixed by the State board of equalization, nor below its aggregate value on the duplicate of the preceding year; to which shall be added the value of all new entries and new structures, over the value of those destroyed, as returned by the several township assessors for the current year.

Sec. 64. There shall be an annual county board for the equalization of the real and personal property, and moneys and credits, in each county, exclusive of the city of Cincinnati, to be composed of the county commissioners and county auditor, who shall meet for that purpose at the auditor's office, in each county, on the second Wednesday of May, annually. Said board shall have the power to hear complaints, and to equalize the valuation of all real and personal property, moneys and credits within the county, and shall be governed by the rules prescribed in the fifty-third section of this act, for the government of county boards for the equalization of real property; Provided, that said board shall not reduce the value of the real property of the county, below the aggregate value thereof, as fixed by the State board of equalization, nor below its aggregate value on the duplicate of the preceding year; to which shall be added the value of all new entries and new structures, over the value of those destroyed, as returned by the several township assessors for the current year.

Sec. 65. There shall be an annual county board for the equalization of the real and personal property, and moneys and credits, in each county, exclusive of the city of Cincinnati, to be composed of the county commissioners and county auditor, who shall meet for that purpose at the auditor's office, in each county, on the second Wednesday of May, annually. Said board shall have the power to hear complaints, and to equalize the valuation of all real and personal property, moneys and credits within the county, and shall be governed by the rules prescribed in the fifty-third section of this act, for the government of county boards for the equalization of real property; Provided, that said board shall not reduce the value of the real property of the county, below the aggregate value thereof, as fixed by the State board of equalization, nor below its aggregate value on the duplicate of the preceding year; to which shall be added the value of all new entries and new structures, over the value of those destroyed, as returned by the several township assessors for the current year.

Sec. 66. There shall be an annual county board for the equalization of the real and personal property, and moneys and credits, in each county, exclusive of the city of Cincinnati, to be composed of the county commissioners and county auditor, who shall meet for that purpose at the auditor's office, in each county, on the second Wednesday of May, annually. Said board shall have the power to hear complaints, and to equalize the valuation of all real and personal property, moneys and credits within the county, and shall be governed by the rules prescribed in the fifty-third section of this act, for the government of county boards for the equalization of real property; Provided, that said board shall not reduce the value of the real property of the county, below the aggregate value thereof, as fixed by the State board of equalization, nor below its aggregate value on the duplicate of the preceding year; to which shall be added the value of all new entries and new structures, over the value of those destroyed, as returned by the several township assessors for the current year.

Sec. 67. There shall be an annual county board for the equalization of the real and personal property, and moneys and credits, in each county, exclusive of the city of Cincinnati, to be composed of the county commissioners and county auditor, who shall meet for that purpose at the auditor's office, in each county, on the second Wednesday of May, annually. Said board shall have the power to hear complaints, and to equalize the valuation of all real and personal property, moneys and credits within the county, and shall be governed by the rules prescribed in the fifty-third section of this act, for the government of county boards for the equalization of real property; Provided, that said board shall not reduce the value of the real property of the county, below the aggregate value thereof, as fixed by the State board of equalization, nor below its aggregate value on the duplicate of the preceding year; to which shall be added the value of all new entries and new structures, over the value of those destroyed, as returned by the several township assessors for the current year.

Sec. 68. There shall be an annual county board for the equalization of the real and personal property, and moneys and credits, in each county, exclusive of the city of Cincinnati, to be composed of the county commissioners and county auditor, who shall meet for that purpose at the auditor's office, in each county, on the second Wednesday of May, annually. Said board shall have the power to hear complaints, and to equalize the valuation of all real and personal property, moneys and credits within the county, and shall be governed by the rules prescribed in the fifty-third section of this act, for the government of county boards for the equalization of real property; Provided, that said board shall not reduce the value of the real property of the county, below the aggregate value thereof, as fixed by the State board of equalization, nor below its aggregate value on the duplicate of the preceding year; to which shall be added the value of all new entries and new structures, over the value of those destroyed, as returned by the several township assessors for the current year.

Sec. 69. There shall be an annual county board for the equalization of the real and personal property, and moneys and credits, in each county, exclusive of the city of Cincinnati, to be composed of the county commissioners and county auditor, who shall meet for that purpose at the auditor's office, in each county, on the second Wednesday of May, annually. Said board shall have the power to hear complaints, and to equalize the valuation of all real and personal property, moneys and credits within the county, and shall be governed by the rules prescribed in the fifty-third section of this act, for the government of county boards for the equalization of real property; Provided, that said board shall not reduce the value of the real property of the county, below the aggregate value thereof, as fixed by the State board of equalization, nor below its aggregate value on the duplicate of the preceding year; to which shall be added the value of all new entries and new structures, over the value of those destroyed, as returned by the several township assessors for the current year.

Sec. 70. There shall be an annual county board for the equalization of the real and personal property, and moneys and credits, in each county, exclusive of the city of Cincinnati, to be composed of the county commissioners and county auditor, who shall meet for that purpose at the auditor's office, in each county, on the second Wednesday of May, annually. Said board shall have the power to hear complaints, and to equalize the valuation of all real and personal property, moneys and credits within the county, and shall be governed by the rules prescribed in the fifty-third section of this act, for the government of county boards for the equalization of real property; Provided, that said board shall not reduce the value of the real property of the county, below the aggregate value thereof, as fixed by the State board of equalization, nor below its aggregate value on the duplicate of the preceding year; to which shall be added the value of all new entries and new structures, over the value of those destroyed, as returned by the several township assessors for the current year.

1st. They shall add to the aggregate valuation of the real property of every county which they shall believe to be valued below its true value in money, such per centum, in each case, as will raise the same to its true value in money.

2d. They shall deduct from the aggregate valuation of the real property of every county, which they shall believe to be valued above its true value in money, such per centum, in each case, as will reduce the same to its true value in money.

3d. If they shall believe that right and justice require the valuation of the real property of any town or townships in such county, or of the real property of such county not in towns, to be raised or to be reduced, without raising or reducing the other real property of such county, or without raising or reducing it in the same ratio, they may, in every such case, add to, or take from the valuation of any one or more of such towns, or of property not in towns, such per centum as they shall believe will raise or reduce the same to its true value in money.

4th. They shall not reduce the aggregate value of all the real property of the State, as returned by the county auditor, more than ten millions of dollars.

5th. Said board shall keep a full record of their proceedings and orders.

DUTIES OF STATE AUDITOR.

Sec. 53. When the State board of equalization shall have completed their equalization of real property among the several counties, the auditor of state shall transmit to each county auditor, a statement of the per centum to be added to, or deducted from the valuation of the real property of his county, specifying the per centum added to, or deducted from the valuation of the real property of each of the several towns, and of the real property not in towns, in case an equal per centum shall not have been added to or deducted from each; and the county auditor shall forthwith proceed to add to or deduct from each tract or lot of real property in his county, the required per centum on the valuation thereof, as it stands, after the same shall have been equalized by the county board of equalization; adding, more over, or deducting, in each case, any fractional sum of less than fifty cents, so that the value of any separate tract or lot, shall contain no fraction of a dollar.

Sec. 54. The auditor of state shall, on or before the fifteenth day of July, annually, give notice to each county auditor of the rates per centum required by the general assembly, to be levied for the payment of the principal and interest of the public debt, for the support of common schools, for defraying the expenses of the state, and for such other purposes as shall be prescribed by law; which rates or per centum shall be levied by the county auditor on the taxable property of each county on the duplicate, and shall be entered in one column, and denominated state taxes.

Sec. 55. There shall be a special board for the equalization of the real property in the city of Cincinnati, to be composed of the county auditor, and six citizens of said city, to be appointed by the city council; said board shall meet at the auditor's office in Cincinnati, on the fourth Monday of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and every sixth year thereafter, and shall have power to equalize the value of the real property within the city of Cincinnati, and shall be governed by the same rules, provisions, and limitations, that are prescribed in the preceding section for the government of the county boards for the equalization of real property.

Sec. 56. The state board of equalization shall consist of one member from each senatorial district of this state, except the first district, which shall be entitled to three members, all of whom shall have the qualifications of electors; and the qualified electors of each senatorial district, shall, at the October election, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and every sixth year thereafter, elect persons to serve as members of such board of equalization, in accordance with the provisions of this section; and the returns of the poll books and certificates of election shall be governed by the law regulating the election of senators; and in case of vacancy in such office, either by death, resignation, or otherwise, the governor of the state shall have power to appoint a person, who shall be a resident elector of the district so vacated, to fill such vacancy, as soon as he shall be informed thereof; the auditor of state shall, by virtue of his office, be a member of this board.

Sec. 57. The said board shall meet at Columbus on the first Monday of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and every sixth year thereafter, and the members thereof shall each take an oath or affirmation, that he will to the best of his knowledge and ability, so far as the duty devolves on him, equalize the valuation of real property among the several counties and townships in the state, according to the rules prescribed by this act for valuing and equalizing the value of real property; and having received from the auditor of state the abstracts of real property transmitted to him by the several county auditors, said board shall proceed to equalize the same among the several townships and counties of the state, in the manner hereinafter prescribed:

1st. They shall raise the valuation of such tracts and lots of real property, as, in their opinion, have been returned below their true value, to such price or sum as they may believe to be the true value thereof, agreeably to the rules prescribed by this act, for the valuation thereof.

2d. They shall reduce the valuation of such tracts and lots, as, in their opinion, have been returned above their true value, to such price or sum as they may believe to be the true value thereof, agreeably to the rules prescribed by this act, for the valuation thereof.

3d. If they shall believe that right and justice require the valuation of the real property of any town or townships in such county, or of the real property of such county not in towns, to be raised or to be reduced, without raising or reducing the other real property of such county, or without raising or reducing it in the same ratio, they may, in every such case, add to, or take from the valuation of any one or more of such towns, or of property not in towns, such per centum as they shall believe will raise or reduce the same to its true value in money.

4th. They shall not reduce the aggregate value of all the real property of the State, as returned by the county auditor, more than ten millions of dollars.

5th. Said board shall keep a full record of their proceedings and orders.

DUTIES OF STATE AUDITOR.

Sec. 53. When the State board of equalization shall have completed their equalization of real property among the several counties, the auditor of state shall transmit to each county auditor, a statement of the per centum to be added to, or deducted from the valuation of the real property of his county, specifying the per centum added to, or deducted from the valuation of the real property of each of the several towns, and of the real property not in towns, in case an equal per centum shall not have been added to or deducted from each; and the county auditor shall forthwith proceed to add to or deduct from each tract or lot of real property in his county, the required per centum on the valuation thereof, as it stands, after the same shall have been equalized by the county board of equalization; adding, more over, or deducting, in each case, any fractional sum of less than fifty cents, so that the value of any separate tract or lot, shall contain no fraction of a dollar.

Sec. 54. The auditor of state shall, on or before the fifteenth day of July, annually, give notice to each county auditor of the rates per centum required by the general assembly, to be levied for the payment of the principal and interest of the public debt, for the support of common schools, for defraying the expenses of the state, and for such other purposes as shall be prescribed by law; which rates or per centum shall be levied by the county auditor on the taxable property of each county on the duplicate, and shall be entered in one column, and denominated state taxes.

Sec. 55. There shall be a special board for the equalization of the real property in the city of Cincinnati, to be composed of the county auditor, and six citizens of said city, to be appointed by the city council; said board shall meet at the auditor's office in Cincinnati, on the fourth Monday of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and every sixth year thereafter, and shall have power to equalize the value of the real property within the city of Cincinnati, and shall be governed by the same rules, provisions, and limitations, that are prescribed in the preceding section for the government of the county boards for the equalization of real property.

Sec. 56. The state board of equalization shall consist of one member from each senatorial district of this state, except the first district, which shall be entitled to three members, all of whom shall have the qualifications of electors; and the qualified electors of each senatorial district, shall, at the October election, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and every sixth year thereafter, elect persons to serve as members of such board of equalization, in accordance with the provisions of this section; and the returns of the poll books and certificates of election shall be governed by the law regulating the election of senators; and in case of vacancy in such office, either by death, resignation, or otherwise, the governor of the state shall have power to appoint a person, who shall be a resident elector of the district so vacated, to fill such vacancy, as soon as he shall be informed thereof; the auditor of state shall, by virtue of his office, be a member of this board.

Sec. 57. The said board shall meet at Columbus on the first Monday of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and every sixth year thereafter, and the members thereof shall each take an oath or affirmation, that he will to the best of his knowledge and ability, so far as the duty devolves on him, equalize the valuation of real property among the several counties and townships in the state, according to the rules prescribed by this act for valuing and equalizing the value of real property; and having received from the auditor of state the abstracts of real property transmitted to him by the several county auditors, said board shall proceed to equalize the same among the several townships and counties of the state, in the manner hereinafter prescribed:

1st. They shall raise the valuation of such tracts and lots of real property, as, in their opinion, have been returned below their true value, to such price or sum as they may believe to be the true value thereof, agreeably to the rules prescribed by this act, for the valuation thereof.

2d. They shall reduce the valuation of such tracts and lots, as, in their opinion, have been returned above their true value, to such price or sum as they may believe to be the true value thereof, agreeably to the rules prescribed by this act, for the valuation thereof.

WEIGH AND CONSIDER! DR. HALL'S BALSAM is no Paragoric Preparation, but a Medicine which MAKES CURES at Home, where the parties can be found.

READER! have you a Cough, which you are neglecting under the idea that it is only a common cold, and that it will disappear of itself? Let a friend tell you, in all kindness, what will soon be the probable result.

In a short time, if you continue to neglect yourself, you will begin to feel a sense of tightness and oppression across the chest, accompanied with frequent sharp cutting pains. Then a dry, hacking cough will set in, and when you raise anything it will be a thick and yellowish or white frothy matter, streaked, perhaps, with green. If you still take no medicine, these unpleasant symptoms will increase, and you will soon have hectic fever, cold chills, night sweats, copious expectoration, and then great prostration. If you still neglect yourself, a few weeks or months will see you consigned to the grave, leaving your friends to mourn how rapidly consumption did its work, and hurried you away. Friend! have you no cause to be alarmed? In the above sketch you may see as in a glass, how every case of Consumption progresses with more or less rapidity, to a fatal termination. Of all the thousands and millions whom this great Destroyer has gathered to the tomb every single case began with a cold. If this had been attended to, all might have been well; but, being neglected, under the fatal delusion that it would "wear itself out," it transferred its deadly to the substance of the lungs, exciting there the formation of tubercles. Another, and another cold added to the former, and the tubercles began to soften and suppurate, leaving by their ulceration, great cavities in the lungs. At this crisis, the disease is very difficult of cure, and oftentimes sets at defiance all human means.

At this stage of the disease, this medicine will oftentimes arrest the disease, or check its progress, and will always make the patient more comfortable, and prolong his life, and it is therefore worthy of a trial; but in its incipient or forming periods, Consumption is as curable as any other disease, and DR. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, if taken at this time, will cure it (AS SURELY AS IT IS TAKEN). This is strong language, but we can refer you to numerous living witnesses to prove that it is true! And therefore, we earnestly exhort every man, woman and child, who has a cough, or is subject to colds, to keep the medicine by him in the house, and whenever you take cold, do not "let it alone," to work mischief in your system, but eradicate it thoroughly, and at once, by this powerfully healing compound, and leave your lungs unincumbered, to carry you in full vigor to a good old age!

Read the testimony of R. MULBORN, Esq., one of the oldest Magistrates in this city: Cincinnati, Dec. 1st, 1851.

Messrs. O. R. BAKER & Co.—Dear Sirs: Those afflicted with diseases of the lungs, will find Dr. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs a most valuable agent. I have been frequently attacked with DISEASES OF THE LUNGS for the last five years, and Dr. Hall's Balsam has always BROKE UP THE DISEASE AT ONCE. I feel that the public should know the merits of such a valuable medicine. RICHARD MULBORN, Residence on Plum, three doors above 5th st.

More Cincinnati Cures! Messrs. O. R. BAKER & Co.—Dear Sirs: I have always had a strong tendency to cough in any way attached to a patent medicine. But when I think (as I now have every reason to believe) it has saved my life, I am induced by a sense of duty to those afflicted as I have been, to give you notice of it. I have used Dr. Hall's Balsam as a medicine that can be fully relied on. About a year since I was attacked with Lung Fever, which left my lungs much diseased; my cough was distressing, attended with pain in my left side. I had used Dr. Hall's Balsam of Wild Cherry put up in the paper, and I concluded to try it. I used bottle after bottle, which in time and in its operations resembled Paragoric, soothing temporarily. My cough always being, I had recourse to you, and I had cold Night Sweats, hectic Fevers, Swelling of the Limbs, &c., showing confirmed Consumption! The remedies I obtained from my Physicians also failed giving me permanent relief or better. My lungs now Ulcerated, and I received large quantities of Matter from them. The Doctor told my friends that I must die! My brother then got a bottle of Dr. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, and I commenced taking it. I used it for a few days, and my cough, taking more, I found it went to the spot—the very seat of my disease. I began to raise with more ease, and could feel, daily, that my Lungs were healing, until, by the use of four bottles, I was restored to better health than I had enjoyed for years. I believe if I had used Dr. Hall's Balsam when I was first attacked, it would have saved me a vast deal of suffering. All I can say to others, is, try it, and I think you will be benefited, if your disease is in your lungs. Yours, respectfully, J. C. WILLARD. Three doors above Fifth street, on Vine.

The public have been imposed upon by remedies, recommended by certificates which have always originated from some unknown source. We believe that a Medicine possessing real merits will effect cures wherever it is used, at home as well as abroad. This is no Paragoric preparation, but one which if used in season will save the lives of thousands; and persons may make this bargain with Agents whom they purchase, that in every case where used, it is used freely according to directions, and entire satisfaction is not given in 24 or 48 hours, they can return the medicine, and their money will be cheerfully refunded. DR. MARCHESI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON. Is a preparation of earnest importance to the public, and destined to become identified with the health and happiness of FEMALES.

Many Prominent Physicians in the city of New York and other places, finding themselves without a remedy in ineluctable cases of the above complaints, and having due regard for the welfare of their patients, have recommended the use of this medicine; and after witnessing its salutary effects, are now manifesting their approbation, not only by resorting to it in their treatment of all the diseases or which it is indicated, but in some instances accepting the agency of it to facilitate its introduction into more general use by the Faculty.

Additional proof of this Catholicon being worthy of the confidence of the afflicted, as a Successful, safe and cheap remedy, will be found in the pamphlet, together with important observations touching the nature and symptoms of the diseases, to which the attention of Ladies and Practitioners is respectfully invited.

The ingredients, as certified by high medical authority, (see pamphlet), are all Vegetable, and are not associated with any article unfriendly to the animal economy. Pamphlets can be had gratis at my Drug Store.

McAlister's All-Healing Ointment. The action which this Ointment has upon the human cuticle demonstrates its grand efficacy and healing power. It is the first and only discovery of any kind in the world.

EXTERNAL PREPARATION THAT USES POWER TO RESTORE "INSURABLE PERFECTION." The skin being the medium through which the blood drives off its impurities, is often locked up by cold, whence occur RHEUMATISM, CROUP, Coughs, Colds, Headache, Fevers, and a thousand other complaints. Unstop the pores, and permit the humors to pass out, and all these diseases vanish at once. This McAlister's All-Healing Ointment effects. For instance, in sick and nervous headache, this Ointment is a sovereign remedy.

It has cured cases of five, seven and ten years standing, some of fifteen and twenty years, and a case of FORTY YEARS standing. It is beyond all peradventure the best remedy for headache in the world.

Ear-ache, deafness and dizziness cured with equal success. Take again the Quinsy Sore Throat. One night's application is frequently sufficient to cure this complaint. But in no case will it fail. We challenge the world on this point.

RHEUMATISM.—In all cases of swelled limbs, contracted cords, pains and violent inflammation, there is no remedy so good, we don't care what it is, or where it comes from. Herein this Ointment is to be found a certain remedy for rheumatism. Let the sufferer look to it.

Asthma, oppression of breathing, &c.—In no class of difficulties does this ointment give greater satisfaction. The heavy load upon the heart and difficult respiration it removes almost in a day. Wonderful, wonderful! is the virtue, the untold power and goodness of the All-Healing Ointment.

In Hemorrhoids or piles, we have been repeatedly told that it was the only article ever made that would cure all cases of piles. And we are ready to believe it.

The Erysipelas and Salt Rheum are overcome without the least difficulty. Liver complaint we have cured of twenty years standing, and we hesitate not to say that it is one of the best remedies known. Persons would be astonished to witness its effect.

Besides all the above diseases, it is a sovereign remedy for all eruptions of the skin, sores, pustules, blotches, &c., rendering the face smooth and forever free from blemish. In all cases of inflammations, swellings, cuts, bruises, and poisonous wounds, it is a noble remedy. And as for burns there is not its equal in the land. To allay pain, and remove the fire and inflammation, there is no compound in existence of such value. Besides it heals the place without leaving the slightest mark behind. Equally valuable it is for old sores, and especially sore eyes, scald head, and diseases of the spine, and of the nerves; also swellings of sore breasts, and female complaints. It is also a sovereign remedy forague in the face, and influenza. It is truly one of the sweetest and most valuable medicines the world ever saw. No man regrets purchasing this Ointment, because he feels he will be benefited and not deceived. Good always comes from its use. Let the people then seek this medicine and abide by it, for it never deceived any body yet, and we believe never will.
