—An enthusiastic electric railway meeting was held in the Masonic club rooms at Wadsworth on Tuesday evening. Samuel Andrews presided and delegations from Hinckley, Granger, Sharon and other points were present. Wadsworth was well represented, there being more than 100 present. The interest shown in the projected C. B. C. & Z. railway was greater than ever before. The proposed line is to extend from Cleveland thru Hinckley and Sharon, Granger, Wadsworth, Rittman and Smithville to Wooster, and is to be built on private right of way instead of upon public highway.
