THE BELMONT CHRONICLE comes to us with a new and beautifully engraved head. We care not how many new heads the editor gets to the paper if he does not get a new head for the tripod.

here's a handy my trusty fier, And gie a hand o' thine.

Our d—l asked us a day or two since the following: If Bullard's Panorama should be destroyed by fire why would its proprietor be an orphan!

DEAD. CONCORD, N. H. Feb. 5. Rev. John Moore the late Know Nothing nominee for Governor, died suddenly this morning.

CHANDLER OF POPERY.—Hon. Mr. Chandler, of Philadelphia, a few days since, in Congress, attempted a reply to Mr. Banker, of the Popery question and Americanism.

We are no longer in the speech of Mr. Chandler to shake our firm conviction that Popery is a desecrating curse, and its creed antagonistic to human rights and republican institutions.

The most confirmed cases of the most distressing disease, often arise from indigestion. All of us, more or less, are troubled with this annoying symptom.

TO THE POINT.—One of our exchanges, the Crusader, well remarks: "What! have not the United States head and hand enough to procure us excellent wool, silks, and other kind! Do we not see every day articles manufactured in America exposed to public sight, with a label purporting to represent those goods as coming from foreign countries, as if the tradesmen were liars?"

The German liquor sellers of Cincinnati have resolved to disobey both the State and the city laws on the liquor question.

NEBRASKA LEGISLATURE. Chicago, Feb. 5.—The Legislature of Nebraska assembled on the 16th ult., and received the message of Gov. Cummings.

AN UNPLEASANT FIX.—The telegraph announces the following from Chicago on the 29th: "Another fierce storm of wind and snow has occurred. A train on the Chicago and Mississippi Railroad, with a large number of passengers, among whom are several members of the Legislature, is frozen up on the prairie in nearly eight feet of snow.

THE LUMBER TRADE.—The amount of lumber received at Chicago during the year 1854 was 280,000,000 feet—an increase of near 37,000,000 over the previous year.

MARRIAGES. On the 31st ult., by Rev. J. Moffat, Mr. JOHN HENNINGSON and Miss MARY E. OSBORN.
