Stories of Success

JOHN W. ALEXANDER

Keeping everlastingly at it brings success. With ordinary talent and extraordinary perseverance, most things come through. Persistent people begin their success where others end in failure. There was no opening in the art room of a New York publishing house when John W. Alexander came from Allegheny, Pennsylvania for a job.

But the future president of the National Academy of Design, the most important art society in America, would not take "no" for an answer.

The next few years he worked hard, and from wages of three to eight dollars a week saved enough to attend the Royal Academy at Munich.

Without the money-saving habit, without perseverance and frugality, when golden opportunity knocks at your door you will not be ready.

See us today about this important matter.

—Capt. George Greenhalgh was in St. Louis, Mo., on business the first of the week.

Doan's Regulets are recommended by many who say they operate easily, without griping and without bad after effects. 25c at all drug stores.
