The next meeting of the Y. M. C. A. will be held Thursday evening, Oct. 1. This will be the beginning of the fall and winter work and all members are urged to be present.

Miss Maud Packard of Chatham is the guest of Miss Essie Raw.

Mr. G. W. Ott and family have returned to Cleveland for the winter.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Alderfer was the scene of a charming wedding Wednesday noon when their daughter Cecile M. was united in marriage to Park Griswold, son of W. D. Griswold and wife.

Seventy-five guests witnessed the ring ceremony which was performed by Dr. C. B. Etter of the Lutheran church. The bride was given away by her father and was attended by a maid of honor, Miss Mae Griswold, and four bridesmaids the Misses Grace Waters, Nell Halderman, and Ruth Alderfer of this place and Miss Mae Babcock of St. John's, Mich., while Fred Alderfer acted as best man.

The bride wore a simple gown of white voile and carried yellow tea roses. The bride's attendants were also in white and carried pink, white and lavender asters. The house was tastefully decorated in golden rod and clematis.

Mrs. Jessie Daniels Stauffer played Lohengrin's wedding march and following the ceremony Miss Mary Elright sang "What if those endearing young charms?"

After congratulations the wedding party and guests repaired to the home of the bride's uncle, Mr. J. M. Alderfer, where a wedding dinner was served.

The bride and groom eluded the waiting guests and made their escape in an auto for an auto trip returning Sunday noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Griswold were the recipients of many beautiful gifts.

Guests were present from Akron, Cuyahoga Falls, Cleveland, Springfield Lake, Elyria, St. John's, Mich., Gillette, Wyo., Wadsworth and Medina. Congratulations and best wishes.

STERN REBUKE TO PARTY TRAITORS

Handed Out by Running Mates of Governor Cox.

"TRUE DEMOCRACY LEAGUE"

Support Declined by Attorney General Hogan, Joseph McGhee and Lieutenant Governor W. A. Greenlund.—Former Charges That the Organization is for the Purpose of Securing Plunder.

Rejection of the professed support of the so called "True Democracy League," which is opposing the reelection of Governor James M. Cox in the interest of Congressman Frank B. Willis, the Republican nominee, was made public by Attorney General Timothy S. Hogan, nominee for United States senator; Lieutenant Governor William Greenlund, renominated, and Joseph McGhee, nominee for attorney general.

Coupled with the refusal to accept the tendered assistance are stern rebukes to the politicians composing the league and the leveling of hostile attacks upon Harvey C. Garber, who seems to be accepted as the directing genius of the organization.

Asked to Come Into Open. It was announced that the candidates upon the state Democratic ticket were a unit in declining to accept the support of the league, which was offered in an official statement put out by former Public Printer E. A. Crawford of West Union, who is in charge of the headquarters.

That no credence was placed in the Crawford declaration of friendship is made very clear, the Democratic leaders asserting that there is ample evidence that the league's compact with the Republican state committee is for the whole ticket.

Said to Have Aided Harding. From Republican sources, they say, there is plenty of proof that Garber in addition to supporting Willis in the Republican primary as against David Tod, also aided the senatorial candidacy of Warren G. Harding, whom he supported for governor in 1910 against Harmon.

In his statement of the position which he and his associates have assumed toward the so called Garber-Whitacre movement, Attorney General Hogan said: "I want it distinctly understood in the beginning that I do not wish the support of a pretended organization of so called Democrats who are fighting any of the nominees of the party selected at the state primary. We all welcome individual votes from any source coming from proper motives without regard to the party to which the voter may belong, but I am not that kind of Democrat who will accept the support of any organization of men who are banded together for purposes of their own, intending to support Mr. Willis in the hope of securing political plunder."

"Best in Union." "Mr. Garber may as well get ready to support the whole Republican ticket. All the Democratic nominees are a unit, and speaking for myself, I do not want a vote from any man who has been a traitor to the cause of Democracy in Ohio as made since the first inauguration of Governor Harmon. I want the active support of every good citizen regardless of politics who believes, as I believe, that the administrations of Governors Harmon and Cox have made this the best governed state in the Union."

"The members of the so called 'True' or 'Blue' Democracy, or whatever better describes it, may as well make up their minds that their fight is with every nominee on the Democratic ticket as well as with the governor. With me the cause is first and I am second."

Speaking at Akron, Lieutenant Governor Greenlund declared that the Democrats do not want the support of any faction which is trying to use the hatchet on Governor Cox. The second man on the state ticket expressed the belief that other state and county candidates would be prompt to give expression to similar views.

"Must Support Cox." "So far as I am concerned," said Lieutenant Governor Greenlund, "if they wish to make Governor Cox the issue, they are perfectly welcome. I do not want the support of any league that can not support the governor."

The lieutenant governor said in his opinion the regular Democrats of the state could not be gulped or persuaded by any sugar-coated promises. Assistant Attorney General Joseph McGhee had this to say: "I concede the right of any elector to vote for whatsoever candidate his conscience dictates. But I deny the claim of anyone to be a Democrat who, by banding together with those whose purposes are purely personal, seeks to overthrow the will of the Democratic party as expressed at the primary. The Democracy of Ohio as a whole entered into the late primary in the utmost good faith and is in honor bound by its results, and in my judgment there can be very few in deed of the rank and file who refuse to accept the expressed will of their party. I do not expect nor do I desire the support of any organization which exists solely for the purpose of defeating any of my associates on the ticket."
