THE LAW OF NEWSPAPERS.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary, are considered as wishing to continue their subscription.

2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals, the publishers may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the offices to which they are directed, they are held responsible till they have settled the bill, and ordered them discontinued.

4. If subscribers remove to other places without informing the publishers, and the periodicals are sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

N. B.—Particular attention paid to custom work, and all orders will be filled with dispatch, by A. M. A.

Opinions of the Press.

CLOTHING.—We would advise all persons wishing Fits of a good material, to call at A. M. Adams' Clothing Store, on Water street. He has a very fine assortment of everything in the clothing line.—Daily Int.

CLOTHING! CLOTHING!! at fair prices can always be had of our friend A. M. Adams, corner of Monroe and Water streets, who from his extensive stock of clothe, cassimeres, &c., is fully prepared to rig you out in the height of fashion.

This gentleman has about $15,000 invested in fabrics of the richest make, and can furnish a man from top to toe save with shoes. Particular attention is solicited to his stock, comprising as it does, coating, vestings, pantaloons, neckerchiefs, drawers, suspenders, patent spring stocks, and a splendid lot of hats and caps. You can not go amiss by calling at his store for any garment intended for the comfort or decoration of your person. As he does a large business he is able to sell cheap, his motto being "quick sales and small profits." This added to the fact that he has his goods made up under his superintendance should be a sufficient inducement for every man disposed to buy, to give him a call. Let all, therefore, who seek their own interest "encourage home industry" by shedding their thread-bare garb for a new one.—Daily Times & Gazette. Oct. 29, 1852.

NOTICE
