A Botanical Error Christmas Bells

A Christmas Poem

By GOODLOE THOMAS.
(Copyright, 1915, by American Press Association.)

PEGGY wore a sprig of mistletoe, Wore it Christmas eve. Of course you know What the consequences were Wearing that—and in her hair.

PEGGY'S not to blame for doing so.
How could she know it was mistletoe—
Just a sprig of green she found Lying carelessly around?

SOME said Peggy wasn't very slow At a party wearing mistletoe And a light in her blue eyes Not exactly shocked surprise.

PEGGY'S not the least to blame, although 'Twas remarked, concerning mistletoe, Her mistake seemed odd. You see,
Peg excels in botany!

Christmas Money.

The demand for Christmas money at the New York subtreasury grows each year. On a recent Christmas about $250,000 a day in new coin, both gold and silver, was provided to meet the demand, which kept up until Christmas day. This Christmas money comes direct from the mint each year at this time. Thousands of residents of New York who never see the subtreasury at any other time pour down on the dingy old Wall street building and clamor for bright new gold and silver.
The big department stores also demand new money, both to please their customers and to facilitate change.

Idea For Christmas Decoration.

In the dining room that has to have a screen to conceal the kitchen there may be a very simple and effective addition made to the Christmas decorations by pinning holly to it, covering the original surface completely. Lace curtains may also be effectually used in this way to make lovely bits of color in the room.

Charming Christmas Eve Custom

A delightful custom in many homes is the reading aloud of Christmas literature on Christmas eve.

After the stockings are hung and the children are ready to be tucked snug in their beds the whole family gathers in front of the fire, while each one, large or small, contributes something toward the invocation of the Christmas spirit.

Among the choice selections that have been found especially appropriate for this hour, when hearts are tender and receptive, are Dickens' "Christmas Carol," bits from Herriek, Walter Scott and George Withers, Reginald Heber's "Star of the East," Luther's beautiful carol "All Praise to the Eternal Lord," Alfred Domett's Christmas hymn, Phillips Brooks' exquisite "Oh, Little Town of Bethlehem!" or any of the Christmas gems written by Mrs. Sangster, Margaret Deland, Louisa M. Alcott and other American and English writers.

Last in the reading comes the simple Testament story of the Nativity, and just then, as the children are ready to scamper off to bed the recitation in concert of that wonderful, ever new Christmas poem "Twas the Night Before Christmas," their exit being appropriately timed to its conclusion:

Merry Christmas to all,
And to all a good night!

By MINNA IRVING.

(Copyright, 1915, by American Press Association.)

WHEN all the world is white with snow
Ten million tongues repeat The tidings of the birth of Christ In accents clear and sweet.
They fling the message to and fro O'er frosty hills and dells Till every earthly ear has heard The music of the bells.

THEY are the echoes of a voice Still ringing through the night From blossom bearing lands of sun To lands of frozen white, First heard on old Judea's plain, Where flocks and shepherds lay, By time and distance multiplied To welcome Christmas day.

FOR then a shepherd boy awoke And rubbed his sleepy eyes And saw a star of wondrous light Above him in the skies And, pointing to its glory, cried:
"All hail the Christmas morn!
Behold the star of Bethlehem, The Prince of Peace is born!"

Light Up on Christmas Eve.

Some residents of Boston received the following announcement daintily printed in old English a few days before a recent Christmas:

"To All Whom It May Concern—Greeting: We again bespeak your good will and assistance in adding to the cheer of Christmas eve by placing lighted candles in the windows of your houses between 6 and 10 at night, to the end that the hearts of passersby may be gladdened and that the day of good will and glad tidings may be fittingly commemorated."

The response was more general than was expected. Scarcely a house of those to whom the appeal was addressed but had its candles arranged long before the hour appointed and promptly at 6 o'clock lighted up in a flare of Christmas light. The effect of good Christmas cheer and of welcome to the coming festival was charming. The custom will be observed hereafter.

"My Christmas De- cision"

From Battle Creek, Mich., a Christmas message was sent to the nation—a message that may mean Christmas cheer for the starving tenement dwellers, the street walf, the jobless man, the social outcast, for everybody who is lonely, neglected or friendless.

With Rev. George E. Barnes as sponsor a movement was started to "make this Christmas Christmas for everybody."

The following, called "My Christmas Decision," was sent broadcast:

"Every Christmas season makes your friendship and mine more precious and our love more tender.

"This year the thought of that love has been bringing to me a new consciousness of the needs of the whole world of Christmas cheer and love.

"Desolate homes, stricken countries and imperiled lives abroad; slackened industry and impending suffering at home—all are calling. I want you to know that my Christmas gift to you will be quite simple, but warmed with the fire of a new love, for I am going to give an extra gift to the needs of all those whom I deeply love.

"My joy in this new service will be greater if you join me in its spirit, that our Christmas celebration may be kept simple, filled with good will, winged with sacrifice and devoted to peace."
