

Acknowledgments.

We again have the pleasure of presenting below, further and most decisive testimony from the friends in favor of the Organ, and the promotion of the cause. We feel a degree of gratification which we cannot fully express, to know that our humble efforts receive the approbation and support of such true and tried men—men who feel and fully appreciate the magnitude of the approaching conflict between the rum-sellers and their allies, who seek to desolate this fair earth with their pestilential business, and those uncompromising devotees of law, strictly prohibiting the manufacture and traffic in alcoholic drinks as a beverage.

J. F. Hildreth, Hopewell Div. No. 596, Mt. Liberty, Ohio, $1. They wish to file the Organ, and at the end of the volume have it bound and placed in their library. A good move, and we are pleased to hear they have a library.

Wm. Anderson, Cardington, Morrow co., O., $2 for Organ. Bro. A. says, the reason we have not heard from him before, is on account of his absence from home, but will soon send us a club of ten at least. We shall look out for it, and no mistake. If it was twenty, we would not object, Bro. A.

David Mercer, Williamsburg, O., $2 for Organ. This completes a club of 10 to be sent to Batesville, Noble county, O. Bro. M. writes: "I will endeavor to obtain more, as we love the sound of the Organ. It sounds well through these hills and valleys, and one great advantage it has, it entertains and instructs all who will listen to it." We will play them fifty-two tunes for one dollar, but we would like to play it to the tune of five thousand subscribers.

A. A. Stewart, Columbus, O., $1. Hear what this whole-souled temperance man says. We always receive something to encourage us from our esteemed Bro: "You shall hear from me in a few days again. I intend to make the one hundred subscribers up which I promised you last Summer, just as soon as I return from New York. I am to leave for that city either next Thursday evening or Monday."

T. W. Painter, Weymouth, O., $4. Bro. P. is constant in his efforts for the Organ.

John T. Zombro, Urbana, O., $3.

W. H. Clark, agent for Rio Frio Division, St. Clairsville, O., $1. Sorry to hear of Bro. C.'s sickness, and hope he will soon regain his health. He says we shall hear from him again soon.

John Mullin, Springboro', O., $2 for Temperance Song Books and Tracts.

W. C. Ferguson, New Holland, Pickaway co., O., 4 for Organ.

A. G. Elliott, Adamsville, O., $12 and 12 new sub. to Organ.

P. Doolittle, Fredericktown, Ohio, $6 for Organ. Bro. D. writes: "We have had several elections in Knox county, and although the democrats have a large majority, yet the temperance democratic have dropped their regularly nominated anti-temperance candidates, and voted for Temperance whigs, and elected them by large majorities. They have set a noble example, one worthy the imitation of temperance men everywhere." We say so, too. If our political parties, be they whigs or democrats, will not nominate men for offices worthy of the suffrage of temperance men, let us drop them, and not sacrifice our principles in so glorious a cause, merely through party predilections.

S. Kennedy, Pomeroy, O., $2 for Organ. N. Carmichael, Lockland, O., $13 and 17 new subscribers to Organ. We are informed that a new Division is about being organized at Lockland. They have the men there for a good Division. Success attend them.

H. Carey, Xenia, O., sends us the following: "Enclosed you will find $2 and the names of 2 new subscribers. Although our Div. failed to get a premium, I do not intend to relax my labors; and here I would remark, that the labor experienced in obtaining subscribers for the Organ is very light when compared with former times."

John Gordon, Madisonville, O., $3.

P. Dose, Mt. Healthy, O., $2.

R. J. J. Harkins, Duncan's falls, Ohio, $10.

Organ has been sent as directed to Dr. T. B. Hood, Smiley's Corners, Franklin co., O., and we hope to hear from the Dr. at his earliest convenience in the way of a handsome club.

Roswell Reed, Clevea, O., 1 new sub. to Organ. Bro. R. says he will never give up the ship. He will continue to send in names to the Organ as fast as he obtains them.

E. S. Close, Springdale P. O., Ham. co., Ohio, $2 for Organ, an addition to the club from that place.

John W. Walker, Cedarville, Ohio, $5 for Organ. The Bro. says: "You can place them on the list for this place, already in your possession. I shall send you some more in a few days. I have the promise of some four or five more, and I certainly shall 'keep it before the people.' I could give you the history of a young man, that has just gone to the world of spirits, from our neighborhood, through the agency of the liquor traffic, which is heart-rending in the extreme; but I have not time now." We should like to have had the particular, Bro. Walker.

John Rattle, R. S., Ashtabula Div., Ashtabula, O., $3. Bro. R. says in his letter: "I think I shall send more; the sky is growing bright. But while I am writing in this hall, the howlings and hootings of some drunken vagabond is heard all over this town, and I hope he will keep it up until our authorities shall be compelled to put a stop to the selling of that as a beverage which destroys both soul and body." We should be pleased to send a large club to Ashtabula. Perhaps the Organ would aid in bringing about that 'good time coming.'

John O. Reed, Mt. Vernon, O., $2. We give brother Reed's excellent opinion in regard to the duties of Temperance men. He says: "I shall keep sending them as fast as I can hunt them up, for every new accession to our ranks, 'falls like the gentle showers on the thirsty earth;' and if we can get men to read, we're all right. I believe the greatest obstacle to the advancement of our cause, is the want of information, and I consider every Son of Temperance and Templar as much bound by their obligation to spread such information as will lead to the final triumph of our cause, as they are to abstain from the use of alcoholic beverages themselves."

J. Chambers, Eaton, O., $10. Bro. C. assures us that we may confidently look for more names from Eaton. Hope so. We had a fine list from there last year.

Deersville, Ohio, $1 for Organ.

James Aigin, Delaware, O., sends us another decidedly interesting letter, this week, containing $17.00 and 17 new subscribers. We have no inclination whatever to drop our correspondence with Bro. A., particularly while he is within bounds of Brother Herbert's labors. Bro. A. writes: "I have the pleasure to state to you that the DELAWARE HOUSE is a strictly temperance hotel, kept by CORNELL & STULTS. I trust that you will inform your numerous readers of it, hoping that when any of them comes to Delaware, they will not forget to stop with Cornell & Stults, as they will find them gentlemanly landlords, and their house clear from all alcoholic nuisances. I trust our temperance men will not forget the House. Unless Temperance Hotels get the support of temperance men, they must be closed, or be turned into rum holes.—Last Friday evening, about fifteen of us went to Radnor, and organized a new Division with 18 members. We had the Presbyterian church to organize in, and among the number was two ministers. Thanks to Bro. Herbert and the Organ for this new accession to our Order in this county. May God prosper our brethren in their new and glorious enterprise."

John H. Mercer, Mt. Pleasant, Jefferson co., O., $30 and 30 new subscribers. Bro. M. says: "I forward you this list with a fair prospect of a few more soon. Our list may be among the last, but we trust it will not be among the least. If we do not get a premium, we shall be content with that best of all premiums, the consciousness of having done something to forward a cause in which the poor drunkard and his wife and children have such vital interests at stake. It is my candid opinion that if the State would subscribe for twenty thousand copies of the Organ, and distribute them among the people, double that amount would be saved in the State, that is now worse than wasted. We are working away here, and do not expect to accomplish anything unless we do work. We have, as the result of our labors, got pretty well clear of rum and its effects in our midst by the best of all laws—public opinion; this is the basis upon which the Maine law, or any other law, must rest. Hence, while we are trying to get the Maine law, it is our imperative duty to distribute such matter among the people as will mould their sentiments in its favor, and thereby render it efficacious."

E. Dimmitt, Boston, Clermont co., O., $2 for Organ.

J. Oldham, Brownsville, O., 1 sub., for which we received the cash some time since.

H. S. Elliott, Germantown, Ohio, $1 and 1 new subscriber.

Women's State Temperance Convention.

Owing to the crowd of matter on hands, we were unable to notice last week, as fully as we wished, the transactions of this body. The following were the presiding officers on the occasion:

President—Mrs. Prof. COWLES.

Vice Presidents—Mrs. Bateham, Mrs. Sheldon, of Columbus; Mrs. Bronson, of Medina, and Mrs. A. E. Lewis, of Cincinnati.

Secretaries—Mrs. Burnell, of Elyra; Mrs. Griffith, of Litchfield, and Mrs. Elizabeth Jones, of Salem.

Among the business of the Convention was the organization of a State Temperance Society, and the adoption of a constitution, the election of officers, &c.

A resolution was also adopted recommending the formation of County and Township Female Temperance Societies throughout the State, and that all such societies become auxiliary to the State Society.

The following memorial was adopted by the Convention, and seven delegates appointed to present it to the General Assembly:

To the General Assembly of the State of Ohio:

The memorial of the Women's State Temperance Convention, convened in Columbus, January 13, 1853, represents, that in view of the many grievous evils consequent upon the traffic in, and habitual use of alcoholic liquors as a beverage, it is most imperatively required that some speedy and effectual measures be taken to eradicate those evils; we, therefore, pray your honorable body that a law may be enacted similar in its provisions to the Maine Liquor Law, which shall be effectual in suppressing the entire traffic in the State of Ohio, except for mechanical and medical purposes.

And your memorialists would further pray that in view of the vital importance to the family of the inebriate, and to the successful operations of the law, that you will incorporate in the law the humane and liberal provision granting the wife and children the right to sue the seller of ardent spirits for the recovery of the value of money paid by the husband or father for the same.

We also most respectfully urge your honorable body to consider the petitions of the people of this State, which have heretofore been presented, praying for a prohibitory liquor law in Ohio.

We anticipate much good as the result of this movement of the philanthropic women of Ohio. They are most interested in preserving their sons and husbands from the blighting effects of the infernal traffic in alcoholic poisons, and they should loudest raise their voices to stay the arm of the destroyer.

In speaking of the Convention the State Journal says:

"The proceedings in the Representatives' Hall, on Thursday evening, were decidedly interesting, and attracted a very full attendance. Tho' there was not a very strict adherence to parliamentary rules, yet that is not by any means a novel sight in that Hall. The address of Mrs. JONES, of Salem, was a finished, able, and eloquent production. Its arrangement was logical, and its rhetoric of a high order. Her enunciation was clear, distinct and graceful. She made herself heard to the extremity of the Hall. Mrs. GRIFFIN's was also a literary effort of a high order. Her address, though pleasing, was not quite so clear, distinct, and impressive as that of Mrs. Jones. Mrs. CONNER read an article written by a lady of Morgan. She has a good voice and distinct utterance, so that she was clearly understood through the Hall.

As an exhibition of female capacity, education, and literary taste, the evening's entertainment was very pleasing and satisfactory. All the speakers agreed that the previous steps in the Temperance Reform were failures, and that their hopes now all centered in the enactment of the Maine Law by the Legislature. Several of the members were in attendance. Their votes, hereafter, will show what effect this new appeal made upon their judgments.

The authorities of Hartford, Ct., have prohibited theatrical exhibitions in that city.
