The Ohio State Journal, whose old-fashioned editor still foolishly believes that what this country needs is legislation and more legislation, wants a "small, compact general assembly, practically continually in session and composed of but one body." Now, Heaven forefend! We have legislative indignation now. Think of eating a quail a day for 30 days, and then think of a legislature in continuous session! And only a single body! Never! We need one chamber in which to bury the mistakes of the other, one to which the other can commit for execution those measures it feels compelled to pass, but knows should be killed. Really it would be well if one chamber held its sessions at Cincinnati and the other at Cleveland—neutral territory being secured in each city and properly policed—in order that there should be an appreciable delay in transmission between the two branches. What we want is less law and more law obedience, fewer laws and better law enforcement, less government and better officers, less theory and more common sense, which is the most uncommon sense.—Ohio Star.

A woman who claimed to be a vice crusader from another city was caught in a raid made upon a restaurant where a cabaret show was in progress in Chicago a few days ago and was compelled to give testimony before a vice commission. She says she saw dances that were bad and listened to songs that were vile, and said she would not like to have her daughter see and hear them for fear of the bad effect it might have upon the girl. We are indeed sorry for this mother who testified that she has raised a daughter whom she dare not trust to see anything vile for fear the child will embrace it. We are very much inclined to believe that this mother could have spent her time more profitably in strengthening her daughter's character and instilling in that daughter a purity of mind and soul that would have been her greatest safeguard against the evils this mother feared her daughter might embrace.

There are two classes of people in the world, the "Do Somethings" and the "Do Nothings." The former are of vast importance to the world while the latter are as barnacles, dead weight, cumberers of the ground. The "Do Somethings" are the men who rear empires, build cities, build railroads, subdue mountains and keep the golden chariot of Progress continually on the move upward. The "Do Nothings" sit on the fence and say "You can't do it. There's no use trying. We are doing well enough." The line of separation is being drawn in Perrysburg, and every citizen should declare himself and let his neighbor know to which class he belongs.

An Ohio Legislator recently introduced a bill to regulate the wearing apparel worn by women in public, and now a woman in Philadelphia is waging war against the display in shop windows of women's lingerie. The Ohio Legislator thinks the outer apparel is conducive to loose morals and the Philadelphia women think the looking at women's underwear as displayed in the shop windows is conducive to impure thoughts. If a few more idiots insist on regulating women and their wearing apparel, there won't be much fun in being a woman anymore.

But one hope soothes and sustains Congress in this trying hour, that about the time it tackles tariff revision the public will be so interested in baseball that it will not watch the revision closely.

Some are rich beyond the dream of avarice, while others own umbrella factories and rubber boot mills.

These floods speak eloquently in support of the policy of conserving our natural timber resources.

MINISTER'S MEETING.

On Monday last the regular meeting of the Methodist Ministers of this district was held at the M. E. Church in Perrysburg and was attended by about 30 ministers and their wives. Dr. E. D. Whitlock of Toledo presided in the absence of Rev. Crist who was late in arriving. The programme of exercises was of much interest, and one pleasing number being an able address by a German M. E. Minister from Austria, Hungary, his subject being the Religious Conditions in Austria. His address was filled with information and brilliant thoughts and was exceptionally interesting. Musical numbers of the programme were instrumental trios ably rendered by Miss Irene LaFarree and Mr. Harry LaFarree accompanied by Miss Gertrude Thornton. Miss Myrtle Giltman of Toledo gave a vocal solo in charming voice and the German M. E. Quartette of Toledo were a pleasing addition to the musical programme. During the session Rev. Graham and wife of Sidney, Rev. Vandercall and C. F. Chapman of Perrysburg were introduced to the association and given a pleasing welcome. After the close of the regular programme the meeting resolved itself into a social gathering until the entire party were escorted to the church parlors where a dinner was in waiting. The dinner was given by Mrs. F. C. Eberly in honor of Rev. and Mrs. N. B. C. Love, the latter having been a minister of the Methodist Church for sixty years, and it was also in celebration of their sixtieth wedding anniversary. Mrs. Eberly was assisted by several ladies of the church in serving the dinner and the occasion was one of interest and pleasure to all who attended. During the afternoon Rev. Love was presented with a purse of sixty dollars in gold by the ministers and friends.

Make your words as palatable as you can. You may be forced to eat them some day.

Clothes don't make the woman but they make every body look.

MEETING OF ASSESSORS

The personal property assessors, met at the Court House for supplies and instructions. "Every person in Wood County of full age and sound mind, whether male or female, must be personally seen, and each must carefully list all the property he or she owns in excess of $100.00 for taxation purposes", were the instructions given by County Auditor C. E. Steinbaugh.

The following schedule was taken by the assessors as a standard for the return of grain and stock:

Table with 2 columns: Item, Value. Corn .45c bu. or 65c hundred; Oats .30c; Wheat $1.00 bu.; Barley .55c; Rye .70c; Hay $8.00 timothy, $6.00 clover; Clover Seed $9.00; Timothy Seed $1.50; Fat cattle 7c; Stock cattle 5c; Fat hogs 8c; Stock hogs 8c.

Standing on His Rights. The next witness was a hard-fisted, resolute yeoman, with a bristling chin beard.

"Mr. Gigon," said the attorney for the defense, "are you acquainted with the reputation of this man for truth and veracity in the neighborhood in which he lives?"

"I reckon I am," replied the witness. "I will ask you to state what it is." "Well, sir, his reputation for truth ain't no good. His reputation for vassity—well, that's different. Some says he does, and some says he don't."

"Witness," interposed the judge, "do you know the meaning of 'veracity'?" "I reckon I do."

"What do you understand by the word?" The witness twirled his hat in his fingers a few moments without answering. Then he looked up defiantly. "I refuse to answer that question, judge," he said, "on the ground that it might discriminate me."

DEATH OF YOUNG MOTHER

Many friends of Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Shepherd of Toledo were greatly surprised and grieved to learn of the sudden death of Mrs. Shepherd on Sunday morning last. Mrs. Shepherd, (nee Miss Lulu Wallace) only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wallace of Perrysburg, was born in Roachton August 30, 1884, and was married to Dr. J. P. Shephard June 12, 1906.

For a time they resided in Toledo and later made their home in Marietta, Ohio, but about the first of this year they came to Perrysburg and were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace while preparing to locate in Toledo, and after securing a pleasant home in the city they had but settled down to home life when Mrs. Shepherd was taken sick with a severe cold which resulted in plury and subsequent death.

She leaves a baby seven months old, Jeanne Eleanor, and her husband to mourn her early demise. Other near relatives are her father and mother and one brother.

The funeral services were held from the residence of the parents of Mrs. Shepherd in Perrysburg on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Webster assisted by Rev. Wallace of Toledo and Rev. Tanneyhill of Perrysburg interment will be made in Fort Meigs cemetery.

The deepest sympathy of the entire community is extended to the family in their great bereavement.
