GOVERNOR COX CALLS ON OHIO TO FULFILL ITS LATEST OBLIGATION; URGES BUYING OF W. S. S.

Executive Department OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

PROCLAMATION

Whereas the United States Government to meet obligations arising from the war; to bring our soldiers and sailors home; to care for our soldiers, sailors, sick and wounded; and to discharge our full duty to the dependents of soldiers.

WHEREAS HERETOFORE, I have heretofore subscribed my name and caused the Great Seal of the State of Ohio to be affixed to the city of Columbus, Ohio, on the twenty-seventh day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and nineteen.

Signature of Governor Cox

COLUMBUS, O.—(Special).—Ohio will respond to the government's call for investment in War Savings Stamps in the period commencing March 17, when a special "Bring 'Em Back" pledge drive will be conducted by the War Savings organizations throughout the state.

More than three-fifths of the people of Ohio last year bought War Savings Stamps. The Ohio War Savings Committee is now impressing on the citizens of this state the continuing importance of the government's demands for funds and the necessity of considering self-interests by purchase of intelligent saving and investment in War Savings Stamps.

lives that we fully appreciate those noble sacrifices of our brave comrades, and extend our sympathies and our charity to the soldier's widow and the dead soldier's friend.

Brave comrades, farewell; may Almighty God bless you; and may a grateful people reward you for your many and daring sacrifices for Country, Liberty and Peace.

WELCOME HOME TO THE 111th OHIO.

By K. M. S. Welcome! welcome! Hark! the greeting From the glad home-voices comes, Words, which echo is repeating, With the triumph-speaking drums.

Welcome! welcome! We remember When you proudly took the field— 'T was the beautiful September, And the war-trumps loudly pealed, Oh! how proud you seemed when passing

To the front, where troops were massing, Loyal from disloyal clashing: Welcome home!

Welcome! welcome! We are thinking Of the wilds of Tennessee, When with Burnside, all unshrinking, You assumed supremacy.

And from then, your name maintaining, Honors new and noble gaining, Well you bought the praise were naming: Welcome home!

Welcome! welcome! Ask of Sherman What of honor you may know? He will answer, "Robes of ermine, Gold and gems, cannot bestow, Half the fame on those who wear them! And in princely power bear them!" Who with honor would compare them? Welcome home!

Welcome! welcome! Months have vanished Since on frowning Rocky Face You all thoughts and feelings banished.

Save to fill the hero's place, Never were you seen retreating, But the haughty foe defeating, While the wildest storms were beating: Welcome home!

Welcome! welcome! Those were battles Which the world is proud to name; Freeing all the human chattels, Filling traitor-hearts with shame, Resaca's destructive charges, Dallas and Lost Mountain's gorges! Kenesaw—the theme enlarges: Welcome home!

Welcome! welcome! Hood surrounded, And the prized Atlanta won, Peans through the North-land sounded For the good work you had done; And your great achievements summing, In our hearts we said: "They're coming, Hark! the song of peace is humming!" Welcome home!

Welcome! welcome! Darkness lowered Fearfully above us all, When brave Thomas seemed o'erpowered, And his strength about to fall; But at Franklin, death defying, While your comrades low were lying, Back you sent the rebels flying: Welcome home!

Welcome! welcome! We shall never Cease to see the Nashville rout, When with gleaming steel you ever Made the rebels "face about"— In fantry in flying column, Cavaliers with faces solemn— Actions that would fill a volume! Welcome home!

Welcome! welcome! Up the river, Over mountains, down the coast, North Carolina to deliver, Went your patriotic host, At Fort Anderson you halted, Over its entrenchments vaulted, Won the works you had assaulted! Welcome home!

Welcome! welcome! We have shined you In the temple of our heart; And within it have entwined you, Fadeless wreaths with subtle art, There are lines in love's own letters, Battles, prison-cells and fetters— To your prowess we are debtors: Welcome home!

Welcome! welcome! God who kept you, All these weary days ago— Though of comrades he bereft you, He but gathered home his own— Ever guide you by his power, Though the angry tempests lower, And illumine the darkest hour! Welcome home!

Welcome! welcome! For the sleeping Heroes in their distant graves, We the silent tears are weeping, While their blood-bought banner waves; But its sacred folds can never Traitors now presume to sever, Clasp we hands there and forever! Welcome home!

NATION IS BEGINNING FINANCIAL RECOVERY

FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD FINDS READJUSTMENT COMING AFTER ABNORMAL WAR CONDITIONS

Washington.—Definite evidences of the beginning of financial recuperation following abnormal war conditions are set forth by the Federal Reserve Board in a review of the February reserve bulletin. These evidences are: Increase of bank balances at financial centers, a tendency toward lower rates for money, lessening of the amount of paper held by Federal Reserve and Member Banks, inflow of gold coin and gold certificates at banks, indicating greater confidence in the financial situation, and lessened demand for money, and decline in the volume of Federal Reserve notes outstanding, demonstrating the elasticity of the Federal Reserve system.

The board deplored evidences of the relaxation of wartime economies, saying that the industries of the United States and other countries would soon need quantities of capital, and that it behooved Americans to continue to be thrifty and pile up reserves of credit.

"The return of active production and consumption is being retarded," the board observed, "by high expenses at production."

MILLWORKER TELLS THE 1919 VERSION OF BREAD UPON WATERS

"THINK OF ME CLIPPING COUPONS," HE SAYS. "IT DOESN'T SEEM REAL"

AST thy bread upon the waters, for thou shalt find it after many days. Millions of Americans can today testify to the truth of this promise. They have learned that the principle is operative now as well as then.

Millions who never had a savings account have been induced by patriotism to save their pennies and their dollars. As a result they now own government securities and belong to the coupon clipping class. A start toward financial independence has almost miraculously come from something that all their lives they have been throwing away. They have learned the possibilities of thrift and are better citizens.

A typical experience was told the other day by a day laborer in a Youngstown manufacturing plant. Here is his story practically in his own words:

"Up to two years ago I didn't have and I never hoped to have a cent saved. With a wife and two kids and a little home to keep up on $3 a day it didn't look possible.

"That's what I told myself when they began talking about Liberty Bonds and Thrift Stamps. I am patriotic. I wanted to help win the war, but it seemed impossible to stretch our wages beyond the food and clothes and coal. The missus agreed with me but we kept thinking about it and talking about it and finally we began to figure. Well, it's a long story and I can't remember it all. It just seemed to happen. First I cut out the Sunday cigar and later the old pipe. Mother gave up a feather she wanted, forgot the movies and cut down on the food trimmings. The kids went barefoot a little longer.

"We plunged and bought a First Liberty Loan Bond and paid for it, $2 a week. We didn't miss a week. I'll never forget the family jubilee when I brought home that beautiful $50 bond. The youngsters jumped up and down and Ma and I were some proud.

"That was the beginning. The four of us had got the bug. We haven't missed an issue. We now own $150 worth of those bonds and are paying on our fourth one.

"Think of me clipping coupons! It don't seem real. Of course, we have been in a terrible war, but if it has taught many people how to save as it has us, it has done a wonderful thing. We're going to keep right on and I hope there'll be more bonds and stamps. We sort of need something to force us to save even now and the thought that we are helping Uncle Sam helps push."

Liberty Loan Levity

Said the Yank to his brother, the Gob: "We've put 'em where he no more can rob And pilage and kill— I wonder now will The folks at home finish the job."

The problems of peace require solution and call upon your loyalty as did the problems of winning the war.

Vinton's Liberty Loan Boat Will Have Girl Sponsor

MARGARET FISCHER

NOT a very big girl, Margaret. And when she stands up alongside of a great ocean boat she will not look any bigger.

But she is going to christen a boat just the same. Vinton County, Ohio, has chosen her—Margaret Fischer of Zaleski, Ohio—to be sponsor for the boat which that county won the right to name. Vinton County won the distinction in the last Liberty Loan campaign when it was the first county in the Cincinnati area to attain its quota in Liberty Bond sales. The county's quota was $120,500, and it had subscribed that amount at the end of the first day of the drive. Its final subscriptions totaled $158,850.

The boat is being built in one of the big government ship yards and probably will be ready for the launching in Spring.
