THURSDAY, JULY 8, 1915.

THOSE SONGS OF YESTERDAY.

We ain't so awful up-to-date, Ner don't pretend to be; I guess, however, we can wait, An' bide a little wee, Our square pianner's jes' as good As on our wedding day; No pianoller ever could Such golden music play.

New-fangled songs may be more smart, An' may be all the rage, But somehow they don't reach the heart Like those of yester-age. "Kathleen Mavourneen," "Bonnie Doon," An' "Comin' Thro' the Rye," And "Silver Threads," old-fashioned tune, But one that cannot die.

Popular music? I'll admit We're jest a leetle slow; We wouldn't know the latest hit From Mr. Ziegfeld's show; But "Annie Rooney," "Sweet Marie," "Comrades," "After the Ball," Retain the same charm as when we First heard and loved them all.

A tax on false hair would help some.

How to lower the price of eggs? Keep a hen. All the world loves a lover when he goes to war. Happy is the man who can be alone without being lonely.

One ship that is safe from the submarines—the censorship.

Many a man has put himself in a hole by taking the stump. Now a prune trust. Is there no help for the boarding house? European capitals are not moved because moving is cheaper than paying rent.

DIDN'T SURPRISE BILL.

On Thursday evening last a party of friends called at the home of William Mills for the purpose of giving him a surprise celebration of his birthday anniversary, but "Billie" was too foxy for them and came down town and escorted the bunch up to the house, where they enjoyed the fascination of cards, cigars and splendid refreshments until about 2:30 the next morning, when Bill went to sleep and the boys quietly slipped away without disturbing his "beauty" sleep. As yet none of the party have been able to induce Mills to reveal his age, but Mawer says "Billie is 60 if he is a minute."

If you have ever used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy you know that it is a success. Sam F.
